

DUNGEONS & DRAGONS

LIVING FORGOTTEN REALMS

_____
(character name)

HAS RECEIVED STORY AWARDS FROM:
(cross out those not received)

WATE2-01 GILDING A NOBLE

WATE18 Favor of House Moonstar

Lord Stedd Moonstar is grateful to this PC for his or her help in preparing for the End of Winter Gala by performing various good deeds for the city, the temple of Selune, and House Moonstar.

Lord Moonstar will seek the help of this adventurer and will recommend the PC for employment to friends. Lord Moonstar will vouch for the PC to the City Watch and assist in obtaining invitations to social events.

This story award also denotes the start of the Major Quest, Restoring Splendor, which will continue in WATE2-2 and end in WATE2-3.

This story award counts as one favor towards the seven needed to join The Heirs of Mirt, a Waterdhavian adventurers' society.

WATE19 Blood-Soaked Ballad

The dragonborn bard Cynda, known as the Blood-Soaked Bard because of her preference for gory songs of heroic battles against worthy foes, has composed a song in this character's honor. In the space below, write the title or a brief description of the song, which should be based on the story of personal valor that this PC told Cynda.

Cynda's song about this PC quickly spreads; as a result, the character's fame grows among the adventuring societies of Faerun. This story award counts as one favor towards the seven needed to join The Heirs of Mirt, a Waterdhavian adventurers' society.

DUNGEONS & DRAGONS

LIVING FORGOTTEN REALMS

_____
(character name)

HAS RECEIVED STORY AWARDS FROM:
(cross out those not received)

WATE2-01 GILDING A NOBLE

WATE18 Favor of House Moonstar

Lord Stedd Moonstar is grateful to this PC for his or her help in preparing for the End of Winter Gala by performing various good deeds for the city, the temple of Selune, and House Moonstar.

Lord Moonstar will seek the help of this adventurer and will recommend the PC for employment to friends. Lord Moonstar will vouch for the PC to the City Watch and assist in obtaining invitations to social events.

This story award also denotes the start of the Major Quest, Restoring Splendor, which will continue in WATE2-2 and end in WATE2-3.

This story award counts as one favor towards the seven needed to join The Heirs of Mirt, a Waterdhavian adventurers' society.

WATE19 Blood-Soaked Ballad

The dragonborn bard Cynda, known as the Blood-Soaked Bard because of her preference for gory songs of heroic battles against worthy foes, has composed a song in this character's honor. In the space below, write the title or a brief description of the song, which should be based on the story of personal valor that this PC told Cynda.

Cynda's song about this PC quickly spreads; as a result, the character's fame grows among the adventuring societies of Faerun. This story award counts as one favor towards the seven needed to join The Heirs of Mirt, a Waterdhavian adventurers' society.

DUNGEONS & DRAGONS

LIVING FORGOTTEN REALMS

_____
(character name)

HAS RECEIVED STORY AWARDS FROM:
(cross out those not received)

WATE2-01 GILDING A NOBLE

WATE18 Favor of House Moonstar

Lord Stedd Moonstar is grateful to this PC for his or her help in preparing for the End of Winter Gala by performing various good deeds for the city, the temple of Selune, and House Moonstar.

Lord Moonstar will seek the help of this adventurer and will recommend the PC for employment to friends. Lord Moonstar will vouch for the PC to the City Watch and assist in obtaining invitations to social events.

This story award also denotes the start of the Major Quest, Restoring Splendor, which will continue in WATE2-2 and end in WATE2-3.

This story award counts as one favor towards the seven needed to join The Heirs of Mirt, a Waterdhavian adventurers' society.

WATE19 Blood-Soaked Ballad

The dragonborn bard Cynda, known as the Blood-Soaked Bard because of her preference for gory songs of heroic battles against worthy foes, has composed a song in this character's honor. In the space below, write the title or a brief description of the song, which should be based on the story of personal valor that this PC told Cynda.

Cynda's song about this PC quickly spreads; as a result, the character's fame grows among the adventuring societies of Faerun. This story award counts as one favor towards the seven needed to join The Heirs of Mirt, a Waterdhavian adventurers' society.