AEDUCT'S ARCANES BINDING TAPE

Wondrous item: (Rarity varies)

There are few magical items more useful or arcane technologies so taken for granted as the modern miracle that is Aeduct's Arcane Binding Tape. These unassuming strips of magical cloth have proven to have to have a near endless supply of uses.

Arcane Binding, or Aeduct's Tape, as it is commonly referred to, is ingenious in its simplicity. Thin strips of Drow Silk, specially treated in a bath of proprietary magical dyes, are inscribed with spellwork to create a magically adhesive roll of cloth capable of bonding permanently to almost any surface, and withstanding incredible forces. What's more, modern innovations and variants in the inscribed spellwork are able to extend the utility of Aeduct's Tape even further.

While Larger bolts of Arcane Binding can sometimes be purchased for industrial use. Aeduct's Tape is generally sold in 2in wide rolls of 30ft, and 60ft lengths, and is easily recognized by the distinctive pattern of runic spellwork, which glows briefly when activated. Arcane Binding can be Cut to any size, and comes in a number of varieties. Some of the most Common are listed below

AEDUCT'S ARCANES BINDING

Cost: 2gp/ft

The original Arcane Binding Tape, Aeduct's Arcane Binding comes with a trigger word inscribed on the inside of its golden spool, and adheres instantly to any nonliving surface when that trigger word is said. It can be easily cut to length with any blade, but once bonded, will support up to 200 lbs of weight.

AEDUCT'S ARCANES BANDAGES

Cost: 5gp/ft

Used to quickly treat workplace injuries, Aeduct's Arcane Bandage comes pre-perforated at 6 inch intervals, and can be used to heal lacerations and puncture wounds on living creatures. 6 inches of tape recovers 1d6 hp and takes a full action to properly apply. The tape gradually fades away, fusing with the target's skin over the course of 24 hours.

AEDUCT'S RESTORATIVE BANDAGES

Cost: 20gp/ft

Banned in numerous cities and kingdoms. Aeduct's Restorative Bandages were created to help ease those long hours of work or adventuring. Similarly perforated to arcane bandages, 6 Inches of Restorative Bandage can reliably recreate the effects of taking a short rest, and this effect can stack with more applications to grant the benefits of an long rest. Unfortunately, the effects of the bandages proved to be highly addictive, and extensive use often leads to total dependence and an inability to gain the benefits of resting without the product's use.

AEDUCT'S HIGH STRENGTH BINDING

Cost: 5gp/ft

Threaded with Strands of Ironweave for additional strength, Aeduct's High Strength Binding works exactly the same as the original binding tape, but has a bonded strength of 500 lbs, and is resistant to bludgeoning, slashing, and piercing damage once activated.

AEDUCT'S RELEASABLE BINDING

Cost: 3gp/ft

Inscribed with a two-way enchantment, Aeduct's Releasable Binding adheres to surfaces just like the original binding tape, but can be removed by way of a secondary trigger word. Unfortunately a flaw in the runic inscription means that the bonded strength of the tape is reduced by 50lbs each time it is released in this way, so the same strip of tape cannot be used indefinitely.

AEDUCT'S CONDUCTIVE BINDING

Cost: 4gp/ft

Used to quickly bridge connections in places where traditional wiring is not an option, Aeduct's Conductive Binding has a bonded strength of 100 lbs, and is electrically, thermally, and magically conductive

AEDUCT'S ELASTIC BINDING

Cost: 3gp/ft

Aeduct's Elastic Binding functions almost exactly the same as the original binding tape, but once bonded, is capable of stretching up to twice its original length.

AEUDUCT'S LUMINOUS STRIP

Cost: 2gp/ft

A simple but ever useful variation, Aeuduct's Luminous Tape doesn't have the same holding power as other arcane tapes, topping out at a bonded strength of 50 lbs, however when a second trigger word is spoken, the runes on Luminous Tape emit bright light out to a range of 10 ft, and dim light out to a range of 20 ft.

AEUDUCT'S SILENCING STRIP

Cost: 2gp/ft

Initially developed to silence noisy tools and machinery, Aeuduct's Luminous Tape only has a bonded strength of 50 lbs, but is capable of making any tool or object it is applied to completely silent. Unfortunately, many thieves and bandits have discovered that this property works just as well when applied over the mouth of a noisy victim.

AEUDUCT'S MENDING TAPE

Cost: 5gp/ft

Aeuduct's Mending Tape was created to quickly repair damaged tools and equipment on the go. Rather than simply bonding to a surface, Mending tape actually repairs breaks and tears in the same way as the Mending cantrip. In order to be effective, the entire break or tear must be covered by the tape. When activated this tape fuses with the object it is attached to, fading away

AEUDUCT'S ADHESIVE FUSE

Cost: 1gp/ft

Aeuduct's Adhesive Fuse was originally a failed experiment, however it's rapid combustibility eventually found use in large mining operations and controlled demolition. When one end of a strip or roll is ignited, the flame travels almost instantaneously from one side to the other, consuming the tape. It has recently been discovered that Adhesive Fuse can be used to transmit the effects of touch based spells as well, destroying the fuze in the process.

AEUDUCT'S EVERCLEAN WRAP

Cost: 3gp/ft

Highly sought after by mages and other compulsive cleaners, This variant of arcane tape only has a bonded strength of 20 lbs, but once applied becomes an invisible barrier against water, dirt, and other forms of contamination.

AEUDUCT'S SAFETY TAPE

Cost: 2gp/ft

Developed for and reducing workplace accidents, Aeuduct's Safety Tape is a specialised variant of releasable binding that can be applied to any sharp or otherwise dangerous surface to render it incapable of dealing damage. Applying up to 2ft of safety tape requires a full action.

AEUDUCT'S INSTANT BARRICADE

Cost: 3gp/ft

Created to help quickly section of dangerous or sensitive areas such as crime scenes, Aeuduct's Instant Barricade has all the same properties as the original Arcane Binding, but with a few important additions:

When used to enclose an area by creating an unbroken perimeter of tape, Aeuduct's Instant Barricade functions as a powerful ward, preventing creatures from entering or exiting the enclosed shape. Any Creatures inside the enclosed are when the perimeter is completed may pass through the perimeter at will, and can designate who, in addition to themselves, can pass through the perimeter, or set a password that will suppress the ward for 1 minute if spoken within 5 feet of the door. Casting the spell knock on the perimeter will also suppress the ward for 10 minutes.

The perimeter of tape can be cut and removed by a specially enchanted blade, permanently destroying the ward.

AEDUCT'S BARRICADE KNIFE

Wonderous Item: Any bladed tool or weapon

A simple blade inscribed with proprietary enchantments, Aeuduct's Barricade Knife is a specialized tool used to cut through perimeters of Aeuduct's Instant Barricade. The knife also has three charges that can be used to cast the spell Knock. These charges refill at a rate of 1 every 24 hours.

Production and sale of these knives are very strictly regulated, and they are usually only provided to law enforcement agencies.
