PART 1. JOINING THE LEAGUE

This document is a guide to creating and advancing an Adventurers League character. The rules here are supplemented by the Adventurers League FAQ (also found in the Adventurers League Player's Pack).

WHAT YOU NEED TO PLAY

To participate in D&D Adventurers League games, you'll need access to at least the following:

- D&D Basic Rules. This .pdf document is free on the Wizards of the Coast website and contains all the basic rules of the game.
- A Character Sheet and Adventure Logsheet. You can use any fifth edition character sheet that suits you. You must also maintain a logsheet to record information after each session of play. You can find these here: D&D Adventurers League Resources.
- A DCI number (OPTIONAL). This is an official Wizards of the Coast organized play number. You can obtain a new DCI number from the event organizer or by visiting accounts.wizards.com

CHARACTER CREATION

You'll also need to create a character for the D&D Adventurers League. All characters begin at 1st level in Adventurers League play.

STEPS 1 & 2: CHOOSE A RACE AND CLASS

Your 1st-level character is created using any race and class options in the Player's Handbook plus one other resource from those listed below (the "PHB+1" rule).

- Elemental Evil Player's Companion (EEPC)
- Sword Coast Adventurer's Guide (SCAG)
- Volo's Guide to Monsters (VGM)
- Xanathar's Guide to Everything (XGE)¹
- Mordenkainen's Tome of Foes (ToF)²

The following variant or optional rules are available when creating your character:

- Variant Human Traits (PHB)
- Half-Elf and Tiefling Variants (SCAG/ToF)
- Option: Human Languages (SCAG)³
- Blessing of Corellon (ToF)³

NOTE: Races with flight at 1st level, and options from any resource other than those listed above (such as the Dungeon Master's Guide, Guild Adept products, or Unearthed Arcana articles) aren't available without specific campaign documentation (i.e., certs, etc.).

¹XGE also includes the "Turtle Package"

²Chapters 1 through 5, only

³This option isn't subject to PHB+1

STEP 3: DETERMINE ABILITY SCORES

Your character's ability scores are generated using one of the following methods:

- Standard Array (15, 14, 13, 12, 10, 8)
- Variant: Customizing Ability Scores (PHB).

STEP 4: DESCRIBE YOUR CHARACTER

Describe your character and choose a background.

Background. Choose or create a background using the resources above, or other resources permitted in the Adventurers League Content Catalogue (ALCC). As you adventure, you accumulate renown related to your background that reflects your fame (or infamy).

RENOWN RANK

Renown	Required Level	Rank	Title
0	1st	1	Novice
2	3rd	2	Notorious
10	8th	3	Seasoned
20	13th	4	Heroic
30	18th	5	Paragon

Alignment. Evil characters aren't allowed in D&D Adventurers League play unless your character is a member of either the Lords' Alliance or Zhentarim faction. These characters may be lawful evil.

Deities. You character may worship any deity listed in Deities of the Forgotten Realms and Nonhuman Deities table in the Player's Handbook or any of the deities mentioned in the resources in Step 1 & 2, above. Clerics must worship a specific deity but aren't limited to the Domains recommended for their deity.

STEP 5: CHOOSE EQUIPMENT

Your character's class and background determine equipment and gold; don't roll for starting wealth.

Trinkets. You start with one trinket of your choice from the table in Chapter 5 of the Player's Handbook, or you can roll randomly to determine your trinket.

Equipment. Your character can sell or buy spell components and equipment found in the resources listed in Step 1 & 2, above.

STEP 6: SELECT A FACTION (OPTIONAL)

Your character can be a member of a faction if they have the Safe Haven background feature (Faction Agent background, Sword Coast Adventurers Guide).

Members of a faction receive an identifying insignia of their faction: a pin, a brassard, or special coin. In addition, they may also identify themselves in other ways, such as clothing, tattoos, or secret handshakes. In addition, being a member of a faction may provide different or additional awards based on your renown.

PART 2. ADVENTURERS LEAGUE PLAY

To play an adventure, your character must fall within the adventure's level range. If you're playing in a hardcover adventure you may continue to play it, but if you play a different hardcover adventure, you can't return to the first one if you're outside its level range.

REWARDS AND EQUIPMENT

By completing objectives or spending time pursuing the adventure's goals, characters earn rewards. Record your rewards on your adventure logsheet.

Advancement Checkpoints. To advance to their next level, your character must obtain a number of advancement checkpoints based on their current tier; Adventurers League characters don't accumulate experience points (XP). Checkpoints are applied immediately. If you accumulate enough checkpoints to level, you do so upon completing the next long rest, session, or adventure—whichever happens first.

- Tier 1. 4 checkpoints
- Tiers 2 through 4. 8 checkpoints

Treasure Checkpoints. You can spend treasure checkpoints on "evergreen" items, seasonal items, as well as items unlocked by adventures and DM Quests. Treasure checkpoints can be spent or saved for later; they needn't be declared as they're received. However, they may only be spent on those items available to the tier equal to that of the adventure in which they're earned, or, in the case of hardcover adventures, the tier associated with the group's APL (but no higher than the character's tier). For example, treasure checkpoints earned at tier 1 can only be spent on items available to tier 1 characters, while tier 2 treasure points can be spent on any item that's available to tier 1 or 2 characters.

The item's cost is based on the magic item table in which it's found. The cost and availability of some items unique to individual adventures can be found by your Dungeon Master in the ALCC. Once you've purchased an item unlocked by adventuring, that item is no longer unlocked; you must unlock it again.

MAGIC ITEMS BY TIER

Magic Item Table	Available at Tier	Point Cost
A	1-4	8
B	1-4	8
C	1-4	8
D	2-4	16
E	3-4	16
F	1-4	16
G	2-4	20
H	3-4	20
I	3-4	24

EQUIPMENT

Your character may sell or buy equipment using the rules found in the Player's Handbook. Between sessions, your character may purchase equipment found in any resource listed in Step 1 & 2, above. Individual adventures may provide limitations on what equipment is available for purchase during play.

Rewards and equipment can't be given to another character, except as follows:

- You may lend equipment and magic items to other characters at your table but must return it at the end of the session unless consumed (like a potion).
- Permanent magic items may be traded (see below).
- Characters may choose to divide the cost of NPC spellcasting services obtained during an adventure.

BUYING POTIONS AND SCROLLS

Similarly, your character can purchase potions and scrolls per the tables below. The cost of scrolls below is in addition to any component cost—regardless of whether it's consumed or not.

POTIONS FOR SALE

Potion of...	Cost	Potion of...	Cost
Healing	50 gp	Water breathing	100 gp
Climbing	75 gp	Superior healing	500 gp
Animal friendship	100 gp	Supreme healing	5,000 gp
Greater healing	100 gp	Invisibility	5,000 gp

SPELL SCROLLS FOR SALE

Spell Level	Cost	Spell Level	Cost
Cantrip	25 gp	3rd	300 gp
1st	75 gp	4th	500 gp
2nd	150 gp	5th	1,000 gp

THE ADVENTURE LOGSHEET

You must use an adventure logsheet to track your character's rewards from adventure to adventure.

Session Number. Record the session's number. This will help you keep your adventure logsheets organized as you accumulate more.

Advancement and Treasure Checkpoints. Annotate the number and tier of any checkpoints your character earned at the end of or between sessions.

Downtime. Your character earns five downtime days for every two advancement checkpoints they're awarded. Annotate downtime days earned at the end of each session, and any spent (including what days, if any, were spent towards a long-term downtime activity—such as training). For example, if you spent 10 days learning Gnomish write "Training: Gnomish (10)" in the adventure logsheet's note section. You don't pay lifestyle when spending downtime.

Item Unlocks. Note any magic items or special treasure unlocked or received during the session.

Gold. If your character gains a level (or for 20th-level characters, for each 8 advancement checkpoints you earn), add the gp reward they earn as determined by the table below. This gold can be spent or saved—recording expenditures normally.

INDIVIDUAL TREASURE

Level Gained	GP Reward	Associated Lifestyle
2-4	75 gp	Modest
5-10	150 gp	Comfortable
11-16	550 gp	Wealthy
17-20	5,500 gp	Aristocratic

Renown. Characters earn a renown point for every four advancement checkpoints they earn.

Adventure Notes. Record other important things that happened during the adventure or information you'll need later, here: deaths, special rewards (story items/effects, etc.), item purchases, leveling up, etc.

DOWNTIME AND LIFESTYLE

Your character can participate in the downtime activities before, during, or after a session. You can use the downtime activities found in the Player's Handbook as well as those that follow; other activities are allowed if outlined in other campaign documents:

Downtime: Spellcasting Services. You can spend 1 downtime day to cast a spell, or to have a spell cast by either another character or an NPC. Spells cast during a session use the normal rules for spellcasting (spell slots, material components, etc.) instead of downtime, while spells cast by NPCs usually require spending downtime as well as gold or treasure checkpoints. You can only receive spellcasting services from characters at the same table as you are.

Downtime: Catching Up. "Catching Up" is available at 4th, 10th, and 16th level. By spending downtime as follows, your character advances to the next level:

Current Level	Downtime Cost
4th	25 days
10th	75 days
16th	150 days

Downtime: Copying Spells. You must use this downtime activity to copy spells. For each downtime day spent, your character can spend 8 hours copying spells into their spellbook or making their spellbook available for other characters to copy from. Characters playing the same adventure together can "trade" spells with each other using this activity. Each wizard has their own "language" used for scribing spells and can't benefit from the Help action when scribing—even if assisted by other wizards. You must pursue this downtime activity in the presence of your table's DM.

Downtime: Trading Magic Items. Permanent magic items can be traded on a one-for-one basis for items of the same rarity from the same magic item table in the Dungeon Master's Guide. To receive an item in trade, you must be of an appropriate tier to buy the item using treasure checkpoints. Items without remaining magical properties can't be traded. Each party to the trade must spend 15 downtime days. If the other party is playing in the same adventure as you, the downtime cost is waived. Certificates aren't required but must accompany the trade or be destroyed if one exists.

In the event of conflict, the Dungeon Master's Guide determines an item's rarity. Items found in individual adventures have a rarity provided by the adventure. If the adventure assigns no rarity, the item is unique.

Upon completing the trade, note on your log sheet who you traded with and the items traded.

Brewing Potions of Healing (XGE). Brewing potions of healing requires the use of an herbalism kit.

Scribing Scrolls (XGE). You must know or be able to prepare a spell before you can scribe it to a spell scroll. Its cost is in addition to any component cost—regardless of whether it's consumed or not.

CHARACTER ADVANCEMENT

As you level, your character evolves and grows. In advancing your character the following rules apply:

Slowed Progression. You may slow your character's advancement. If you do so, your character earns any checkpoints, downtime and renown at half the normal rate. You may opt in or out of this between sessions.

Character Rebuilding. You may choose to rebuild your character prior to playing their first adventure as a 5th-level character (levels 1–4). You can change any of your character's statistics but their name. Other, non-mechanical aspects of your character such as their alignment, sex, gender, or personality traits can be changed between sessions regardless of their level.

Your character keeps any rewards and equipment earned to that point. If you change your character's class or background, they lose any equipment (along with the proceeds from selling it, or benefits derived from it, such as copied spells) associated with the class or background. Similarly, if you change their faction, you also lose any renown from their former faction.

Advancing Your Character. Your character advances using the race and class options (including the multiclass rules, feats, spells) provided in your PHB+1. When you gain a level, use the fixed hit point value in your class entry; don't roll your hit points.

Renown Advancement. If you advance in renown rank, you do so at the end of the session.
