Contents & Description

- 1. Noble Court. This old mausoleum has been converted into the court of the wererats. The king holds court in this chamber when required. At any time there will be 3 Wererats in this room. Fighting will attract the attention of the inhabitants of rooms 2-4.
- 2. Clerical Chamber. This room houses the Wererat High Priest and his acolyte (a Wererat) The high priest has Hold Person, Cause Fear and Protection from Good prepared. He carries a mace +2, and wears a jeweled holy symbol worth 1,500 gp. The vizier and high priest dislike one another and will not come to the other's aid.
- 3. Royal Chamber. This room is home to the King of the Wererats a grizzled and mighty rat who wields a two handed sword +1, +2 against lycanthropes and wears a ring of protection+1 (already included in his AC). He is accompanied by his wife and the prince (2 Wererats) They each wear a crown worth 1,800 gp, 1,400 gp and 1,000 gp respectively, and the king wears a jeweled amulet worth 1,500 gp.
- 4. The Royal Vizier. The king is advised in all matters by his trusted vizier, not a wererat, but a very clever Doppelganger who enters battle as a wererat would (as a bipedal giant rat) with his shield +1. In the vizier's chamber is a scroll rack full of scrolls on arcane subjects, but also including a clerical scroll of Detect Evil, a magic user scroll of Continual Light, Hold Person and Confusion and a treasure map to a location of the DM's choice containing another stash of scrolls (including 3 scrolls of spells).
- 5. Trap. The southern exit / entrance to this room is trapped, forcing those who know about it to travel through the minotaur's lair in area 6. The narrow passageway is partially filled with rubble and more rubble is above. Under the rubble is a pressure plate that removes the support of the rubble above. Each person passing through here has a 2 in 6 chance of triggering the trap, filling the passage with rocks and dealing 3d10 damage to anyone in the passage.

- 6. Minotaur. This cave is home to a powerful Minotaur who wields a massive two handed sword. His horns are decorated with a pair of rubies worth 1,000 gp each.

- 7. Lurking Cavern. 2 Tuatera Lizards lurk in this cave.

- 8. Cave of Treasures. This cave contains the majority of Dulwin the Wymr's treasure. A massive silvery pile of 95,000 sp and 20,000 ep is heaped in the room, holding up a pair of coffers. The coffers are both locked (Dulwin wears the keys) and trapped with poison needles around the lock and a poison dart trap for when the coffer is opened. The coffers each contain 10 pieces of fine jewelry worth roughly 1,000 gp each (some are worth more, others less, but the total is 10,000 gp of jewelry in each coffer). Climbing the pile of coins will make enough noise to alert Dulwin in area 9 unless very specific precautions are taken (such as a silence spell). Every turn spent in this room there is a 1 in 6 chance that Dulwin will come in to check on his treasure.

- 9. The Wymr's Lair. This cavern is home to Dulwin, a Black Dragon who talks and commands the obedience of the local troglodytes. He has the spells Charm Person, Magic Missile, Sleep and Read Languages prepared.

There is a 2 in 6 chance that an unconscious and tied up victim will be here. The doors to the north are locked.
 - 2. Emisariates Cave. 8 Troglodytes are on guard here, watching the entrance from area 5 and making sure no one goes up the stairs here to level 10. This is a highly prized posting from the troglodyte lair, as it affords the chance to be used as emissaries by the dragon.

If you would rather keep the adventure contained to the dungeon provided, make the lake only a few hundred feet across, and these three caves can be the only accesses to it. Of course, no underground sea would be complete without 2 Giant Octopi to attack anyone who ventures out into the water.
