The Draconis Combine

MechWarrior:

The Draconis Combine salutes you upon your entrance into the brave warriors who comprise the Arm of the Dragon. You should be prepared to carry the banner of our glorious military tradition. This tradition is the foundation of our destiny to conquer all of human space.

Perfidious forces have maneuvered behind the scenes, thinking to make our position untenable. However, they do not know us as they think they do. We shall not be easily beaten, we shall instead grow more powerful from this experience.

If you are truly prepared to sacrifice yourself for the betterment of our society, then we cannot fail. No service can be more honorable than this. Our military commands the greatest respect of our civilian population — do nothing to tarnish this respect.

The way of the Dragon cannot be known by outsiders. This is our great strength. If we can keep our true intent from our evil foes until it is too late for them to stop us then ultimate success cannot fail to belong to the Dragon!
