

THEY CALL IT THE UNRAVELING. Or they will, anyway. Hard to say with time travel. Too many trips, and timelines begin to fray at the edges. Most folks just struggle to adapt to this broken world. Some exploit it for their own gain. But for others – the warriors, investigators, and agents of change – there are wrongs to right, paradoxers to catch, and a glimmer of hope of fixing this mess.

RULES

PLAY: Players describe what their characters do. The GM advises when their action is impossible, requires extra steps, demands a cost, or presents a risk. Players only roll to avoid risks.

ROLLING: Roll a d6 skill die – higher with a relevant skill, or d4 if hindered by injury or circumstances. If helped by circumstances, roll an extra d6; if helped by an ally, they roll their skill die and share the risk. Take the highest die.

1-2 Disaster. Suffer the full risk. GM decides if you succeed at all. If risking death, you die.

3-4 Setback. A lesser consequence or partial success. If risking death, you're maimed.

5+ Success. The higher the roll, the better.

If success can't get you what you want (you make the shot, but it's bulletproof!), you'll at least get useful info or set up an advantage.

LOAD: Carry as much as makes sense, but more than one bulky item may hinder you at times.

ADVANCEMENT: After a job, increase a skill (none → d8 → d10 → d12), and gain 1 credit (€).

DEFENSE: Say how one of your items (or robotic limbs) breaks to turn a hit into a brief hindrance. Broken gear is useless until repaired.

HARM: Clear injuries and stress with time and/or treatment. If killed, make a new character to be introduced ASAP. Favor inclusion over realism.

SHIP: During an emergency, choose a duty to act or help with (e.g., engines, pilot, weapons, etc.).

MODERATING: Lead group in setting lines not to cross in play. Fast-forward, pause, or rewind/redo for pacing and safety; invite players to do likewise. Present dilemmas you don't know how to solve. Move spotlight to give all time to shine. Test periodically for bad luck (e.g., run into hostiles) – roll d6 for (1-2) trouble now or (3-4) signs of trouble. Offer rulings to cover gaps in rules; on a break, revise unsatisfying rulings as a group.
