Description

Everybody has that one family member that's kind of goofy, maybe not all that bright, and seems to go out of his way to make mischief, and no one really wants him around. Well, the noble Silver Courage werewolf family has that, too, and that person is Moon Moon.

Moon Moon isn't really mentally challenged, per se, but were the word “Derp” in the dictionary, his picture would be next to it. Moon Moon is the perpetual “blond moment.” or “brain fart.” He does not help the noble image of the werewolf one iota, his goofy behavior ruining that image by listening to rocks or dancing on top of water. And his perpetual excitement over “finding the thing” like a domesticated dog forever makes his packmates facepaw.
