KICKERS

Feel free to steal one of these options for a Scene to Establish. Think about what you want for your character!

Your character and someone else's are caught doing something wildly inappropriate. Who catches you and what's going on?

During a live broadcast, something terrible happens. What is it, and who loses their cool?

Your character and someone else's are drinking and scheming ways to take down Action News Eleven. What do you come up with?

Your character and someone else's have to compete for the same position at the station. Who will get it?
