Mushroom of Connection

A highly sought after and rare component in potion brewing circles, a mushroom of connection permits a skilled potion brewer or alchemist to combine the effects of multiple potions into a single dose of potion. On your travels, you will need to be on the lookout for someone who might be interested in trading a valuable potion, elixir, or oil for your mushroom. Once you have made the trade, you should strike through this story award.

Friend of Clan Rumnaheim

As a Friend of Clan Rumnaheim, you can request entrance to the Earthspur Mines and Town, even if they are currently closed to outsiders. If Riswyn, new head of Clan Rumnaheim, is present at the mines (at the discretion of the DM), she can vouchsafe your good behavior and have you granted entrance. If you abuse this trust (at the discretion of the DM), void this story award.
