APPENDIX 2: HEROES OF THE LANCE

CARAMON MAJERE, FIGHTER 5

HISTORY

You are a giant of a warrior, Raistlin's twin brother and Kitiara's half-brother. You could not be more unlike your siblings. You are honest and open where Raistlin is cynical and reserved, friendly and compassionate where Kitiara is wild and passionate.

The twins were born when Kitiara was eight. One twin was strong and healthy, but the other nearly died at birth. Because their mother was frail, it fell to Kitiara to raise the two. You, the first-born twin, showed yourself to be a warrior born. As you grew, you outstripped other boys your age, always being the tallest and strongest around. You quickly acquired fighting skills, and were soon a champion swordsman.

Although the twin brothers were nothing alike, you loved your brother Raistlin dearly, and frequently protected him from bullies. When Raistlin discovered his natural aptitude for magic, no one was more pleased for him than you, even though Raistlin's new studies made him a poor companion. As an outgoing and social person, you had many friends, including young Sturm Brightblade. One day, you met Tasslehoff Burrfoot, a kender, and so the twins became involved with the companions.

You accompanied Tanis and Flint on trips in the Haven/Solace area, and grew into a powerful fighting man. At the age of twenty, you and Raistlin met with their companions in the Inn of the Last Home for what would be the last time in many long years. For Raistlin had been granted an opportunity to take the Test—an experience that would make him into a powerful mage . . . if he survived it. You, ever faithful, accompanied Raistlin. You have never talked about what happened there, but the Test created a darker bond between the two brothers.

PERSONALITY

You are easy-going, strong, and shy around women. You are trustworthy to a fault. You are not secretive (except about the Test) and have no inner doubts. Your one obsession is polishing your sword. You are very protective of your little brother and very fond of him, but you don't understand him in the slightest. You are often embarrassed by your brother's rudeness and apologize for him. Your motto is, "There is no problem that cannot be solved by strength." Money is nice, but not important.

You are occasionally impulsive, and don't always know your own strength. You are left-handed. Your intelligence is not great—in contrast to your brother. What you appear to be on the surface is what you are in your soul. Your only private depth lies in your love for your brother.

You are a skilled outdoorsman as well as a fighter. Because of your great strength, you carry enough weapons and armor to be virtually a walking arsenal.

You are content to follow Tanis' lead, and deeply respect Sturm, though you wish both of them would loosen up a bit. Even through your shyness, you have begun to notice that Tika Waylan has matured from a freckle-faced kid into a good-looking woman.

FLINT FIREFORGE

HISTORY

You are a grandfatherly dwarf, the oldest of the companions. You are a Neidar (Hill) Dwarf, born in the wilds of the Kharolis Mountains. Your father fought in the Dwarfgate Wars against the mountain dwarves, and told you many stories about that terrible conflict. After the Cataclysm, humans and hill dwarves sought refuge in the ancient dwarven kingdom of Thorbardin. The mountain dwarves, fearing they would be overrun, shut the gates of the kingdom, shutting out their kin, the Neidar, in the process. War raged for years, and both armies were obliterated in the final battle. The mountain dwarves who remained closed Thorbardin forever. The hill dwarves, shattered by the war, broke up into small clans. You were born into the poverty and hardship of your people, and grew up with a deep hatred of the mountain dwarves that had so betrayed your people.

You learned your trade as a metalsmith from your father, and set out into the world when you became an adult. Your official reason for leaving was to find a more lucrative place to ply your trade, but secretly you dreamed of returning rich and powerful to reunite the Neidar Kingdom.

Eventually, you moved to Solace, since that town was located near all the major trade routes (and had one of the finest inns in the known world). Your work was much in demand because of your skill, and you became one of the few dwarves welcome in the elven kingdom of Qualinesti. There you met a young half-elf named Tanis, and you formed a fast friendship.

When Tanis left Qualinost, he came to you in Solace, and you took the young half-elf on as a business partner. Together, you roamed the Haven/Solace region, and even traveled west across the mountains. You never went south, for you were not yet ready to face your own people again.

Although you grew increasingly crotchety as you aged, Tanis seemed to attract young, energetic people. And so the Companions formed around you and your young assistant. Though you were always gruff, you became much fonder of the Innfellows than they ever realized.

You had a near-brush with drowning that left you terribly afraid of water, and also had a close call with fire that left you nervous about flames. You are allergic to horses.

When you retired, you decided finally to travel south to find your people, and left Solace when the Innfellows departed. You traveled south of Pax Tharkas, but was captured by Aghar (gully dwarves) and imprisoned for several years. Finally, you escaped, but you carry a burning hatred for the disgusting creatures.

PERSONALITY

You are a complex personality. You are gruff, cynical, distrustful, dwarvishly greedy, and never forget an insult, but at the same time are extremely loyal, a little bashful (especially around women), humorous, and capable of deep and lasting friendship. Although it often appears different, you worry about your friends, thinking that they are children needing your care. You don't like to fight, but do it when you have to. You distrust magic and all magic-users—including Raistlin. You have a running feud with Tasslehoff, but are secretly fond of the kender. You are very fond of precious metals and gems, and are a talented metal craftsman. You whittle continually, and stroke and clean your beard whenever there isn't a piece of wood in your hand. You dress sloppily when traveling (to discourage bandits), but are very much the dandy in town. Your health is good, but you have a touch of rheumatism.

GOLDMOON, CLERIC OF MISHAKAL 5

HISTORY

You were born Chieftain's Daughter in the Que-Shu tribe of plainsmen. You were a priestess and your father's confidant after the death of your mother. At the age of eight you were an accomplished diplomat. Your people worshipped you as a goddess. You loved the plains, and had a special rapport with animals. Your childhood was very happy.

But then you fell in love with a shepherd. You were destined to marry the son of the village shaman, whom you hated, but your heart belonged to Riverwind, the child of a family exiled for refusing to worship the tribal ancestors and believing in the old gods.

It was the law of the Que-Shu that a man who challenged a lawful betrothal must undertake a quest to prove himself worthy. Because your father was determined that the princess should not marry beneath her station, he sent Riverwind on an impossible quest to find evidence of these ancient gods. He hoped Riverwind would die or fail, or that you would learn to love another.

Riverwind was gone many years, and you became an adult. Your father was sick in mind, and you took on many of the Chieftain's duties. Your love for Riverwind never diminished. One day, Riverwind returned, half-dead and feverish. In his hand, he clutched a staff made of blue crystal. He raved about a dark place, a broken city where death had black wings. He remembered a woman, dressed in blue light, who gave him the staff.

Your father looked at the staff, and commanded it to do something—anything. Nothing happened. And so your father proclaimed Riverwind a fraud, and ordered him stoned to death for blasphemy. You rushed to his side as the tribesmen threw stones and then suddenly you were teleported away! You found yourselves far from home—with only the staff to aid you.

PERSONALITY

You are pure of heart and completely, deeply in love with Riverwind. Your sense of duty is very strong. Because you are Chieftain's Daughter, you are used to being obeyed. Riverwind has so far not been able to overcome his awe of your position. He rules your heart, but you are his ruler. You are deeply religious and have a strong affinity for nature in all its aspects. Although you are somewhat formal, your personal warmth and generosity make you a well-liked and charming companion. You are brave and not afraid of death. Your love for Riverwind is undying, the strongest force in your life.

APPEARANCE

Height 5' 7", Weight 115 lb.

Sling. Melee Weapon Attack: +4 to hit, range 30/120 ft., one target. Hit: 1d4 + 2 bludgeoning damage.

Cleric Features

Spellcasting Ability. You have the ability to cast spells. Wisdom is your spellcasting ability for your cleric spells. You use your Wisdom whenever a spell refers to your spellcasting ability.

You prepare the list of cleric spells that are available for you to cast. To do so, choose 8 spells. The spells must be of a level for which you have spell slots.

To cast a spell, you must expend a slot of the spell's level or higher. You regain all expended spell slots when you finish a long rest.

You can use a holy symbol as a spellcasting focus for your cleric spells. You can cast any cleric spell as a ritual if that spell has the ritual tag.

Spell Save DC: 14

Spell Attack Modifier: +6

Spell Slots: 1st-level (4), 2nd-level (3), 3rd-level (2)

Cantrips (at will): light, sacred flame, spare the dying, thaumaturgy

Channel Divinity. You can channel divine energy to create one of the following effects. You can do so twice between short or long rests.

Channel Divinity: Turn Undead. As an action, you present your holy symbol and speak a prayer censuring the undead. Each undead that can see or hear you within 30 feet of you must succeed on a DC 14 Wisdom saving throw or become turned for 1 minute or until it takes any damage. If the creature has a challenge rating of 1/2 or lower, it is destroyed instead.

A turned creature must spend its turns trying to move as far away from you as it can, and it can't willingly move to a space within 30 feet of you. It also can't take reactions. For its action, it can use only the Dash action or try to escape from an effect that prevents it from moving. If there's nowhere to move, the creature can use the Dodge action.

Channel Divinity: Preserve Life. As an action, you present your holy symbol and evoke healing energy that can restore up to 25 hit points. Choose any creatures within 30 feet of you, and divide those hit points among them. This feature can restore a creature to no more than half of its hit point maximum. You can't use this feature on an undead or a construct.

DIVINE DOMAIN: LIFE

Bonus Proficiency. You gain proficiency with heavy armor.

Disciple of Life. When you cast a spell of 1st level or higher to restore hit points to a creature, the creature regains additional hit points equal to 2 + the spell's level.

Domain Spells. You know the following domain spells that are always prepared and don't count against the number of spells you can prepare each day:

1st-level: bless, cure wounds 2nd-level: lesser restoration, spiritual weapon 3rd-level: beacon of hope, revivify

Feats

Healer. When you use a healer's kit to stabilize a dying creature, that creature also regains 1 hit point.

As an action, you can spend one use of a healer's kit to tend to a creature and restore up to 1d6 + 4 hit points to it, plus additional hit points equal to the creature's maximum number of Hit Dice. The creature can't regain hit points from this feat again until it finishes a short or long rest.

Equipment

Leather armor, Blue Crystal Staff, sling, 20 sling bullets, backpack, bedroll, blanket, healer's kit, lyre, pouch, rations (1 week), waterskin.

BLUE CRYSTAL STAFF

Staff, artifact (requires attunement by a cleric of good)

Random Properties. The Blue Crystal Staff has the following random properties:

- 1 minor beneficial property
- 1 major beneficial property

Magic Weapon. You gain a +1 bonus to attack and damage rolls made with this quarterstaff.

Spells. The staff has 10 charges for the following properties. It regains one charge per day, although when it is placed within the open hands of the statue of Mishakal in Xak Tsaroth it automatically regains full charges (this can only be done once per day). You can use the following powers of the staff using your spell save DC and spell attack bonus: detect poison and disease (no charge), command (1 charge), cure wounds (as 1st level spell, 1 charge), continual flame (2 charges), lesser restoration (2 charges), remove curse (3 charges), revivify (3 charges), cure wounds (as 4th level spell, 4 charges), greater restoration (5 charges), raise dead (5 charges), regenerate (7 charges), and resurrection (7 charges).

Protection. Once per day, the staff may teleport without the possibility for the targets to be off target, but it is the staff, not the wielder, that activates the power and chooses the location (at the DM's discretion), unless the wielder is a cleric of Mishakal. Also once per day, the staff may be used to automatically deflect the breath weapon of any dragon, protecting a 10-foot radius around its wielder and preventing any damage to the wielder or anyone in the 10-foot radius.

If a creature of neutral alignment attempts to wield the blue crystal staff, it suffers 2d8 radiant damage every round it touches the staff, and cannot make use of the staff's powers. If an evil creature attempts to wield the staff, it suffers 4d8 radiant damage every round it touches the staff, and cannot make use of the staff's powers.

RAISTLIN MAJERE, WIZARD 5

HISTORY

You are a magic-user of great natural talent, but you have paid a heavy price for your skill.

You are Caramon's mirror-image twin brother and Kitiara's half-brother (you share the same mother). You could not be more unlike your twin, for you are secretive, cynical, and distrustful. Nevertheless, you love your brother—perhaps Caramon is the only thing you truly love.

The twins were born when Kitiara was eight. One twin—Caramon—was strong and healthy, the other—you—were born sickly and frail. It seemed for a while that you might die in infancy, but Kitiara's nursing saved your life. Your mother died when you were young, and Kitiara took over your upbringing.

It was clear from the very beginning that you were a weakling, and Kitiara despaired of you. Caramon blossomed into a healthy, powerful fighter, and frequently protected his younger brother from bullies. You grew to a bitter hatred of all bullies, and developed a strong desire for justice. The experiences of your childhood soured you on most people, and you grew cynical and bitter at an early age. You showed promise as a scholar and learned to read before you went to school.

When you were five, your father took you to a village fair, where you watched a local illusionist perform. The illusionist was not very good, but you were totally absorbed in the performance. When you returned home that evening, you could perform every one of the illusionist's tricks. Your family was amazed. Magic, your father realized, was your key to survival in this world.

You were taken to a well-respected mage and presented as a prospective pupil. The mage was not overly impressed with you, especially because of your weak health and your unlikable personality. But while the mage and your father talked, you wandered into another room and began to read a huge book. The mage was about to take the book away, but then realized that you could read magic without study! And so you were accepted as a pupil. You learned rapidly, and quickly outstripped the other students. At an unusually young age, you were invited to present yourself for the Test—you would come back a powerful magician, or not at all.

Caramon accompanied you on that fateful trip. You never talk about what happened there, but the terrible ordeals broke your health, turned your skin the color of gold, and changed the pupils of your eyes into hourglasses. Your eyes are a terrible curse—for through them you see time rushing past, and everything die and wither in its time.

PERSONALITY

You are nicknamed “The Sly One,” for you are avaricious, cynical, and secretive. You always expect the worst of others. You are devoted to your brother, yet secretly envy him. You have good qualities, though you work very hard at keeping them hidden: you hate bullies (being a weakling yourself). You support and sympathize with the downtrodden, though you will not admit your concern. You wear red robes to show your neutral alignment. You have a strong sense of justice, but little sense of mercy. Due to your weak health and a lingering lung infection, you speak in a soft, whispering voice.

Wizard Features

Spellcasting Ability. You have the ability to cast spells. Intelligence is your spellcasting ability for your wizard spells. You use your Intelligence whenever a spell refers to your spellcasting ability.

You prepare the list of wizard spells that are available for you to cast. To do so, choose 9 spells. The spells must be of a level for which you have spell slots.

To cast a spell, you must expend a slot of the spell's level or higher. You regain all expended spell slots when you finish a long rest.

You can use an arcane focus as a spellcasting focus for your wizard spells. You can cast any wizard spell in your spellbook as a ritual if that spell has the ritual tag.

Spell Save DC: 15

Spell Attack Modifier: +7

Spell Slots: 1st-level (4), 2nd-level (3), 3rd-level (2)

Cantrips: light, mage hand, mending, minor illusion, prestidigitation, ray of frost

Arcane Recovery. Once per day when you finish a short rest, you can choose expended spell slots to recover. The spell slots can have a combined level equal to or less than 3.

ARCANE TRADITION: SCHOOL OF ENCHANTMENT

Enchantment Savant. The gold and time you must spend to copy an enchantment spell into your spellbook is halved.

Hypnotic Gaze. As an action, choose one creature that you can see within 5 feet of you. If the target can see or hear you, it must succeed on a DC 15 Wisdom saving throw or be charmed by you until the end of your next turn. The charmed creature's speed drops to 0, and the creature is incapacitated and visibly dazed.

On subsequent turns, you can use your action to maintain this effect, extending its duration until the end of your next turn. However, the effect ends if you move more than 5 feet away from the creature, if the creature can neither see nor hear you, or if the creature takes damage.

Once the effect ends, or if the creature succeeds on its initial saving throw against this effect, you can't use this feature on that creature again until you finish a long rest.

Feats

Magic Initiate. You learn two cantrips of your choice from wizard's spell list.

In addition, you can cast charm person at 1st level. Once you cast it, you must finish a long rest before you can cast it again.

Your spellcasting ability for these spells is Intelligence.

Spells in Spellbook

1st-level spells: burning hands, charm person, comprehend languages, detect magic, identify, floating disc, mage armor, magic missile, sleep

2nd-level spells: blur, darkness, detect thoughts, invisibility, knock, mirror image, see invisibility, web

3rd-level spells: clairvoyance, phantasmal force, slow, tongues

Equipment

Staff of Magius, dagger of Magius, red robes, backpack, bedroll, herbalism kit, magnifying glass, sack, scrolls, ink, rations (1 week), writing supplies, spellbook.

DAGGER OF MAGIUS

Weapon (dagger), very rare, unique (requires attunement)

You gain +2 bonus to attack and damage rolls made with this weapon. It cannot be detected by magical or mundane searches when carried by a wizard.

STAFF OF MAGIUS

Staff, artifact (requires attunement by a wizard)

This staff of polished mahogany, topped by a bronze dragon claw clutching a crystal orb, is beyond ancient. It is a powerful artifact, although its appearances throughout history are rare.

The staff of Magius can be wielded as a magic quarterstaff that grants a +1 bonus to attack and damage rolls. While you hold it, it provides a +1 bonus to armor class.

The staff has 20 charges for the following properties. It regains 1d4 + 4 expended charges at night in the light of Solinari.

Spells. While holding the staff, you can use an action to expend 1 or more charges to cast one of the following spells from it, using your spell save DC and spell attack bonus: feather fall (1 charge) or light (1 charge).

When used by a wizard that has passed a Test of High Sorcery and used as an arcane focus, the staff doubles spell durations, and adds 1 damage point to all die rolls for each spell.

Secrets. The Staff has hidden powers. If a wizard uses the staff as an arcane focus for a spell, the DM should roll a d20. On a 19-20, a random effect occurs (using the appropriate charges), the DM selects the effect. Once an effect has occurred three times, the wizard may attempt a DC 15 Intelligence (Arcana) check to master the effect. Once mastered, the effect can be used by spending the appropriate charges.

RIVERWIND, RANGER 5

HISTORY

You were born to a disgraced family of the Que-Shu tribe of plainsmen. Your family had been cast out of the tribe years ago for refusing to worship the tribal ancestors. Your grandfather believed in ancient gods who had existed before the Cataclysm, although he could find little evidence of such gods in the world.

You became a shepherd, and spent many long, lonely nights tending your flock in the plains. You grew quickly into a young giant of a man, and became an excellent hunter and tracker. When you came of age, you were accepted as a Que-Shu because of your skills, and became a Far Hunter for the tribe. Although a member of the tribe, your family heritage kept you at the bottom of the tribal hierarchy.

And then you fell in love with the Chieftain's Daughter. Goldmoon was a young beauty, worshipped as a goddess by her people. She fell in love with you as well. You felt that your life was blessed beyond all measure. Unfortunately, Goldmoon was betrothed by her father to the son of the village shaman.

You then exercised his right as a tribesman to challenge the betrothal. Under Que-Shu law, you then had to undertake a quest to prove that you were worthy of Goldmoon's hand. Because Goldmoon's father did not want you to marry his daughter, he gave you an impossible task—to find evidence of the ancient gods.

You traveled far to the north, reaching the shores of the Newsea. You followed the sun and the moon and the stars, aimlessly searching. Finally, you came upon a ruined city and found yourself in an evil dream. . .

You remembered little of what happened to you in that dark city. In your nightmares you dreamed of death on black wings, and of a woman dressed in blue light who saved your life. That woman gave you a staff of blue crystal. Delirious and half-dead, you returned to Que-Shu and presented the staff as fulfillment of your quest. Goldmoon's father commanded the staff to do something—anything—but nothing happened. Enraged, he threw the staff back to you, proclaimed you a fraud, and ordered you stoned to death for blasphemy. As the plainsmen began to throw rocks, Goldmoon rushed to your side to die with you, if need be. . . but then the blue crystal staff showed its power, and you were teleported away. . .

PERSONALITY

You are a towering, imposing man of few words and quick action. You are fiercely protective of Goldmoon and love her beyond life itself. Yet you are all too conscious of the social barrier between you, and obey her as Chieftain's Daughter. You are quick to anger and aloof. You are distrustful of strangers until they have proven themselves, but once you call someone "friend" you will lay down your life for them.

- If you are traveling alone, you can move stealthily at a normal pace.

- When you forage, you find twice as much food as you normally would.

- While tracking other creatures, you also learn their exact number, their sizes, and how long ago they passed through the area.

Fighting Style: Two-Weapon Fighting. When you engage in two-weapon fighting, you can add your ability modifier to the damage of the second attack.

Spellcasting. You have the ability to cast spells. Wisdom is your spellcasting ability for your ranger spells. You use your Wisdom whenever a spell refers to your spellcasting ability. To cast a spell, you must expend a slot of the spell's level or higher. You regain all expended spell slots when you finish a long rest.

For 1 minute per level of the spell slot you expend, you can sense whether the following types of creatures are present within 1 mile of you (or within 6 miles of you if you are in grassland terrain): aberrations, celestials, dragons, elementals, fey, fiends, and undead. This feature doesn't reveal the creatures' location or number.

Extra Attack. You can attack twice instead of once whenever you take the Attack action on your turn.

STURM BRIGHTBLADE, FIGHTER 5

HISTORY

Since the time of Huma, First Dragonlancer, who drove the dragons from Krynn a thousand years ago, the Knights of Solamnia have been the champions of justice and truth. The Knights represented all that was good, noble, compassionate, and heroic. But after the Cataclysm, when the peoples of Ergoth cried for aid, the Knights were helpless. When mankind turned its back on the true gods, not even the Knights could save them. And so the people came to blame the Knights for not saving them from their own folly. There came a great uprising against the Knights; their old temples and fortresses were besieged. Many of the old order died; the rest went into exile.

One of the leaders of the Solamnic order was the Lord of the Roses, who fathered you. When the people turned against the Knights, he saw that the fight was hopeless. He could not desert his comrades, but he could send his wife and newborn son south to safety.

And so you grew up in the town of Solace. As a child, you showed knightly bearing, and the ideals of chivalry came most naturally to you. Your mother taught you the code of the Knights, and you wished nothing more in life than to retake your father's heritage. When you came of age, you received your father's legacy: a signet ring.

You trained yourself as a fighter, undertaking quests and great hardships to toughen your body and soul for knighthood. You became fast friends with Caramon, then known as the strongest young man in Solace. And so you joined the Innfellows.

When the Innfellows left Solace, you went north to find traces of the Solamnic Knights. For a time, you traveled with Kitiara, Tanis's beloved, and then your paths split. You traveled in the lands of Solamnia, only to find that the Knights were everywhere in disgrace. You went to Vingaard Keep, your father's ancestral castle, now abandoned. You settled your father's estate, using the signet ring as proof of your heritage, but when the death duties were paid, all that was left was your father's sword and armor.

And so you returned to Solace, understanding at last that true knighthood was found in one's own heart, and vowing to reestablish the old order. If you were the last Knight of Solamnia, you would at least be true to your father's ideals. You needed no more.

PERSONALITY

The motto of the Knights of Solamnia is Est Sularus oth Mithas—My Honor Is My Life. It means that a Knight must be true to the ideals of chivalry at all costs. You live by that creed, and your highest ideal is to meet a noble death against overwhelming odds in the cause of justice. You are a man of noble bearing and great solemnity. Your knightly ideals can sometimes be troublesome—it is a shameful thing to run in battle, you feel. But when persuaded that a larger interest is at stake, you can make a strategic retreat if it will further the cause.

Your greatest fear is that somehow you will dishonor yourself and the Knights, and shame your father's memory. Your honor is your major possession, and your word is unbreakable. You are a fighter of remarkable skill.

Brightblade. Melee Weapon Attack: +9 to hit, reach 5 ft., one target. Hit: 2d6 + 6 slashing damage.

Dagger. Melee or Ranged Weapon Attack: +7 to hit, reach 5 ft. or range 20/60 ft., one target. Hit: 1d4 + 4 piercing damage.

Fighter Features

Fighting Style: Great Weapon Fighting. When you roll a 1 or 2 on a damage die for an attack you make with a melee weapon that you are wielding with two hands, you can reroll the die and must use the new roll, even if the new roll is a 1 or a 2. The weapon must have the two-handed or versatile property for you to gain this benefit.

Second Wind. On your turn, you can use a bonus action to regain 1d10 + 5 hit points. Once you use this feature, you must finish a short or long rest before you can use it again.

Action Surge. On your turn, you can take one additional action on top of your regular action and a possible bonus action.

Feats

Great Weapon Master. On your turn, when you score a critical hit with a melee weapon or reduce a creature to 0 hit points with one, you can make one melee weapon attack as a bonus action.

Before you make a melee attack with a heavy weapon that you are proficient with, you can choose to take a -5 penalty to the attack roll. If the attack hits, you add +10 to the attack's damage.

Equipment

Plate mail, Brightblade, dagger, signet ring, bedroll, waterskin.

BRIGHTBLADE

Weapon (greatsword), very rare, unique

You gain a +2 bonus to attack and damage rolls made with this silvered weapon.

It is said the Brightblade can be wielded only by one who is pure of heart. However, some say that a member of the Brightblade lineage may bend it to temporary evil purposes. Even then, the Brightblade will resist dishonorable acts of grievous enormity (such as the slaughter of innocents) and, if thus deployed, will shatter and bestow a curse upon its wielder as a bestow curse spell. The curse can be lifted magically or if the individual seeks to atone for the misdeed. Only then can the Brightblade be reforged and its powers restored.

TANIS HALF-ELVEN, FIGHTER

HISTORY

You were born during the terrible Shadow Years that followed the Cataclysm. Your mother was a Qualinesti elf who was assaulted by a human plainsman. She escaped to Qualinost, but died giving birth to a halfbreed: you.

The elves of Qualinost, who revere life as sacred in all forms, raised you as one of their own. Nonetheless, the mixture of human and elven blood was unusual. You felt the difference between yourself and your elven cousins strongly.

As a ward of the Speaker of Suns, the ruler of Qualinost, you grew close to the Speaker's three children—Gilthanas, Porthios, and Laurana. Laurana developed a childhood crush on you. You felt you loved her, too, but she remained a child when you began to feel the stirrings of adulthood. To avoid conflict with your adopted family, and to learn about your human side, you felt the time was right to leave the elven realm and see the world. A bitter conversation with Gilthanas helped clinch your decision.

You journeyed to Solace to visit Flint Fireforge, a dwarf who had been your friend for many years, and became Flint's business partner. Solace became your home, although you and Flint traveled throughout Abanasinia on business. In those years, you became a seasoned adventurer, a fighter, and a natural leader.

Slowly, a group of companions formed around you, including Tasslehoff, Sturm, Caramon, Raistlin—and Kitiara. Kitiara, half-sister to Caramon and Raistlin, was an alluring dark-haired beauty, passionate and wild. You fell in love—you, because he had never met a woman as strong and self-assured, Kitiara, because she had never met a man who could stand up to her.

In those years there were rumors of growing trouble—bandits, ogres, goblins, and even worse creatures in the land. Finally, the roads became impassable. Business fell off. The Companions each found a quest—you set out to find evidence of true gods in the land—and one day you parted. Each of the companions swore a solemn oath to meet at the Inn of the Last Home one final time, five years hence.

For five years, you roamed the known world, finding much that was strange and evil—but nothing of the true gods. Finally, discouraged, you returned to Solace to meet your companions once more. All returned—except Kitiara. She had found a new lord and could not return—or so a note from her said.

PERSONALITY

You are plagued by an inner conflict that is manifested by your love for two dissimilar women—the childlike and innocent elf-maid Laurana, and the wild and free-spirited human Kitiara. Although filled with self-doubt and uncertainty about your place in the world, you seldom allow your emotions to show. The only visible sign of your turmoil are in your eyes. Rust red hair and beard, hazel eyes.

You are trusting of strangers and friendly, yet are reserved, even with your closest friends. Sometimes you are afflicted by dark moods and doubts. Although a natural leader, you are not sure you want a leader's responsibility. Money has little value to you.

You are an excellent fighter, with no fears or weaknesses. Kitiara is your only obsession.

You received an elven education. You have traveled throughout the Haven/Solace region and west across the mountains.

Multiattack. You can attack twice when you take this action, using the following:

Longsword. Melee Weapon Attack: +6 to hit, reach 5 ft., one target. Hit: 1d8 + 3 slashing damage, or 1d10 + 3 slashing damage if used with two hands.

Dagger. Melee or Ranged Weapon Attack: +6 to hit, reach 5 ft. or range 20/60 ft., one target. Hit: 1d4 + 3 piercing damage.

Longbow. Ranged Weapon Attack: +8 to hit, reach 150/600 ft., one target. Hit: 1d8 + 3 piercing damage.

Half-Elf Traits

Darkvision. You can see in dim light within 60 feet of you as if it were bright light, and in darkness as if it were dim light.

Fey Ancestry. You have advantage on saving throws against being charmed, and magic can't put you to sleep.

Fighter Features

Fighting Style: Archery. You gain a +2 bonus to attack rolls you make with ranged weapons. (This is factored into the stat block.)

Second Wind. On your turn, you can use a bonus action to regain 1d10 + 5 hit points. Once you use this feature, you must finish a short or long rest before you can use it again.

Action Surge. On your turn, you can take one additional action on top of your regular action and a possible bonus action.

Extra Attack. You can attack twice instead of once whenever you take the Attack action on your turn.

MARTIAL ARCHETYPE: BATTLE MASTER

Combat Superiority. You have four superiority dice, which are d8s. A superiority die is expended when you use it. You regain all of your expended superiority dice when you finish a short or long rest. The saving throw for your maneuvers is 14.

Commander's Strike. When you take the Attack action on your turn, you can forgo one of your attacks and use a bonus action to direct one of your companions to strike. When you do so, choose a friendly creature who can see or hear you and expend one superiority die. That creature can immediately use its reaction to make one weapon attack, adding the superiority die to the attack's damage roll.

Maneuvering Attack. When you hit a creature with a weapon attack, you can expend one superiority die to maneuver one of your comrades into a more advantageous position. You add the superiority die to the attack's damage roll, and you choose a friendly creature who can see or hear you. That creature can use its reaction to move up to half its speed without provoking opportunity attacks from the target of your attack.

Precision Attack. When you make a weapon attack roll against a creature, you can expend one superiority die to add it to the roll. You can use this maneuver before or after making the attack roll, but before any effects of the attack are applied.

Feats

Sharpshooter. Attacking at long range doesn't impose disadvantage on your ranged weapon attack rolls.

Your ranged weapon attacks ignore half cover and three-quarters cover.

Before you make an attack with a ranged weapon that you are proficient with, you can choose to take a -5 penalty to the attack roll. If the attack hits, you add +10 to the attack's damage.

Equipment

+1 leather armor, longsword, longbow, quiver with 20 arrows, daggers (3), backpack, bedroll, rations (1 week).

TASLEHOFF BURRFOOT, ROGUE 5

HISTORY

You are a Kender, a diminutive race found throughout the world of Krynn. Like all kender, you left home at the age of 18 because you were stricken by wanderlust, the uncontrollable urge to travel and make the great map of every land. No kender in wanderlust has ever completed the great map, but most kender have great collections of maps—some useful, most obsolete. You are no exception. Your map was especially confused by an unfortunate incident with a magic ring of teleportation that kept transporting you to unknown lands without notice. No one but you ever saw the ring or believed the story, either.

You were born somewhere in northern Ergoth, and are a member of the Stoat clan of kender. Your parents traveled in the Haven/Solace region, where they studied the lives of the plainsmen. (What the plainsmen thought of the kender is nowhere recorded.) You acquired skills as a “handler” (the word “thief” is considered impolite), and used it extensively to satisfy your curiosity about everything. It was that curiosity that led to you taking a bracelet from Flint Fireforge’s stall at a market. Flint was outraged, but Tanis decided he liked the little kender, and so they all became friends. (Flint, although he has never said a nice word about you, actually likes you a good deal.)

PERSONALITY

Your most endearing and frustrating characteristic is your insatiable curiosity and fearlessness. These traits often get you into trouble. Your curiosity frequently drives you to see what other people have in their pockets and packs (Raistlin, in particular, hates this), and you can easily forget that you have borrowed a particular item. You collect odds and ends—you will never pass up a chance to acquire a map of any description and often surprise yourself with what you have in your pockets. You love legends, songs, and stories, and collect riddles, puzzles, and enigmas as avidly as you collect maps. Your map collection is varied and mostly useless. Many of your maps are pre-Cataclysm. You are as likely to collect a map for its beauty as for its usefulness. Although it is hard to get a kender depressed because of your fearlessness, you are saddened by death and destruction, and can be in awe of anything truly magnificent. Your fearlessness does not keep you from being logical about danger, though your curiosity can sometimes overcome your reason.

Dagger. Melee or Ranged Weapon Attack: +6 to hit, reach 5 ft. or range 20/60 ft., one target. Hit: 1d4 + 3 piercing damage.

Hoopak. Ranged Weapon Attack: +6 to hit, range 30/120, one target. Hit: 1d4 + 3 bludgeoning damage, or 1d6 + 3 bludgeoning damage if used with two hands.

Kender Traits

Fearless. You cannot be frightened.

Kender Nimbleness. You can move through the space of any creature that is of a size larger than yours.

Kender Pockets. Kender constantly pick things up and pocket them, and then often forget about them. If you find yourself in need of a piece of nonmagical equipment, there is a chance you have it. Roll a d4. If you roll a 4, you find the item in your pocket, pack, or pouch. If you roll anything else, you don't have such an item on you, and you can't search again for the same item until you've spent at least one day in a town or city. Rummaging through your pouches, pack, and pockets in this way takes 1 minute.

Taunt. You have an uncanny insight into the motivations and characteristics of other races, and you can use this insight to infuriate them. As an action you can unleash a verbal barrage of sarcasm, insults, and crude comments against a creature. Make a Charisma (Performance) check contested by the target's Wisdom (Insight) check. You fail the contest if the target can't understand you.

If you win the contest, the target must use its next action to attack only you with disadvantage. If you are out of range, it must Move or Dash towards you.

If the target wins the contest, it is immune to your Taunt for 24 hours.

Rogue Features

Expertise. Your proficiency bonus is doubled for any ability check you make using your Perception or Stealth skills.

Sneak Attack. Once per turn, you can deal an extra 3d6 damage to one creature you hit with an attack if you have advantage on the attack roll. The attack must use a finesse or a ranged weapon.

You don't need advantage on the attack roll if another enemy of the target is within 5 feet of it, that enemy isn't incapacitated, and you don't have disadvantage on the attack roll.

Cunning Action. You can take a bonus action on each of your turns in combat. This action can be used only to take the Dash, Disengage, or Hide action.

Uncanny Dodge. When an attacker that you can see hits you with an attack, you can use your reaction to halve the attack's damage against you.

ROGUISH ARCHETYPE: THIEF

Fast Hands. You can use the bonus action granted by your Cunning Action to make a Dexterity (Sleight of Hand) check, use your thieves' tools to disarm a trap or open a lock, or take the Use an Object action.

Second-Story Work. You can climb faster than normal; climbing no longer costs you extra movement.

In addition, when you make a running jump, the distance you cover increases by 3 feet.

Feats

Alert. You gain a +5 bonus to initiative.

You can't be surprised while you are conscious.

Other creatures don't gain advantage on attack rolls against you as a result of being hidden from you.

Equipment

Leather armor, hoopak, 10 sling bullets, dagger, thieves' tools, backpack, bedroll, waterskin, pen, ink and paper, rations (1 week), pouches, various maps and scrollcases.

GILTAHANS-KANAN, FIGHTER 6

HISTORY

You are the son of the Speaker of Suns, ruler of the elven nation of Qualinesti. You have an older brother, Porthios, who is heir to the Speakership, and a younger sister, Laurana. Your best friend in childhood was a half-elf named Tanis, ward of the Speaker of Suns. But your childhood friendship came to an end when Laurana fell in love with the half-elf. You were outraged, for no half-elf should marry into the royal house of the Qualinesti. You quarreled bitterly, and Tanis left Qualinesti forever.

As second in line for the throne, you became an influential advisor and confidential assistant to the Speaker at a young age. You became a polished diplomat. In addition to your formal responsibilities, you were trained in military leadership and combat.

When the dragonarmies invaded Abanasinia, many people were captured and imprisoned in the fortress of Pax Tharkas, recently captured by the dragon highmaster, Verminaard. You were given command of an elven band to sneak into Pax Tharkas and liberate the people. The mission ended in tragedy when your party was ambushed by draconians. You were knocked unconscious early in the melee and fell into a ditch, where you were left for dead. Your fellows were taken to Solace. When you awoke, you followed them. You arrived in Solace only to see a horrible sight—Verminaard had chained the elves to stakes in the town square and called Ember, a red dragon out of ages past, to burn the helpless creatures.

In a rage, you moved to attack Verminaard, but you were stopped by Theros Ironfeld, a smith. "Stay your hand, young elf, for you cannot prevail against these odds. Be patient—you will have your chance to kill him," Theros said. You were sobering and agreed, but the burning passion to revenge your people against Verminaard would never die until the evil dragon highmaster perished.

Theros gave you shelter, but you went to the Inn of the Last Home to gain information. You were found out, and a party of draconians tried to capture you. You would have perished then, but you were rescued by a small band of fellows—which included his childhood friend, Tanis.

PERSONALITY

You are brave and charming, with a love of adventure. Your diplomatic skills and elven nature make you a delightful companion. You are sometimes too concerned with protocol, and believe deeply in the superiority of the elven race. Although you can be shortsighted and a bit narrow-minded, you are basically honest, just, sensitive, and well-meaning. You are optimistic, heroic, and friendly. Your only obsession is your hatred of Verminaard for murdering the elves, and you will act impetuously if there is an opportunity to kill the dragon highmaster. You have a great deal of respect for Tanis, but are still strongly against his involvement with Laurana.

TIKA WAYLAN, ROGUE 3/ FIGHTER 3

HISTORY

You are a barmaid at the Inn of the Last Home, a brash teenager who has had a rough life. You are the daughter of a thief who also practiced sleight-of-hand and small-time illusions, you ran away from home at age 10 to live in Solace. You grew up tough and fast in the streets of Solace, and were an accomplished thief by the age of 15. You only had one memento of her father—a gold ring you wears on a chain around your neck.

As a child, you were skinny and tomboyish. You remained a tomboy, but filled out into an attractive young woman with striking green eyes. As your looks grew better, you began to attract male attention. For protection, you developed a rough, worldly, experienced image, but underneath you remained vulnerable and innocent. You flirt as if very experienced, but you have never known love.

One day, you tried to rob Otik Sandath, proprietor of the Inn of the Last Home, but you were caught in the act. Otik's first inclination was to have you arrested. But he was touched by the innocence he saw under the tough street-kid personality, and instead offered you a job. At first you accepted only to keep out of jail, but you grew to love Otik as a father.

For many years you have been the barmaid at the Inn of the Last Home. You gave up your thieving ways and became a fighter. You frequently serve as the Inn's bouncer, surprising many a drunk who thought you were a weak push-over. Your favorite attack is to bash someone over the head with a heavy frying pan—an old favorite in the inn trade.

You knew the Innfellows when you were just a kid, and was glad to see them when they came back. The others think of you as still just a kid, and this rankles you deeply, since you consider yourself a grown woman.

When the dragonarmies laid waste to Solace and destroyed the vallenwood tree that once supported the Inn of the Last Home, you formed a deep and abiding hatred for them, for they had destroyed the only thing you had ever truly loved.

PERSONALITY

You have a tough exterior, but inside are innocent and vulnerable. Indeed, you have certain childlike qualities, including a fascination with magic. You know a few illusionist sleight-of-hand tricks you picked up from your father. You dislike boastful and conceited men. You know how to handle men your years as a barmaid, but long for something better. You are particularly annoyed that Caramon still evidently thinks of you as just a kid. You have a fear of heights resulting from a bad fall during your career as a thief.

Fighting Style: Defense. While you are wearing armor, you gain a +1 bonus to AC. (This is factored into the stat block.)

Second Wind. On your turn, you can use a bonus action to regain 1d10 + 3 hit points. Once you use this feature, you must finish a short or long rest before you can use it again.

Action Surge. On your turn, you can take one additional action on top of your regular action and a possible bonus action.

MARTIAL ARCHETYPE: CHAMPION

Improved Critical. Your weapon attacks score a critical hit on a roll of 19 or 20.

Rogue Features

Expertise. Your proficiency bonus is doubled for any ability check you make using your Sleight of Hand or Stealth skills.

Sneak Attack. Once per turn, you can deal an extra 2d6 damage to one creature you hit with an attack if you have advantage on the attack roll. The attack must use a finesse or a ranged weapon.

You don't need advantage on the attack roll if another enemy of the target is within 5 feet of it, that enemy isn't incapacitated, and you don't have disadvantage on the attack roll.

Cunning Action. You can take a bonus action on each of your turns in combat. This action can be used only to take the Dash, Disengage, or Hide action.

Fast Hands. You can use the bonus action granted by your Cunning Action to make a Dexterity (Sleight of Hand) check, use your thieves' tools to disarm a trap or open a lock, or take the Use an Object action.

Second-Story Work. You can climb faster than normal; climbing no longer costs you extra movement.

In addition, when you make a running jump, the distance you cover increases by 3 feet.
