TYMAI-6 TROUBLED ROADS

TYMA12 Silver Maw of House Jalt

For your efforts in finding out what happened to Lord Tuanek's nephew, you have gained great favor and respect with House Jalt and the people of Ruinspoke. As a token of his appreciation, the dragonborn lord has given you a finely worked silver charm, resembling a dragon head, engraved with "Jalt" on its outer surface and set with small diamonds for eyes. This charm can be worn on a necklace or a bracelet if you so choose.

This favor grants you a significant measure of notoriety in Ruinspoke. You are regarded as a staunch ally by Lord Tuanek, and any dragonborn of House Jalt who sees the necklace will regard you in a more positive light. If you garner additional Recognitions of House Jalt, then the amount of influence you receive will increase.

If you are a native of Tymanther, or a dragonborn who is willing to relocate, and you have received other recognitions of House Jalt, then you now find yourself on the right track to receive an introduction to the Lance Defenders or the Platinum Cadre in a future adventure. Perhaps your name will someday even reach the ears of Vanquisher Tarhun himself.

TYMA13 Enmity of the Cult of the Dragon

Your investigation into the disappearance of a group of students from the Abeir Academy in Djerad Thymar led you to the Black Ash Plain, where you discovered a great threat to all of Tymanther. Your actions and revelations have drawn the notice of many powerful factions within Tymanther. Some of the attention is good and some isn't; which side will prevail remains to be seen. By exposing the Cult of the Dragon's activities, you have certainly drawn their attention and ire. They will seek retribution for their losses.
