The Capellan Confederation

Mech Warrior:

Welcome to the ranks of the elite MechWarriors. You have a vital role to play in the policies of the Capellan Confederation. You will be the sword that I wield to strike down those who would oppose us.

Because we are the smallest of the successor states we cannot use brute force to achieve our goals. Instead, we must be cleverer than our opponents — we must out-think them. Duty and loyalty must be our watchwords.

Your task will be to strengthen yourself while simultaneously weakening our enemies. This is most optimally done by maintaining your own loyalties while picking away at our rival's weak-minded bonds. Be as strong as the steel in the sword that is our symbol.

We have travelled far together, yet the greatest journey lies ahead. It is a journey fraught with hardships and self-sacrifice but we shall persevere. Our perseverance can only lead to triumph because to do otherwise would be to forgo our duty. By following our duties triumph surely will be ours.
