

NO THANK YOU, EVIL!™

READ THIS FIRST!

Hey, parents or other adults,

If you've just purchased this game, here's how to get started!

Unlike some games, No Thank You, Evil! requires a bit of preparation ahead of time. Before you sit down to play, read the Welcome to No Thank You, Evil! and the Play the Game sections of the rulebook.

Take a look at the Make Your Character section so you can help players create their characters.

Read through "Lost in DragonSnot Falls," the beginner adventure in Let's Go on an Adventure. You'll also find helpful tips in the Introduction and Run the Game sections of Let's Go on an Adventure.

Hey, kids,

Have fun checking out the character and companion cards, the dice, and the tokens. Flip through the rulebook and sneak a peek at some of the choices you can make in this awesomely fun game.

But you probably need an adult to help you get started playing the game.
