THE SCORE

IF TODAY WAS YOUR LAST DAY

Mortiston is a medium-sized American city somewhere in the mid-western part of North America. In most ways it's just like every other little American city, there are good people and bad people, but most people are somewhere in between, just trying to get by. The National Weather Service has predicted stormy weather all morning for the Mortiston area. In the morning there was a terrorist firebomb attack at the school. Just before noon the weather broke and tornadoes were sighted in the industrial district north of town. Just after noon a small nuclear explosion destroyed much of the downtown area. By 1:00 PM, there were zombies on the streets. Z-Day has come. The rest of your life is now just for surviving.

NEEDS

TO GET AWAY ...

•	with what you came for before the zombies realize you are here.
•	from a relationship more toxic than zombie spit.
••	from the Sundowners gang before they realize what you have taken.
•••	with the information the boss wants before they realize who you are.
••	with everyone else's supplies.
	from the horde of zombies outside.

TO GET LAID ...

•	by that special someone you never had the courage to approach before.
•	before the zombies kill everyone.
••	for the first time ever.
••	and then get drunk and then get laid again. Party! Woot!
•••	by a zombie because I'm freaky-weird.
: : : :	one last time by an old lover to celebrate the end of the world.

TO GET THE TRUTH ...

•	no matter the cost to everyone else.
•	about the experiments of Dr. Norbert West.
••	and then make sure no else finds out.
••	out of the captured Sundowner about what the gang plans to do.
••	from a loved one about an old family secret.
::	from satellites in orbit by using the satellite dishes at KGON TV.

TO GET RICH ... • . . . by killing Old Man Shrike and taking over the Gas-n-Go. ... by figuring out how to make an effective zombie repellant. ... or at least live that way, by scavenging the houses in the Gaiten District. ... the old-fashioned way, by exploiting the needs of those weaker than you. ... by selling your "friends" off as slaves to the Sundowners gang. ... by helping the Pythons MC infiltrate and take over Fort Robert J. Quinn TO GET RESPECT ... • . . . from everyone in Mortiston, including the faction leaders. ... from the old bikers by killing Meatballs, the "new" president of the Pythons. ... from Fort Robert J. Quinn by luring the Sundowners gang into an ambush. ... as the greatest zombie killer that ever lived. Your name will be legend. ... from your family and friends no matter the cost to you. ... from an old mentor before he/she passes away. TO GET EVEN with those snobs and twerps at Gaiten Academy. ... further away from those crazy cultists than you did the last time you escaped. ... with Andy Bearstalker and the other Black Horse Raiders once and for all. ... more glory in the service of your your dark master who lives below the city. ... with Sheriff Anderson and his deputies for dark deeds done in the past.
