THE BLOOD MAGE

A hooded half-elf overlooking a pallasade puts a knife through his hand and whispers an incantation. He watches as six droplets of blood fly from his outstretched palm into the backs of the guards stationed on the wall, who then silently succumb to sleep.

Grabbing a snow white bunny in one hand, a dying halfling mutters some few words of power, stealing life from his pet, and feeling it surge through his body as he rises to his feet.

A human hiding behind a stalagmite brings his blood-red axe down on a surprised spider, feeling its lifeforce drain and granting him a momentary surge of vigor.

Blood mages, through careful and dangerous studies, imbue the source of their life with arcane magic. By doing this they are able to empower their spells to help their allies or decimate their foes.

AN ANCIENT ART

A blood mage often being their journey in the library or in the field. Perhaps they learned their magic from the ruins of an ancient civilization that practiced the craft.

The descent into the profane art beings with enhancement of their own life-essence, making them preternaturally fit. Their newly imbued arcane flesh allows them to study the sanguine substance without quite as much risk.

SACRIFICE AND GROWTH

Loss is second nature to blood mages. Study for this school of the arcane often involves rigorous testing usually on small animals, though some turn to larger prey, before finally turning the experiments upon their own flesh.

Blood represents more than just death to these mages; it's loss, sacrifice, purity, life, growth, and even the ability to cleanse. Through sacrificing their own body, these mages learn what it means to taste true power.

CREATING A BLOOD MAGE

When creating a blood mage, think of a reason as to why you feel the need to delve into the study of magic and blood. Perhaps it is due to the loss of a loved one. Maybe a friend suffers from a genetic illness. Or you might be from a rich and powerful bloodline, seeking to prove its strength.

QUICK BUILD

You can quickly make a blood mage by following these suggestions. First, Intelligence should be your highest ability score, followed by Constitution. Second, choose the Hermit background

CLASS FEATURES

As a blood mage, you gain the following class features:

HIT POINTS

Hit Dice: 2d6 per blood mage level

Hit Points at 1st Level: 6 + your Constitution modifier + half your Intelligence modifier (rounded up)

Hit Points at Higher Levels: 1d6 (or 4) + your Constitution modifier + half your Intelligence modifier (rounded up) per blood mage level after 1st

PROFICIENCIES

Armor: Shields

Weapons: Daggers, darts, handaxes, sickles, and whips

Tools: Choose two from Alchemist's Supplies, Healer's Kit, Herbalism Kit, and Poisoner's Kit

Saving Throws: Constitution, Intelligence

Skills: Choose three from Animal Handling, Arcana, History, Investigation, Medicine, Nature, and Survival

EQUIPMENT

You start with the following equipment, in addition to the equipment granted by your background:

- (a) a simple weapon or (b) a dagger
- (a) a scholar's pack or (b) a dungeoneer's pack
- (a) a healer's kit or (b) a poisoner's kit
- A shield and two daggers

SPELLCASTING

You have learned to alter the fabric of reality through study of an ancient form of magic. Through careful study, you infuse your blood with arcane energy, allowing you to tap a vast reservoir of magic at will. See chapter 10 of the Player's Handbook for the general rules of spellcasting.

CANTRIPS

You know three cantrips of your choice from the blood mage spell list. You learn additional blood mage cantrips of your choice at higher levels, as shown in the Cantrips Known column of the Blood Mage table.

SPELL SLOTS

The Blood Mage table shows how many spell slots you have to cast your blood mage spells of 1st level and higher. To cast one of these spells, you must expend a slot of the spell's level or higher. You regain all expended spell slots when you finish a long rest.

For example, if you know the 1st-level spell command and have a 1st-level and a 2nd-level spell slot available, you can cast command using either slot.

SPELLS KNOWN OF 1ST LEVEL AND HIGHER

You know five 1st-level spells of your choice from the blood mage spell list.

The Spells Known column of the Blood Mage table shows when you learn more blood mage spells of your choice. Each of these spells must be of a level for which you have spell slots, as shown on the table. For instance, when you reach 3rd level in this class, you can learn one new spell of 1st or 2nd level.

Additionally, when you gain a level in this class, you can choose one of the blood mage spells you know and replace it with another spell from the blood mage spell list, which also must be of a level for which you have spell slots.

SPELLCASTING ABILITY

Intelligence is your spellcasting ability for your blood mage spells. Your magic comes from your knowledge and study of the inherent magic in your blood. You use your Intelligence whenever a spell refers to your spellcasting ability. In addition, you use your Intelligence modifier when setting the saving throw DC for a blood mage spell you cast and when making an attack roll with one.

Spell save DC = 8 + your proficiency bonus + your Intelligence modifier

Spell attack modifier = your proficiency bonus + your Intelligence modifier

RITUAL CASTING

You can cast any blood mage spell you know as a ritual if that spell has the ritual tag.

SPELLCASTING FOCUS

As a blood mage, you can use a bladed weapon as a spellcasting focus.

CRIMSON PACT

Beginning at the 1st level, after careful study, you have infused your blood with magic, granting you enhanced vitality and the ability to draw upon great wells of arcane energy, at the cost of your life essence.

ARCANE FLESH

The magic coursing through your veins has granted you supernal hardiness. Your hit points are equal to 1d6 (or 4) + your Constitution modifier + half your Intelligence modifier rounded up per blood mage level and you gain an additional hit die per blood mage level.

BLOOD DICE

Every turn, you have a number of "blood dice", which are d4s. The maximum number of blood dice you can roll in a turn is determined by your blood mage level, as shown in the Blood Dice column of the Blood Mage table. These blood dice are used in certain class features and are also be used to cast spells.

Whenever you roll a blood die, you take necrotic damage equal to the roll. This damage cannot be reduced or prevented, except by your Sanguine Relief ability, nor mitigated by temporary hit points. This damage also doesn't force you to make Concentration checks.

You cannot roll blood dice, and therefore cannot cast spells, if you are wearing any armor that is not a shield.

CASTING AND EMPOWERING SPELLS

Your blood is bursting at the seams with magic itching to escape. Whenever you cast a blood mage spell of 5th-level or lower, you must roll a minimum number of blood dice equal to the level of the expended slot, though you may choose to roll extra, though you must choose to do so as the spell is cast. You are not required to roll blood dice to cast spells of 6th-level or higher, but may still choose to do so.

If that spells deals damage or provides healing, you add the amount rolled to the healing given or necrotic damage dealt to a single creature affected by the spell, other than yourself.

Should the spell affect two or more creatures, you may choose to double the damage you took from your blood dice to have the extra damage or healing affect all of those creatures, other than you.

For example, if you are a 9th-level blood mage, and want to cast a burning hands spell at 5th-level, you must expend all five of your blood dice to do so, which damage you and empower your spell. If you, for whatever reason, do not have all five of your blood dice, you cannot cast that spell.

REJUVENATION

At 2nd level, once per day while you take a short rest, you may choose expended spell slots of 5th level and below to recover. For each slot level, you must roll a blood die.

For example, if you're a 3rd-level blood mage, you have two blood dice. You can recover either a 2nd-level spell slot or two 1st-level spell slots.

PROFANE STUDY

Once you reach 2nd level, choose a blood mage specialization: the Bloodreaver, the Martyr, or the Hemomancer. Your choice grants you features at 2nd level and again at 6th, 10th, and 14th level.

SANGUINE RELIEF

At 3rd level, as you gain a more fine control of the arcane power coursing through your blood, low-levels of magic begin to mend your wounds rather than create them. Whenever you cast a cantrip, you may roll up to half of your blood dice, rounded up and, instead of damaging you, you heal for the rolled amount.

You may use this ability the same number of times as the maximum number of blood dice you can roll each turn and regain all spent uses whenever you take a short rest.

At 14th level, you no longer need to roll blood dice to cast 1st-level spells and they activate this ability as well.

ABILITY SCORE IMPROVEMENT

When you reach 4th level, and again at 8th, 12th, 16th, and 19th level, you can increase one ability score of your choice by 2, or you can increase two ability scores of your choice by 1. As normal, you can't increase an ability score above 20 using this feature.

Using the optional feats rule, you can forgo taking this feature to take a feat of your choice instead.

ENDEARING VISAGE

At 5th level you gain the ability to use your blood to influence other creature's thinking. Once per day, as an action, you may roll blood dice and, for the next hour, the shed blood is infused with enchantment magic and charms the first creature who comes in contact with it. A creature that makes direct contact with the droplet must succeed on a wisdom saving throw where the DC is equal to 8 + the total of your blood dice roll, though it can't be higher than your Spell Save DC, and does so with advantage if you or your companions are fighting it. If it fails the saving throw, it is charmed by you until the blood loses its magic or until you or your companions do anything harmful to it. The charmed creature regards you as a friend. When the effect ends, the creature is unaware that it was charmed by you unless the memories are scrutinized.

TOOLS OF THE TRADE

When you reach 6th level, you learn to create solid objects, such as tools and weapons, out of your blood. To create a tool kit, such as a set of blacksmith's tools or a flute, you must complete a 1 hour ritual after which your hit point maximum is reduced by 9.

You can also use this ritual to create a weapon, its appearance based on hit points spent, as shown in the chart below. This ritual takes 5 minutes for each hit point spent. If the weapon has the versatile property, use the larger damage die to determine the hit points that should be spent.

These tools and weapons are stored in your blood and as such they can be hidden, don't take up space or weight, and can be summoned as a bonus action. Your creation automatically returns to your bloodstream if it is more than 5 feet away from you for 1 minute or if you dismiss the creation as a bonus action. You can use your action to consume the creation, destroying it until you perform the ritual again. When you do, you regain your lost max hit points, but are not healed. This effect also occurs if you fail a death saving throw or die.

Additionally, if you create a weapon, it counts as magical for the purpose of overcoming resistance and immunity to nonmagical attacks and damage.

Hit Point Cost	Weapon Damage Die
3	1d4
6	1d6
9	1d8
12	1d10
15	1d12 or 2d6

EBB AND FLOW

Beginning at 10th level, whenever you finish a long rest, you can choose one of the following:

- As long as you have more than half of your maximum hit points left, you can add your Intelligence modifier to the total of any blood dice you roll for spells, once per turn.
- As long as you have less than half of your maximum hit points left, you can subtract your Intelligence modifier from the total of any blood dice you roll for spells, once per turn.

OPEN WOUNDS

Beginning at 18th level, whenever you roll blood dice to cast a spell, until the end of your next turn you don't have to roll blood dice in order to cast another spell of the same level.

EXSANGUINATE

When you reach 20th level, whenever a small or larger creature with blood dies within 50 feet of you, you heal for 15 hit points.

Additionally, whenever you expend hit dice to heal yourself, you may use the max number they could roll instead of rolling them.

PROFANE STUDIES

Over countless years of clandestine study, three major divisions of blood mages arose: Those who would use their power to hunt and fight, those who would use it to save those around them, and those who would use it to prove the purity of blood.

THE BLOODREAPER

Often when a blood mage finds themselves frequenting the front lines of combat, their magic tends to evolve into a more aggressive state. These practitioners of blood magic become masters of their blade and their blood, using them to both stay in a fight longer and to end a fight quicker. These warriors are called bloodreavers

When you choose this study at 2nd level, you gain proficiency with simple and martial melee weapons.

Additionally, you learn the following spells, which are accounted for on the Spells Known column of the Blood Mage table. These spells are not on the blood mage spell list but they are nonetheless a blood mage spell for you:

Spell Level	Spell Name
1	Armor Of Agathys, Hex

In addition, the following spells are added to the blood mage spell list for you:

Spell Level	Spell Name
2	Shadow Blade
3	Elemental Weapon
4	Chilling Scythe
5	Destructive Wave
6	Tenser's Transformation
7	Mordekainen's Sword
8	Omniscience
9	Illusionary Army

ARCANE TRACKING

Additionally, when you choose this study at 2nd level, you gain the ability to track creatures through their blood. Once per long rest, when you find bloodstains no more than a 48 hours old, you may use your action to force the owner of the bloodstains to make an Intelligence saving throw against your spell save DC. If it fails, for the next hour you can sense the direction of that creature as long as it's within 10 miles of you and, if the creature is moving, you know the direction of its movement. If a creature succeeds on this saving throw it is immune to this effect until it sheds more blood.

BLOOD RUSH

Beginning at 6th level, you may use a bonus action on each of your turns to increase your abilities. When you do, roll three blood dice and, for a number of rounds equal to your blood dice total, your Strength score becomes equal to your Constitution score.

Additionally, whenever you hit an enemy with a melee weapon attack, your movement speed increases by 10 feet and attacks of opportunity made against you have disadvantage until the end of your turn.

BUTCHERY

Also at 6th level you can roll two blood dice to attack twice, instead of once, whenever you take the Attack action with a melee weapon on your turn. If your extra attack hits, you may add the blood dice total as necrotic damage to the attack.

MENTAL FORTITUDE

Beginning at 10th level, by enhancing the bloodflow to your brain, you may Concentrate on two spells as long as they both have a range of Self. Whenever you make a Concentration check while Concentrating on two spells this way, you immediately lose Concentration on one of them before the check.

FRENZY

Beginning at the 14th level, once per short rest, when you take the Attack action on your turn, you may cast any cantrip, or a spell up to 3rd level as long as it has a range of Self, as a bonus action.

THE MARTYR

Healing through the arcane, let alone through the oft-thought-unclean source of life, blood, is often seen as profane and unthinkable compared from the healing derived from gods or from the powers of nature herself. Those who embrace the practice of sacrificing their own well-being to assist their allies are called Martyrs.

When you choose this study at 2nd level, you learn the following spells, which are accounted for on the Spells Known column of the Blood Mage table. These spells are not on the blood mage spell list but they are nonetheless a blood mage spell for you:

Spell Level	Spell Name
1	Bless, Healing Word

In addition, the following spells are added to the blood mage spell list for you:

Spell Level	Spell Name
2	Lesser Restoration, Silence
3	Haste, Mass Healing Word
4	Aura of Life, Aura of Purity
5	Mass Cure Wounds, Greater Restoration
6	Heal, Heroes' Feast
7	Resurrection, Regenerate
8	Power Word: Stun, Mind Blank
9	Power Word: Heal, True Resurrection

SENSE ESSENCE

Additionally at 2nd level, you gain the ability to sense the lifeforce of enemies through their blood. As an action, you focus on a single creature you can see within 30 feet and force them to make an Intelligence saving throw. The target has the feeling that someone is watching them, though they do not know the origin or even if the feeling is real. If they are aware of you, they can choose to fail the saving throw. On a failure, you sense the general health of the target and any diseases, poisons, or nonmagical conditions affecting them. A target that succeeds on this saving throw is immune to this effect for 24 hours.

Finally, you gain advantage on all Wisdom (Medicine) checks you make with a healers kit.

BLOODLETTING

At 6th level, you may use your action to roll blood dice to give up to two creatures you can see within 30 feet that many temporary hit points. You may use this feature a number of times equal to your Intelligence modifier (minimum 1) and regain all spent uses upon finishing a long rest.

BLOOD BROTHERS

Beginning at 10th level, when you take a long rest, choose up to five creatures you can see. Until your next long rest, those creatures may use a bonus action on each of their turns to touch you and force you to roll blood dice. That creature heals itself equal to the amount rolled and your hit point maximum is reduced by the same amount until you finish a long rest. Once a creature is healed this way, they must complete a short rest before healing this way again.

Additionally, the chosen creatures may choose to use your hit dice as though they were their own during a short rest.

LEECHING

Beginning at the 14th level, whenever you cast a spell that heals a creature, you may force one enemy within 60 feet of that creature to make a Constitution saving throw against your spell save DC. On a failed save, they take necrotic damage equal to four times the slot level used, or half as much on a successful one and you regain a number of hit points equal to the damage dealt. You may use this ability a number of times equal to your Intelligence modifier (minimum 1) and regain all spent uses whenever you take a long rest.

THE HEMOMANCER

Some who practice blood magic fall deep into the study, desiring to use it to crush their enemies through the strength their blood gives them. They practice the skill of drawing the arcane energy out of their blood, allowing them to manipulate the elements to a greater degree than a standard blood mage. Those who embrace this mindset call themselves hemomancers.

When you choose this study at 2nd level, you learn the following spells, which are accounted for on the Spells Known column of the Blood Mage table. These spells are not on the blood mage spell list but they are nonetheless a blood mage spell for you:

Spell Level	Spell Name
1	Thunder Wave, Witch Bolt

In addition, the following spells are added to the blood mage spell list for you:

Spell Level	Spell Name
2	Shatter, Flame Blade
3	Tidal Bomb, Lightning Bolt
4	Ice Storm, Blight
5	Blackflame Burst, Cone of Cold
6	Chain Lightning, Disintegrate
7	Finger of Death, Delayed Blast Fireball
8	Incendiary Cloud, Feeblemind
9	Fury, Turn to Lightning

THICKER THAN WATER

Additionally when you choose this study at 2nd level, you may use your blood as materials for casting a spell. Whenever you cast a spell using a slot level equal to or less than your blood dice maximum, you may ignore any material components that spell would require, up to a cost of 15 gp times your level.

CARNAGE

Beginning at 6th level, you may use a bonus action on each of your turns to roll a d6 instead of a d4 whenever you would roll a blood die that turn. You may use this feature thrice and regain all spent uses whenever you take a long rest.

HEMORRHAGE

At 10th level, whenever you roll at least one blood die, you gain temporary hit points equal to half of the damage taken from them, rounded down. At the start of each of your turns, if you still have temporary hit points gained this way, you lose 1d4 temporary hit points.

PANACEA

At 14th level, your intense study into the arcane nature of your blood allows you to mimic spells that would otherwise be impossible for you. Choose three spells from any classes, including this one. A spell must be of a level you can cast, as shown on the Blood Mage table, or a cantrip.

The chosen spells count as blood mage spells for you and don't count against your number of spells known.

Additionally, once per long rest you can cast one of those spells at its lowest level without expending a spell slot, so long as that spell is of 4th level or lower.

BLOODBRIDGE

Necromancy cantrip

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Components: V, S, M (two golden needles)

Duration: Instantaneous

Source: Edited from Wizard's Spell Compendium

You touch two creatures, drawing blood out of one (the "donor") and infusing it into the other (the "recipient"). An unwilling donor must succeed on a Dexterity saving throw or take 2d4 necrotic damage. The recipient then gains a number of temporary hit points equal to half of the damage dealt this way unless either creature lacks blood (undead, constructs, plants, oozes, elementals, etc).

This spell's damage increases by 2d4 when you reach 5th level (4d4), 11th level (6d4), and 17th level (8d4).

DICTATION

Transmutation cantrip

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Components: V, S

Duration: Concentration, 1 minute

You enchant a pen or other writing instrument and it will begin to transcribe any words spoken in a language you know within 5 feet of it.

ENEMIES

Enchantment cantrip

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Components: V, M (a small doll)

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 minute

Target creature must make a wisdom saving throw. On a failure, choose one of the following effects:

- It must immediately use its reaction to make an attack on a nearby creature that it considers an ally, and then the spell ends.
- It is convinced that another target creature is plotting against it and becomes unfriendly, or perhaps hostile toward that creature.

When the spell ends, the creature realizes that you used magic to influence its mood. It gains advantage on all further saving throws caused by this spell for 24 hours and becomes hostile toward you. A creature prone to violence might attack you. Another creature might seek retribution in other ways (at the DM's discretion), depending on the nature of your interaction with it.

PAIN

Necromancy cantrip

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Components: V, S

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 minute

One creature you touch must succeed on a Constitution saving throw or be wracked by horrific pains. On a failed save, the creature has a -2 penalty on all attack rolls and ability checks. At the end of each of its turns, the creature may repeat the saving throw, ending the effect on a success.

This spell's penalty increases by -1 when you reach 5th level (-3), 11th level (-4), and 17th level (-5).

REDIRECT

Abjuration cantrip

Casting Time: 1 reaction, which you can take when a creature within 5 feet of you is targeted with a magical effect.

Range: Touch

Components: V

Duration: Instantaneous

When a non-hostile creature that you can touch is targeted with a magical effect, you may use your reaction to change one of the targets of that spell to you instead.

SUMMONING

Conjuration cantrip

Casting Time: 1 action, or 1 reaction which you take at the start of combat

Range: Touch

Components: V, S, M (chalks worth 50gp)

You place a visible mark on an object that weighs no more than 5 lbs and fits in a 5 foot cube. As an action, you may summon that object to you, so long as it's within 10 miles and not being worn or carried. After the marked object is summoned, after 48 hours have passed, or if you create the mark fades.

This spell's weight limit is increased by 5 pounds, and the distance by 5 miles at 5th level (10 lbs, 15 miles), 11th level (15 lbs, 20 miles), and 17th level (20 lbs, 25 miles).

That creature must succeed on a Dexterity saving throw or take 1d8 force damage as the chain attaches itself to the creature's chest and a point within 5 feet of that creature. The creature is anchored to that point, unable to move more than 5 feet away from it. As an action, a creature may attempt a Strength saving throw, breaking the chain on a success.

BLOODBOND

1st-level necromancy (ritual)

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 30 feet, Touch

Components: V, S, M (A length of red silk)

Duration: 10 minutes

You link the health of two creatures. Choose one creature within 30 feet, and then another creature you touch. An unwilling creature must succeed on a Constitution saving throw or be linked to the other. Any damage taken by one creature is divided evenly (rounded up) between all linked creatures.

Additionally, if cast using a spell slot of 3rd level, the duration increases to 1 hour. If cast using a spell slot of 4th level or higher, the duration increases to 8 hours.

SHIFT

1st-level conjuration

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Components: V, S

Duration: Instantaneous

Make a melee spell attack. On hit, the target takes 5 (1d10) force damage and must succeed on a Charisma saving throw or be teleported up to 20 feet to an unoccupied space you can see.

STUMBLE

1st-level enchantment

Range: 20 feet

Components: V

Duration: 1 round

Whenever a creature within range begins its movement or moves within range, you may use your reaction to speak an ancient word of power. It must succeed on a Wisdom saving throw or use its movement to move the opposite direction it intended and then fall to the ground prone. Creatures immune to being charmed are immune to this effect.

THROW VOICE

1st-level illusion

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 600 feet

Components: V, S

Duration: Instantaneous

Source: Edited from Wizard's Spell Compendium

You project your voice to any point you can see within range. As you cast the spell, speak up to 20 words to be thrown. You may choose to alter your voice so that it is loud and booming, guttural and eldritch, etc. You may also choose to imitate a creature you have heard.

A creature that uses its action to analyze the sound can determine that it is an illusion with a successful Investigation check against your spell save DC. If a creature discerns the illusion for what it is, the sound becomes muffled for that creature. If the spell is cast to imitate something, saving throws made by creatures familiar with the source you're imitating are made with advantage.

Range: Self

Components: V, S, M (A drop of blood and a pinch of saltpeper)

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 minute

Source: Edited from Wizard's Spell Compendium

You cause the open, bleeding wounds of a target you can see within range to burst into blood-red flame. If that creature is below it's hit point maximum it must make a Constitution saving throw each round. The creature takes 2d6 fire damage and 1d6 necrotic damage on a failed save, or half as much damage on a successful one. This spell ends after the target succeeds a saving throw three times.

At Higher Levels. When you cast this spell using a spell slot of 5th level or higher, the fire damage increases by 1d6 for each slot level above 4th.

CHILLING SCYTHE

Source: Inspired by /u/SwordMeow

You channel a writhing mass of naturally opposed energies. For the duration, the energy grows stronger and becomes harder to contain. On any subsequent subsequent turn for the duration, you may use an action to cause the storm to disappear from your hands and reappear at a location you can see, where it bursts from the ground. Each creature in a 20-foot-radius sphere must make a Dexterity saving throw, taking 4d6 necrotic and 4d6 radiant damage on a failed save or half as much damage on a successful one. Then the spell ends.

Alternatively, you may use a bonus action on each of your subsequent turns to channel more energy into the storm. Each time you do this, make a DC 13 Constitution saving throw. If you succeed, the spell is treated as though it were cast using a spell slot one level higher, up your highest level spell slot plus one. If you channel energy this way, you may not release the storm that turn.

6TH LEVEL

ANIMATE BLOOD

6th-level necromancy

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 150 feet

Components: V, S, M (up to 6 drops of your blood)

Duration: Instantaneous

Source: Wizard's Spell Compendium

You animate up to six drops of your own blood and turn them into inch-tall minions. Each droplet has the statistics found below. A droplet that moves more than 150 feet away from you becomes inert. You are mentally linked to each of the droplets and may issue them commands. A droplet without a command will remain inert. As an action, you may switch your perception to one of theirs in order to use their senses as your own. While doing so, you are blinded and deafened to your own surroundings. You may also use a bonus action to direct one of the droplets to attack, using your spell attack modifier. If the attack succeeds, the droplet deals 4d10 necrotic damage and then the spell ends on it.

NILSPACE DOORWAY

6th-level transmutation

Casting Time: 5 hours

Range: Touch

Components: V, S, M (a stone and iron doorway worth at least 2,000 gp)

Duration: Permanent

Source: Edited from The Great Net Spellbook

To cast this spell, you must first build a stone archway inscribed with arcane runes. The arch may be of any appearance and design of your choice. This archway does not have to be set up as part of a wall, although it can be. When you finish casting this spell, the door then permanently opens to an extradimensional space 40 feet wide × 60 feet long, with a 10 foot high ceiling. If you wish, you may alter its dimensions as long as it remains that size (the floor can take up no more than 2,400 square feet). Unless you take additional methods to hide and lock the doorway, anyone can use it and enter your space.

The interior of this room is completely featureless, however you may furnish it as you wish. It will continuously provide fresh air and a temperature anywhere between 50° and 100° Fahrenheit.

If you wish (and have the ability), you may add any of the following spells to the final result while preparing this spell: alarm, continual flame, guards and wards, magic mouth, major image, minor illusion, silent image, unseen servant, and other, similar spells of the DM's discretion. Each spell increases the cost of the doorway by 100 gp + 50 gp per spell level, and increases the casting time by 1 hour, but causes those spells to be permanent. You are still bound by any limitations of those spells other than range. If an added spell is dispelled or suppressed, it will return to full strength the following day at dawn.

Bringing an extradimensional item such as a bag of holding into this room suppresses the magical properties of the item until it exits the room.

TRANSFUSION

6th-level necromancy

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Self (20 feet)

Components: V, S

Duration: Instantaneous

You attempt to siphon blood from nearby creatures. All creatures within 20 feet of you must succeed on a constitution saving throw or take 10d6 necrotic damage and you regain half that many hit points.

Artist Credit: Anato Finnstark

7TH LEVEL

RAVENOUS DARKNESS

7th-level evocation

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 100 feet

Components: V, S, M (a dozen teeth of various animals)

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 minute

Magical darkness spreads from a point you choose within range to fill a 50-foot-radius sphere for the duration, spreading around corners. A creature with darkvision can't see through this darkness, and nonmagical light can't illuminate it. Additionally, if any of this spell's area overlaps with an area of light created by a spell of 6th level or lower, the created light is dispelled.

The area of darkness is filled with toothy, ravenous jaws that bite at anything in the area. It attacks using your spell attack modifier and may attack each creature other than you inside it once at the end of your turns; roll one attack with advantage, regardless of the number of creatures inside, and compare it to each creature's AC individually. On hit, the target takes 3d8 slashing damage and its hit point maximum is reduced by that amount. This damage counts as magical for the purposes of calculating resistances and immunities.

A creature other than you must make a dexterity saving throw, taking 6d6 (magical) slashing damage or half as much on a successful save, whenever it enters the area for the first time or ends its turn there, and its hit point maximum is reduced by that amount. If the creature's hit point total is reduced to 0, the creature is eaten and disappears, dropping all magical items it was carrying. This reduction to a creature's hit point maximum lasts until the creature finishes a long rest or until it is affected by a spell like greater restoration.

At Higher Levels: When you cast this spell with an 8th-level or higher spell slot, the attack damage increases by 1d8 per slot level above 7th.

Artist Credit: Craig J. Spearing

8TH LEVEL

OMNISCIENCE

8th-level divination

You channel divine knowledge directly into your mind. For the duration, you gain Truesight out to a range of 120 feet. Additionally, when you cast this spell roll ten d20s and record the results. For the duration, you may replace any ability check, attack roll, or saving throw a creature within range would roll with any number recorded. You must choose to do so before the roll, and each number may only be used once. Additionally, for the duration, whenever you would roll an Intelligence check, you may replace your die roll with a 20. Finally, you gain expertise in every tool and gain the ability to flawlessly speak and understand all languages.

OMNIPRESENCE

8th-level divination

Casting Time: 1 hour

Range: 30 feet

Components: V, S, M, (Up to four golden pins worth 1,000 gp each, which this spell consumes)

Choose up to four creatures within 30 feet of you. Upon casting this spell, you permanently gain knowledge of the precise location of those creatures' bodies, even if you are on separate planes of existence or if they're hidden by a spell such as Nondetection. This effect cannot be dispelled or detected by a spell of 8th level or lower.

As an action, you may expend an 8th-level spell slot and another golden pin to teleport yourself to an unoccupied space within 30 feet of one of the marked creatures.

If you cast this spell and mark new creatures, the old enchantments fade.

9TH LEVEL

CONJURE COLOSSUS

9th-level conjuration

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 300 feet

Components: S, M, V (a diamond worth at least 500 gp, which the spell consumes, and a ball of clay)

Duration: Concentration, up to 10 minutes

The head, torso, and arms of a truly enormous, humanoid construct rises from the ground. It is easily 50 feet tall, lacks facial features, and is made of the same substance as the terrain it is summoned in.

The creature is under your command. It rolls its own initiative. On each of your turns, you can use a bonus action to mentally command the creature if its within 1,000 feet of you. You decide what action the creature will take or you can issue a general command, such as to guard a particular chamber or corridor. If you issue no commands, the creature only defends itself against hostile creatures. Once given an order, the creature continues to follow it until its task is complete.

You may use an action to cause the Colossus to retreat into the ground and emerge in another unoccupied space you can see within 1,000 feet.

ENDURE

9th-level abjuration

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Components: V, S, M (A set of arcane inks worth 2,500 gp, which the spell consumes, and a platinum needle worth 5,000 gp)

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 hour

You choose a spell that is affecting a creature you can touch, freezing it in time. Until you lose your concentration, that spell has a duration of 1 hour. If you maintain concentration for the full hour, the duration becomes 1 year, as an arcane tattoo inscribing the spell appears on the creature's body. The tattoo fades if dispelled by a Dispell Magic spell of 9th-level or higher, or if the spell ends on the target in another way (for example, if a creature affected by Invisibility attacks, the spell ends and the tattoo fades).

FURY

9th-level evocation

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Self (15-foot sphere)

Components: V

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 minute

Speaking a few ancient words to manipulate the fabric of universe, you unleash a pure, elemental force of destruction. You create a 15-foot sphere of hateful energy around you for up to 1 minute. All nonmagical structures and objects that aren't being worn or carried that enter the sphere are instantly incinerated.

Whenever a creature other than you enters the spell's area for the first time on a turn or ends its turn there it must make a Dexterity saving throw. On a failed save, it takes 1d6 of all 13 damage types (Bludgeoning, Piercing, Slashing, Acid, Fire, Cold, Poison, Necrotic, Radiant, Lightning, Psychic, Thunder and Force), or half as much on a successful one.

The ground beneath your feet becomes lifeless and acrid. Any water or plants that grow in that area for the next year becomes toxic. Any creature that drinks the affected water or eats any vegetation from the area must make a Constitution saving throw or become poisoned for 24 hours. Likewise, any creature that sleeps in an affected area must make a Constitution saving throw or become poisoned for 24 hours.

After one year, the toxic effects begin to fade, disappearing completely over the next week.

ILLUSIONARY ARMY

9th-level illusion

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Self

Components: V, S, M (a sapphire worth at least 1,000 gp, which the spell consumes)

Duration: 6 hours

You split your soul to create 10 semi-real illusory duplicates that appear utterly indistinguishable from you. Your "prime body" disappears at the same time. The duplicates appear in unoccupied spaces you can see within 30 feet of you. Each illusion has your statistics, but will disappear upon taking damage. You have the senses of all illusions simultaneously and can easily differentiate between them. Each illusion moves on the same turn but collectively can take only one action, one bonus action, and one reaction per round, as well as sharing your current spell slots. When there is only one illusion remaining, your real body replaces that remaining illusion and this spell ends. If the spell ends and there are two or more illusions remaining, you choose which one you replace.

INFUSE INTELLECT

9th-level transmutation

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Self

Components: V, S, M (a sapphire worth at least 1,000 gp, which the spell consumes)

Duration: Concentration, up to 10 minutes

You diffuse arcane power into your bloodstream, where it finds its way to your brain, increasing your thought capacity greatly for the duration and giving yourself the following properties:

- Your Intelligence and Wisdom scores become 26 and you gain advantage on these saving throws and ability checks.
- You can concentrate on two additional spells during this time, and you gain advantage on saving throws to maintain concentration.
- Spells with a casting time of 1 action can be cast as a bonus action.
- You may cast the following spells at their lowest level at will, without requiring material components or having them prepared or known: Mage Hand, Unseen Servant, Silent Image, Message, Identify, Locate Object, Suggestion, Locate Creature, Misperception, Rary's Telepathic Bond, Scrying, Telekinesis, Fear, Mass Suggestion, and True Seeing.
- You may cast the following spells at their lowest level once. These spells require no material components, and their effects dissipate when this spell stops: Telepathy, Power Word Stun, Mind Blank, Feeblemind, Dominate Monster, Geas, Dispel Magic, Bigby's Hand, Creation, Dominate Person, Wall of Force, and Modify Memory.

When the spell ends, you must make a constitution saving throw. On a success, your movement speed is halved until you take a long rest and you must choose to take either an action or bonus action on each of your turns, but not both. On a failure, you fall unconscious for 1d4 hours or until damaged, and you receive the above effects as though you succeeded on the save upon waking.

CUSTOM SPELLS

OMNIPOTENCE

9th-level divination

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Self

Components: V

Duration: 1 minute

You temporarily ascend to near-godhood. For the duration, whenever you cast a spell using a spell slot 5th level or lower, it's cast as though it used a 5th-level spell slot. When you cast a spell of 6th level or higher, it's cast as though it used a 8th-level spell slot. These spells count as though they were cast with their lowest-level spell slot for the purposes of class abilities.

STEAL SOUL

9th-level necromancy

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Components: V, S, M (a diamond, worth at least 2,500 gp)

Duration: Special

You reach into a creature near death and steal their soul. If a creature has lost at least 100 hit points, they must make a charisma saving throw. On a failure, you pull out their soul and can enact one of the following effects:

- Rend. You rip apart the creature's soul, destroying it and its material body completely. The creature may not be returned to life by any means short of divine intervention or a Wish spell.

- Seal. You seal the creature's soul in the diamond used to cast this spell. Each diamond may only be used to hold one soul, releasing the first creature trapped should another attempt to be sealed. A creature is trapped until the diamond is shattered. The diamond has an AC of 15 (natural armor) and 10 hit points. Light can pass through the gem normally (allowing the target to see out and other creatures to see in), but nothing else can pass through, even by means of teleportation or planar travel. While the soul is trapped, the body disappears, dropping everything it's wearing or carrying, but is recreated upon the soul's release.

- Consume. You infuse yourself or another creature you can touch with the soul, restoring 10d4+10 hit points to that creature instantly and damaging the target by the same amount.

- Twist. You twist the soul, and restore it to the creature. The creature falls unconscious for 1 round. Upon awakening it must succeed on a Charisma saving throw or its alignment and morals change until the diamond used to cast this spell is shattered. The diamond has an AC of 15 (natural armor) and 10 hit points. For example, if the creature was lawful evil, it becomes chaotic good. If it was chaotic neutral, it becomes lawful neutral. If you try to cast this spell on a creature with a true neutral alignment, the diamond shatters and the spell fails.

TURN TO LIGHTNING

9th-level transmutation

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Self

Components: V, S, M (a crystal rod, worth at least 5,000 gp)

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 minute

You transform yourself into a bolt of lightning, enhancing your abilities for up to a minute and gaining the following properties:

- Your dexterity score becomes 30 and you gain advantage on dexterity saving throws and ability checks.
- Your speed becomes 0. Instead of moving normally, up to two times each turn, choose a point you can see within 60 feet to travel to near-instantaneously. If you would pass through a creature on your way to that point, it must make a Dexterity saving throw. On a failed save, it takes 8d10 lightning damage and can't use reactions until your next turn, or half as much damage on a successful one. Creatures made of metal or wearing metal armor have disadvantage on this saving throw. A creature can only be damaged this way once each turn.
- Your melee attacks deal an additional 2d10 lightning damage and are rolled with advantage.
- You have immunity to lightning damage and the paralyzed condition.
- You gain an additional action on each of your turns. That action can be used only to take the Attack (one weapon attack only), Dash, Disengage, Hide, or Use an Object action.

When the spell ends, you must make a constitution saving throw. On a success, your movement speed is halved until you take a long rest and you must choose to take either an action or bonus action on each of your turns, but not both. On a failure, you fall unconscious for 1 hour or until damaged, and upon awakening you suffer the effects as though you succeeded on the save.

CUSTOM SPELLS

ECHOES OF THE ANCIENT BLOOD

---

D&D HOMEBREW

Three new archetypes for the Blood Mage 5e custom class! Dash, Slash, and Curse your foes!

BY CONSEQUENCE6

THE HOLLOW

Among blood mages, there exist a sect who have learned to use their magic as a tool to enhance their speed. By shedding blood, the arcane content of their body rises, enhancing their physical traits in a number of ways.

Those who tend to focus it on raw strength are often better suited to become Bloodreavers. But those who desire speed, dexterity, or stealth often choose to become one of the Hollow. The Hollow lean heavily into the belief that with power must come sacrifice, and often leave every mission, from the largest battle to the quickest scout, battered, bruised, and most always bloody.

When you choose this study at 2nd level, you learn the following spells, which are accounted for on the Spells Known column of the Blood Mage table. These spells are not on the blood mage spell list but they are nonetheless a blood mage spell for you:

Spell Level	Spell Name
1	Heroism, Longstrider

In addition, your blood dice maximum is increased by 1 starting at 3rd level. You gain an additional blood die again at level 7, level 11, and level 15.

Levels	Blood Dice	Extra Dice
3, 4	3	+1
5, 6	4	+1
7, 8	6	+2
9, 10	7	+2
11, 12	8	+3
13, 14	9	+3
15, 16	10	+4
17-20	11	+4

DRAINED

Beginning at 2nd level, you learn to fight while drained of blood. As long as you have less than half of your hit point maximum remaining, your speed increases by 10 feet and you can take a bonus action on each of your turns in combat. This action can be used only to take the Dash or Disengage action.

CALCULATED RISK

Starting at 6th level, as a bonus action, you may choose to use a 1 instead of rolling for each blood die that you would roll that turn.

You may use this feature a number of times equal to your Intelligence modifier (minimum 1), regaining all spent uses on a long rest.

SHEDDING EXCESS

Starting at 10th level, whenever you roll a blood die your speed increases by 5 feet until the start of your next turn.

HARDY

At 14th level, whenever you roll a blood die you gain +1 AC until the start of your next turn.

Additionally, you gain an extra hit die per blood mage level (3d6).

THE SHAMAN

A blood mage raised in a smaller society, discovering their magic alone, may turn to a more traditional path: The Shaman. Shaman typically fill the role of a cunning folk or a medicine man in remote villages around the world. Using their blood magics as a means of warding off evil spirits, fighting that which lurks in the night, curing ailments and healing wounds, and blessing the village with bountiful harvests are all within the purview of a Shaman.

When you choose this study at 2nd level, you learn the following spells, which are accounted for on the Spells Known column of the Blood Mage table. These spells are not on the blood mage spell list but they are nonetheless a blood mage spell for you:

Spell Level	Spell Name
1	Bless, Hex

In addition, you gain the ability to create a voodoo doll. Creating one takes a 10 minute ritual and 10gp worth of fabric and string. To link a voodoo doll to a creature, you may use your bonus action to make a melee spell attack against one creature within range. On hit, roll any number of blood dice, and the creature takes that much damage. It is now linked to your voodoo doll for as long as you remain concentrating on it, as though on a spell, up to a maximum of 1 hour.

SIMBI'S BLESSINGS

Beginning at 2nd level, you gain two voodoo practices of your choice. Your practice options are detailed at the end of the study description. Whenever you gain a level in this class, you may switch one of your practices for another.

SHRUNKEN HEAD

Beginning at 6th level, you gain the ability to create shrunken heads, imbued with your magic. The creation of a head requires a 1 hour ritual, 20gp worth of special salts and string, and a creature's head. You can have up to two heads at once, and performing the ritual again while you have three heads destroys one of the old ones. Your heads have an AC of 12 (natural armor), 5 hit points, and darkvision out to 120 feet.

Your heads all share a number of charges equal to your Intelligence modifier, and regain 1d4+1 charges at dawn each day. While you're holding a head, these charges can be used to cast the following spells:

Artist Credit:
BlackBirdInk

Comprehend Languages (1 charge), Augury (2 charges), Speak with Dead (3 charges), Dissonant Whispers (4 charges) and Crown of Madness (5 charges), without material components. When you spend the last charge, roll 1d6. On a 1, the head you're currently holding turns to dust.

Additionally, as an action, you can see through one of your head's eyes and hear what it hears until you choose to stop. During this time, you are deaf and blind with regard to your own senses.

You may also choose to set a head somewhere to keep watch. As an action, you can expend 2 charges and cast the Alarm spell instead of with its normal casting time, creating a 20-foot cube area centered on the head. After the duration the head turns to dust.

PRACTICED MYSTICISM

At 10th level, you can now create and maintain two voodoo dolls and three shrunken heads at all times. Additionally, your voodoo dolls no longer require concentration.

You also gain two additional voodoo practices of your choice. Finally, Pins and Needles' damage and Stitch's healing are improved to 2d10 and 4d8 respectively.

BONDYE'S BLESSING

At 14th level, you can create a third voodoo doll.

Additionally, you gain an advanced voodoo practice of your choice from the options detailed at the end of the study description. Whenever you gain a level in this class, you may switch your choice.

VOODOU PRACTICES

Pins and Needles As an action, you can insert a pin into your voodoo doll. To do so deals 1 damage to your doll. The linked creature must then succeed on a Wisdom saving throw against your spell save DC or take 1d10+1 force damage.

Jinx The creatures linked by your voodoo dolls are under the effects of the Hex spell, as though it were cast at 1st-level. This effect doesn't require concentration.

Bad Juju Once per long rest, you may cast Bestow Curse on a linked creature through its voodoo doll without expending a spell slot.

Sew Once per long rest, as an action you may deal 1 damage to your doll and force a linked creature to succeed on a Constitution saving throw against your spell save DC or suffer one of the following effects:

- Eyes: The creature is blinded.
- Ears: The creature is deafened.
- Mouth: The creature is rendered mute.
- Legs: The creature's speed is reduced by 15 feet.
- Arms: The creature suffers a -2 penalty to attack and damage rolls.

As long as a creature is affected by this ability, you may use subsequent actions to continue sewing that doll, choosing a new option each time.

At the end of each of its turns an affected creature may attempt its saving throw again, ending all effects on a success.

Stitch You may use your action to stitch your voodoo doll, healing the linked creature for 2d8 hit points and dealing 1d4 damage to the doll.

VOODOU DOLLS

A voodoo doll has 10 HP and an AC of 10.

Entreat the Loa As an action, you may choose one ability score. A linked creature may add your proficiency bonus to any ability checks or saving throws they make with the chosen score until you choose another.

Reinforce Fabric As an action, you may sew extra fabric onto the voodoo doll, dealing 1d4 damage to it. For the next minute, the linked creature is enhanced. Choose one of the following effects:

- Eyes: The creature gains darkvision out to a range of 60 feet.
- Ears: The creature gains advantage on any perception checks that rely on sound.
- Legs: The creature's speed is increased by 10 feet.
- Arms: The creature gains a +1 bonus to attack and damage rolls.

Beg The Marasa You perform a quick ritual in order to locate a creature previously linked to your voodoo doll. By spending 10 minutes, in which you name a creature who was at one point linked to your voodoo doll, you gain a preternatural sense for the creature if it's within 10 miles. You instantly gain knowledge of the direction the creature is from you, as well as the ability to see the path the creature followed to get there.

You gain these benefits for up to 1 hour, as long as you remain concentrating on the effect as though it were a spell. After the effect ends, the doll takes 1d4 damage.

ADVANCED VOODOU PRACTICES

Yank Once per long rest, as an action, one linked creature must make a Charisma saving throw as you rip off your effigy's head, destroying it. On a failed save, the creature takes 10d12 force damage, or half as much on a success.

Channel Papa Legba You entreat the guardian of the crossroads to take you to a previously linked creature. By performing a 1 hour ritual in which you name a creature who was at one point linked to your voodoo doll, you and up to five creatures you can see instantly transport to an unoccupied space within 30 feet of the named creature. As you arrive, the voodoo doll you used crumbles to dust.

THE TORMENTOR

Some blood mages, though exceedingly rare, simply love the blood. Be it through an occupation, a mental breakdown, or a deep-seated insanity, a type of blood magic emerged that excels at causing, spreading, sharing, and loving pain, torture, and in the end, blood. These unfortunate few are known simply as Tormentors.

When you choose this study at 2nd level, you learn the following spells, which are accounted for on the Spells Known column of the Blood Mage table. These spells are not on the blood mage spell list but they are nonetheless a blood mage spell for you:

Spell Level	Spell Name
-------------	------------

1	Ensnaing Strike, Inflict Wounds
---	---------------------------------

In addition, the following spells are added to the blood mage spell list for you:

Spell Level	Spell Name
2	Cloud of Daggers
3	Enemies Abound
4	Giant Insect
5	Insect Plague
6	Flesh to Stone
7	Mordekainen's Sword
8	Feeblemind
9	Psychic Scream

THOUSAND CUTS

Beginning at 2nd level, you master the technique to properly bleed your enemies. Whenever an enemy is dealt damage by one of your spells, they begin to bleed. At the end of their next turn, they take 1d4 necrotic damage. This ability grows in strength at 6th, 10th, and 14th level.

Additionally, you gain proficiency in the Charisma (Intimidation) and Wisdom (Insight) skills.

EVERY WORK A MASTERPIECE

At 6th level you've perfected your art of butchery. Whenever you deal bludgeoning, slashing, or piercing damage, you may choose to deal the maximum damage, instead of rolling.

You may do this a number of times equal to your Intelligence modifier (minimum of 1), regaining all spent uses when you finish a long rest.

Additionally, a creature damaged by your Thousand Cuts ability has disadvantage on Investigation checks to discern illusions until the start of their next turn.

MASOCHISM

Starting at 10th level, you learn to love the pain. Whenever you damage yourself with a spell, you heal a number of hit points equal to half the damage taken at the start of your next turn, and you may add your Intelligence modifier to you AC until you heal this way.

Additionally, the damage of your Thousand Cuts ability increases by 1d4.

BREAKING POINT

At 14th level, your ability to determine the breaking point of an enemy's descent into madness is amplified. When you deal damage to a creature you may have that creature temporarily descend into madness. That creature must succeed on a Wisdom saving throw or roll on the Short-Term Madness table. A creature driven insane this way may repeat the saving throw at the end of each of its turns, recovering from the insanity on a success.

Once you use this feature, you can't use it again until you finish a long rest.

Additionally, a creature damaged by your Thousand Cuts ability has disadvantage on concentration checks until the start of their next turn.

EDITING THOUGHTS

---

- Assuming +3 con HP will be (at levels 1, 4, 8, 12, 16, 20): 12, 42, 82, 122, 162, 202
- Assuming +5 CON, HP is 14, 50, 98, 146, 194, 242
- This class essentially has a d12 hit die that requires 16+ INT. Which is good, to make it a more balanced gish.
- Spell list themes: Necromancy, Illusion, Enchantment, Lightning, Water, Ice, Blood
- Additional thoughts: Short range & stuff to become BBEG
- Lacking archetypal wizard spells like Firebolt, Fireball, and Wish
- Should I have my name in more places? I'm Eliar's Lost Arts, if you missed it.
- I'm worried Hemorrhage is too strong.
- I'm worried about the strength of the Hemomancer's spell list.
- Thank you /r/UearthedArcana and the Discord of Many Things for help balancing!
- They hurt themselves a LOT now. ~~Hmmm... Add healing?~~
~~Perhaps light armor back?~~
