AGLA1-1 LOST TEMPLE OF THE FEY GODS

AGLA01 Pixie Dusted

The pixies of Halendos rewarded you for saving their home by sprinkling an item with magic pixie dust. You may infuse one magic weapon, implement, armor, or shield with the pixie dust. The infused item scintillates as though flecked with sparkling jewels, giving off light equivalent to a candle. You choose the color of the light when you choose the item to infuse. You may not change either choice once made.

AGLA02 Tome of Twilight Boughs

You have recovered the Tome of Twilight Boughs, a mysterious book containing untranslatable rituals that were somehow involved in the corruption of the Temple of the Yuir Gods. The mystery of this book was furthered when the cleansing of the temple also destroyed the small portion of the text that actually had been translated. This is the beginning of a Major Quest that will be resolved in future Aglarond regional adventures. To complete this quest, you must find out where the book came from, what its fell secrets are, and what all this has to do with the Cult of Voldini.
