Virtues and Flaws

Venus' Blessing (Bonus: +3 Com and Pre with sexually compatible characters) (Minor, General)

Well-Traveled (50/50) (Minor, General)

Polygot (Minor, General). This virtue grants Affinity for all Living Languages. The character is adept at learning the spoken word, but

| cannot gain experience points from texts on a language and has a    |
|---|
| -3 penalty to Living Language ability scores (other than his native |
| language) when attempting to comprehend something he reads. He      |
| benefits normally from exposure, a teacher, or practice. The        |
| character still needs Artes Liberales to read and write. (e.g. A    |
| Catalan character from Barcelona with Polyglot has a Living         |
| Language: Greek score of 4. When reading a Greek Bible, his         |
| score of 4 is considered a 1.)                                      |

Falco is an Italian from Piedmont. He lacks his traveling companions' martial prowess, but he's a good shot with a crossbow, and speaks almost a half-dozen languages with a honey-sweet silver tongue. Part of why he travels with the three brutal mercenaries is his inability to keep his hands off other men's wives.
