INTRODUCTION

According to some sources, the word thesaurus is synonymous with treasury. That definition is especially fitting for this book, which departs from the typical alphabetical thesaurus with its closely-linked synonyms, and instead provides groups of words for storytellers who are groping for just the right idea. This book is less about technical accuracy and etymology and more about helping authors to craft a setting, envision a character, or unfold a scene.

Every author reaches a point in a writing project (usually at about 66,000 words of a 100,000 word manuscript) at which she'd like to conjure up an out-of-control city bus to careen down a forest path, flatten her group of fantasy heroes, describe their gelatinous remains, and gleefully write the words "The End." This book is for moments like that.

This book is also for those moments when everything sounds like a cliché, when every fantasy story contains a hooded stranger in a tavern, and when all the villains and monsters in all types of fiction suddenly sound like two-dimensional cardboard rip-offs of the mustached bad guys tying young damsels to railroad tracks in black-and-white melodramas. This book is for those moments when nothing appearing on the computer screen sounds any good. This book is about inspiration.

We rarely know where inspiration comes from, so without a roadmap or a clearly defined formula, this book might be the next best thing. It is designed to trigger ideas, to link concepts not normally linked, and to familiarize authors with places and things outside their daily lives. It is also meant to remind us of interesting things we don't think about very often. This book might remind an author of Grandma's rhubarb pie and inspire a character with a passion for rhubarb; it might help an author in a warm climate write about snow; and it might suggest an unusual hobby or phobia that subtly motivates an emerging hero. By using a mix-and-match selection throughout this book, endless combinations are possible for settings and characters, such as the nephew of an archbishop who works as a gymnastics coach, wears suspenders, and collects antique hat pins. This book is designed to offer a multitude of choices to solve a multitude of writing problems.

WHAT MAKES THIS BOOK DIFFERENT

The first thing to notice about this thesaurus is that it is arranged by subject, not alphabet. It is designed by storytellers for storytellers. When trying to picture a rural scene, it isn't helpful to see the entries for forest followed by the entries forget, fork, and formal. It's much more useful to find entries for terrain features, rocks, trees, plants, and weather all in one chapter. While browsing for forest features, other woodland details will become apparent to add depth to the scene.

The next thing to notice is that this book isn't about exact synonyms, but about groups of words that make sense together. Sometimes authors envision a scene but their minds just can't fill in the details. Maybe it's one of those days when we have to fight for every word, or maybe the topic is something that just isn't familiar. Imagine writing a scene about a character who is a seamstress, for example. For anyone who has never taken a sewing class, it's foreign territory. Even for an author with a fairly good working knowledge of sewing, this can be a challenge. What types of fabrics and doodads and implements will surround the seamstress? A visit to the section about clothing construction in Chapter 2 will provide several pages of terms that might be useful in describing the work of our seamstress. In a standard thesaurus, a visit to the word seamstress will likely turn up only similar occupations such as tailor, and offer little in the way of sewing terminology. Thus, this book is designed to offer numerous choices to authors so they can effectively design a character or location.

Another goal of this book is to function as a reverse dictionary. Perhaps an author just can't recall a particular word and doesn't know where to start in a standard dictionary. By turning to the section on Garment Pieces, for example, he might be nudged into recalling that the name of the odd stand-up collar popular on jackets during the 1970s was the Nehru collar. Likewise, he might wonder what a French cuff looks like and research it to discover that it is the type of cuff that requires cuff links—just the thing for the spoiled dilettante he is creating.

— INTRODUCTION

THE STORYTELLER'S RESPONSIBILITY: RESEARCH

Like any treasury, some things will be familiar and some will not. For unfamiliar items, research is essential in order to incorporate new objects and ideas correctly. A fiction story from a slush pile many years ago comes to mind that illustrates the pitfalls of research. This story was filled with details of a Persian setting, and the author did a nice job of establishing the flavor of the environment. But the scene fell apart when a character took a bite from a pomegranate. The author had researched his setting well enough to understand that pomegranates were native to the region he was describing, but he had not gone far enough to understand that no one would take a bite from a pomegranate. The leathery skin and thick pith surrounding the juicy, edible seeds would make that almost impossible, not to mention messy. (This was in the days before the internet and before the pomegranate health-food craze.) Authors owe it to their work to make their word choices carefully and select words that fit well.

Research goes beyond understanding what an item looks like, feels like, and tastes like. It also means researching the way an item fits into society, the time period, and the geography. It means being mindful of a number of circumstances.

SOCIETY: We all know that social norms dictate a great deal about language, dress, manners, and customs. When considering unfamiliar terms, bear in mind that different occasions require different conventions, and some words vary in acceptability in different regions or countries. The word fanny, for example, is acceptable in polite company in the United States, but in parts of England, it refers not to the back of a girl, but the front of a girl, and its mention in certain situations may raise eyebrows. A few extra minutes of research can help avoid such stickiness.

TIME PERIODS: Characters in the late 1970s did not spend an evening at home with a movie rental (video stores did not exist yet), and doctors treating patients sick with the plague in the middle ages did not wash their hands (the communication of diseases was not understood). All kinds of styles and fads come and go, and in order to be authentic, authors need to immerse themselves in their time periods. Likewise, language changes over time as phrases gain and lose popularity, and can effectively enhance a setting or show a reader that the author has not done his homework.

GEOGRAPHY AND CLIMATE: We all know that trees don't grow in Antarctica, and most people probably know that palm trees don't grow in Wisconsin. But it's less obvious that very few azalea bushes grow in Wisconsin, armadillos do not live in Minnesota, and grass lawns are not the norm in Arizona. Likewise, the peaks of the Rocky Mountains are not covered in trees due to the high altitude. Some research is needed to put things in their proper places and make a setting realistic. And while it might be tempting to fill a garden scene with crocuses, clematis, and chrysanthemums, it will show that the author didn't do her research. Crocuses bloom in early spring, clematis blooms in summer, and chrysanthemums bloom in autumn. Even in a fantasy setting, readers expect a certain consistency that makes sense.

FORM AND FUNCTION: Just like the pomegranate example, it's important to understand concepts that are unfamiliar. An author who selects a halberd as a character's weapon first needs to realize that a halberd is a broad blade on a long pole. The author had better not write about a character slipping a halberd into his boot, and such a weapon will influence the character's fighting style. Because a halberd is difficult to conceal, it may pose problems in tight quarters or draw attention. Authors need to consider the long-term big picture when selecting armor, weapons, equipment, occupations, character traits, and so on.

NUANCE OF LANGUAGE: Because the categories in this book are broad, many words listed for a category are not exact synonyms and are instead cousins, stepchildren, or friends of the family of those words. The entry for easy, for example, contains the words painless and tranquil. A chemistry exam might be described as painless or a fisherman's mood might be described as tranquil, but the words are not interchangeable. It's important for authors to understand the words they choose and ensure that they convey the proper intent.

WHAT THIS BOOK DOES NOT CONTAIN

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY: Storytellers must always be mindful of the property of other storytellers. Writing about a school of magic might be okay, but it's not okay to use terms from movies, television, fiction, or other copyrighted sources. Those concepts are owned by their authors, publishers, producers, and movie studios. In this thesaurus, every effort was made to omit ideas that are intellectual property; to do otherwise could give the impression that use of those ideas is freely accessible.

INTRODUCTION —

Public domain material, however, is incorporated throughout this book. Public domain works are those publications whose copyrights have expired (or never existed), making them fair game for storytellers. The concept of a basilisk, for example, originates in classical mythology; it is not owned by anyone and it is free to use. In general, works printed in the United States prior to 1923 are considered public domain, but for works more recent than 1923, the rules vary greatly. Copyright law varies from country to country as well, and exceptions do exist, so careful research is recommended before incorporating material that might be under copyright.

CURSE WORDS AND INAPPROPRIATE LANGUAGE: Vulgarities and curse words are not included in this thesaurus. Such words should be chosen carefully and with purpose, and they were not included in this book so as not to give the illusion of an endorsement.

Likewise, gender and racial slurs are also omitted. These words need to be selected with a purpose in mind and with consideration of the time period in which they are used. Such terms should be incorporated only after serious and thoughtful deliberation, and should serve a purpose, make social commentary, or illustrate certain traits about a character.

A WHISPER OF ENCOURAGEMENT

As storytellers, we face many pitfalls—writer’s block, stale prose, clichés, cardboard characters, repetition, and our own personal writing flaws. Our hope is that during those times when the muses of legend are not whispering brilliant prose into our ears, this book will serve as a dependable substitute for those fickle muses. We hope it provides inspiration and motivation in order to reduce the storyteller’s perspiration.

TYPE: bushy, coarse, curly, damaged, dry, dull, fine, kinky, oily, shiny, smooth, split ends, straight, thick, thin, wavy, wild, wispy

SPECIES

USAGE NOTE: All humans belong to the same species. Dwarves, elves, gnomes, giants, and others would be considered separate species in most settings. Dwarves, elves, gnomes, and certain others are commonly considered to be on equal footing with humans as far as characteristics and abilities.

The term humanoid does not describe a single species, but describes creatures with humanlike shape but which exhibit certain degrees of animalistic or untamed qualities in physical characteristics, intelligence, or other attributes. Each type of humanoid may be an individual species depending upon the setting.

Authors must determine the parameters of each species in their setting, the evolutionary relationships between the species, and any subspecies.

DWARF: cave, cavern, hill, dark, duergar, mountain, shadow

ELF: aquatic, arboreal, dark, desert, gray, forest, half, high, jungle, primitive, shadow, star, tree, wild, wood

GNOME: forest, hill, jungle, lost, meadow, mountain, river, vale

HUMAN RACES, FICTIONAL: Abarimon, Abatwa, Atlantean, Blemmyes, changeling, Cyclops, Leprechaun, Mermaid/Merfolk, Nephilim, Selkie, Tellem

CHAPTER 1 —

HUMANLIKE GROUPS: giant (cloud, fire, frost, hill, mountain, sky, stone, storm), goblin, hobgoblin, orc, ogre, merfolk, rakshasa, troll

HUMAN GROUPS

USAGE NOTE: At one time, humans were described in terms of three races: black (Negroid), yellow (Mongoloid), and white (Caucasoid). This classification was replaced by narrower categories comprising Black (Sub-Saharan Africa), Brown (South Asians), Red (Native American), Yellow (East Asian), and White (European). In modern times, however, DNA studies have revealed no scientific racial distinctions among humans, and the term “race” is becoming obsolete. Scientists no longer divide the human species into races since no clear biological borders exist between groups. Current trends divide humans based upon ethnicity or populations, and ethnic groups are often subdivided by nationality, tribe, or location.

Authors need to be diligent about research in describing human groups and should take care to use terminology that is correct in historical contexts. Hundreds of ethnic groups have been documented; this number increases exponentially when mixed-ethnicity individuals are included. The list that follows is a sampling of some of the more prominent groups.

CHAPTER 7: COMBAT, ARMOR, AND WEAPONS

This chapter details many forms of combat, armor, and weapons from a variety of cultures and across many centuries. A few notes are in order to help guide users through this section.

HISTORICAL CONTEXT: In any writing, research is needed to select proper weapons and armor for the time period and culture. In the sections that follow, weapons and armor are divided into Pre-1900 and Post-1900 lists. This helps to divide objects into approximate modern and antique categories.

RESOURCES: In fiction, some liberties may be taken with armor and weapons as long as those liberties are plausible. The invention of entirely new weapons is reasonable depending upon available resources. Consider the climate and setting when inventing objects. In a desert setting in which trees are scarce, such as ancient Egypt, weapons are likely to be made of metal or stone rather than wood. In an arctic climate, inhabitants are not likely to have access to metal deposits, so bone tools and weapons might be common.

TECHNOLOGY LEVEL: Weapons and armor changed dramatically over time depending upon technological advances. The earliest weapons were rocks and sticks. Weapons then evolved as sticks were sharpened and hardened in fire, and stones were chipped or split to form axes and arrow points.

A culture's technology level will impact its objects. Even in the presence of great iron, copper, or other metal deposits, a culture will need the means to excavate those metals and work them into tools and weapons. This implies some level of competence in smelting, smithing, and forging.

COMBAT VOCABULARY

GENERAL: absent without leave, adversaries, ambush, armistice, assail, assault, army, atrocities, AWOL, attack, battalion, battle, beachhead, beset, blitz, blitzkrieg, blockade, bluff, bombard, bombardier, bombardment, breakout, calculated risk, campaign, capitulate, casualty, ceasefire, charge, civilian, Civil War, clash, collateral damage, column, combat, combined arms maneuver, conflict, confrontation, conquest, cordon, cover, cover fire, cower, crusade, damage, defeat, defend, defense, defense in depth, deserter, desertion, deterrence, dispute, enchant, encircle, enfilade, engulf, enmesh, ensnare, entrap, envelop, eradicate, espionage, ethnic cleansing, explosion, exterminate, extraction, extricate, fire (cover, masking), flank, fog of war, foothold, foray, fortification, fracas, fray, genocide, give ground, goal (operational, strategic, tactical), guard, harass, holy war, incursion, impasse, infiltration, inquisition, insertion, insurgency, invasion, invade, invader, jihad, joint operations, joist, lightning strike, line of defense, logistics, looting, melee, MIA, military-industrial complex, missing in action, mutiny, no-fly zone, neutralize, objective, occupation, offense (air, ground, naval), offensive, onslaught, operation, oppose, overthrow, overwhelm, peace keeping force, penetration, picket, pillage, pillaging, pinned down, plunder, police action, post traumatic stress, POW, pre-dawn, preemptive strike, prisoner, prisoner of war, prone, pursue, raid, ranged combat, ransack, rebellion, recoil, resistance, retreat, retreat in force, revolt, revolution, rout, sabotage, salvo, saturation bombing, security, seize, sharpshooter, skirmish, slash and burn, sniper, sniping, sortie, spy, spying, squad, squadron, stalemate, stalk, strategic offensive, submit, surprise attack, strike, surgical strike, superiority (air, ground, naval), supremacy, support (air, ground, naval), surrender, surround, surprise, surveillance, tactics, target, targeting, terrain warfare (air, arctic, desert, house-to-house, jungle, littoral, naval, trench, urban), theater of war, trap, treaty, troop, truce, upheaval, uprising, volley fire, war (asymmetric, biological, chemical, guerrilla, mountain, nuclear, space, unconventional), war council, warfare, war of attrition, war tribunal, waylay, weapons of mass destruction, withdraw, withdrawal, yield

46 THE STORYTELLER'S THESAURUS

COMBAT, ARMOUR, AND WEAPONS

FENCING

EQUIPMENT: bayonet, blade (forte, middle, foible), broadsword, button, épée, fencing jacket, fencing vest, foil (anatomical, French, Italian), French grip, guard, glove (cotton, fencing, leather), hilt, lamé, Italian grip, maraging (steel), marker points, martingale, mask (foil, saber, three-weapon), pistol grip, plastron, pommel, rapier, saber, small sword, three-prong, two-prong, whites (clothing)

VOCABULARY: absence of blade, advance, arm position (high, inside, low, outside), assault, attack, balestra, beat, bind, bout, bouting, broken time, change of engagement, compound, concentration, contre-temp, contre de quarte, contre de sixte, coule, counter parry, counterattack, coupe, cross, cut, deception, direct attack, disengage, displacement, double attack, engage, engagement, en garde, envelopement, false attack, feint, fencing strip, fleche, flick, footwork, glide, grip (left-handed, right-handed), guard position, interception, invitation, lateral parry, line, low line attack, low line counterattack, low line parry, lunge, match, measure, muscle memory, on guard, opposition, out of distance, parry (prime, seconde, tierce, quatre, quinte, sixte, septime, octave), pass, passé, piste, plaqué, point, point in line, preparation, presentation, press, recovery, redoublement, remise, reprised attack, retreat, right-of-way, riposte, running attack, saber cut, saber parry, saber thrust, salle, salute, stop thrust, sword arm, sword fighting, sword hand, taking the blade, thrust, timed thrust, timing, touch, touché, USFA-sanctioned

PRE-1900 GEAR AND WEAPONS

ARMOR

HEAD GEAR: bacinet, benin, casquetel, chainmail coif, leather cap, leather coif, great helm, helm, helmet, kettle hat, plume, war bonnet, war hat

ARMOR PIECES: bracer, breastplate, bullet-proof vest, cuirass, doublet, gauntlet, gorget, greave, hauberk, lance rest, leather coat, loin guard, mail hauberk, mail shirt, pauldron, plate harness, rondel, vambrace

ARMOR TYPES: banded mail, boiled leather, brigandine, chain mail, coat of plates, cuir bouillie, ensemble Greek, ensemble Roman, full chain suit, full plate, hide, laminar leather, leather, padded, plate mail, Polish Hussar, ring mail, scale mail, splint mail, studded leather

HORSE BARDING MATERIALS: chain mail, leather, padded, plate, scale, studded leather

HORSE BARDING PIECES: chanfron, crinet, crupper, cuello, flanchard, poutrel

SHIELDS

TYPES: buckler, figure-eight, flatiron, heater, kite, large, oval, pavis, rectangular, round, scalloped, small, spiked buckler, square, steel, targ, tower, triangular, wooden

WEAPONS

AKLYS: The aklys deserves special mention; it is identified as a Roman javelin, small club, dart, throwing stick, or boomerang depending upon the origin of the item.

AXES: adze, axe-knife, bardiche, battleaxe, bearded, Bhuj, billibong, broad, Dane, double-headed, English long, francisca, gandas, hand, hatchet, head, hurlbat, masakari, miner's, ono, pick, piercing, pole, shepherd's, sparth, stone, tabarzin, throwing, tomahawk, two-handed, Viking USAGE NOTE: Some axes are designed primarily as tools but are effective when wielded as weapons. Certain other axes are designed for combat; a number of these are engineered to be thrown rather than swung. Consider the style of axe and its potential use in combat, especially when choosing a primary weapon for a fictional character.

CHAPTER 7 —

BLACK POWDER: arquebus, blunderbuss, breechloader, brown Bess rifle, cannon, coach gun, dueling pistol, flintlock, fowling pistol, grenade, hunt gun, Kentucky long rifle, musket, pistol, wall gun, wheel lock

USAGE NOTE: Black powder firearms require gunpowder technology.

BLUDGEONS: ball and chain, baton, baton Francais, belaying pin, bō, cambuk, chui, club, clubbing boomerang, cudgel, eku, eskrima stick, flail, gurz, hammer, hanbō, holy water sprinkler, jo, jutte, kanabō, knob-kierrie, kurunthadi, la canne, lathi, Lucerne hammer, macana, mace, maul, mere, morning star, nightstick, nunchaku, ōtsuchi, patu, plançon a picot, quarterstaff, rod, roundhead, rungu, sam jeet kwun, sap, scepter, shareeravadi, shepherd's crook, shillelagh, spiked club, spiked mace, staff, taiaha, tambo, three-section staff, tonfa, truncheon, two-handed hammer, waddy, war hammer, yawara

CANNON: artillery, autocannon, basilisk, breechloader, bombard, culverin, demi-cannon, demi-culvern, falconet, field artillery, field gun, hand cannon, handgun, minion, howitzer, mortar, muzzle loader, organ gun, saker

CHAIN: chigiriki, double-ended flail, flying claws, meteor hammer, slungshot

USAGE NOTE: A slungshot is not to be confused with a slingshot. The slungshot is a long cord with a weight or monkey's paw attached to one end. Its purpose is to cast a line from one place to another, especially a mooring line.

DAGGERS AND KNIVES: athame, baupmet, blade, Bowie knife, Celtic, chilanium, cinquedeas, cleaver, deer horn, dirk, glaive, haladie, katara, kidney, knife, kris knife, leaf-shaped, left-hand dagger, main gauche, obsidian, parrying, poniard, stiletto, switchblade, throwing knife

USAGE NOTE: Daggers and knives are discerned by their sharpened edges. A knife traditionally has one sharpened edge, whereas a dagger typically has both edges sharpened.

FLEXIBLE: bullwhip, cat o' nine tails, chain whip, crop, garrote, knout, lasso, meteor hammer, net, rope dart, small whip, whip

HAND WEAPONS: bakh-nakh, bayonet, bich'hwa, brass knuckles, buckhorn parrying stick, cestus, fist, gaff, gauntlet, hora, Korean fan, Larim wrist knife, Roman scissor, sap, scourge, spiked gauntlet, tessen, war fan

IMPROVISED WEAPONS: aerosol can, bar stool, baseball bat, brick, broom, butcher knife, chair, dinner fork, dirt, fireplace poker, flower pot, frying pan, garden shovel, golf club, hot beverage, iron, ironing board, lead pipe, log, nail gun, pitcher, pool balls, pool cue, power tool, rake, riding crop, rocks, sand, sledgehammer, snow shovel, soda bottle, steak knife, tire iron, trash can lid, vase, wine bottle

MAN-TRAPS: catch-pole, man-catcher

MISSILE: arbalest, atlatl, blow gun, blow pipe, bola, bow (composite, English, horse, long, short), boomerang, chakram, chu ko nu, crossbow (bullet, English bullet, German stone, pistol, repeating), dart, hand crossbow, harpoon, hoeroa bone, javelin, pilum, throwing blade, sling, spear thrower, staff sling, throwing hatchet, shuriken, throwing star

USAGE NOTE: A number of other weapons can become missile weapons when thrown, such as axes, blades, improvised, and pole weapons.

MISSILE LOADS: acelis, arrow, bolt, bullet, cannon ball, canister shot, crossbow bolt, quarrel, rock, sling stone, stone, war dart

RELATED: arrowhead, bowstring, case, fletching, pouch, quiver

48 THE STORYTELLER'S THESAURUS

COMBAT, ARMOUR, AND WEAPONS

POINTED WEAPONS: bungee stick, caltrop, horseman's pick, pick, pike, spike

POLE WEAPONS: atgeir, bardiche, bec de corbin, bill-guisarme, billhook, boarding pike, chauves souris, crowbill, fauchard, fauchard-fork, flamberge, fork, glaive, glaive-guisarme, guisarme, guisarme-voulge, halberd, hammer, half moon, hook-fauchard, lance (footman's, horseman's, jousting), leading staff, Lucerne hammer, mail piercer, naginata, partisan, pick, poleaxe, voulge

SIEGE EQUIPMENT: battering ram, boiling oil, boiling water, boulder, catapult load, field artillery, fire pot, flaming catapult load, grenade, Greek fire, hot pitch, ladder, petard, sea fire, siphon

SIEGE ENGINES: ballista, bolt thrower, bombard, cannon, catapult, corvus, espringal, fire archer, fire lance barrel, fire ship, gastrophetes, mangonel, mons meg, onager, scorpion, siege crossbow, siege tower, sulfur thrower, tortoise, trebuchet

USAGE NOTE: Siege weapons require trained crew to haul, position, and fire the weapon.

RELATED, CREW: artilleryist, gun crew, siege crew, weapon master

SPEARS: ahlspiess, assegai, awl pike, bear, boar, brandistock, dangpa-chang, dory, feather staff, half pike, harpoon, hasta, hoko yari, jukjangchangbo, lance, menaulion, military fork, pike, ranseur, saintie, sarissa, sibat, spetum, spontoon, swordstaff, trident, trishula, winged, wolf, yari

SWORDS, ONE-HANDED: aikuchi, arming, back, barong, baselard, basket-hilted, bastard, bilbo, broad, Caucasian shashka, chokutō, cinquedeia, colichemarde, Cossack shashka, claymore, cutlass, dao, dha, dussack, épée, espada ropera, estoc, falchion, firangi, flyssa, foil, gladius, heavy cavalry blade, hook, hunting, hwandudaedo, ida, jian, kampilan, karabela, kaskara, katar, katzbalger, khanda, khopesh, kilij, klewang, kodachi, krabi, kukri, liuyedao, long, machete, malibar, mameluke, messer, misericorde, nimcha, nine ring, ninjato, piandao, pulwar, pinuti, quama, rapier, saber, samurai, schweitersäbel, scimitar, shamshir, shikomizue, short, sica, sickle-sword, side, small, spadron, spadron, spatha, sword cane, sword stick, szabla, takoba, talwar, voulge, wakizashi, xiphos, yanmaodao

SWORDS, TWO-HANDED: assamese dao, boar sword, changdao, claymore, dadao, dōtanuki, espadon, executioner's, flame-bladed, great, hand-and-a-half, heading, highland, katana, lowland, miao dao, nandao, panabas, tachi, uchigatana, zweihänder

USAGE NOTE: Two-handed swords are distinguished by several characteristics. They can measure up to 6 feet long and may weigh 4 to 7 pounds, with ceremonial blades weighing as much as 16 pounds. Their hilts are long enough for two large, gloved hands to grip, and the quillons (crossguard) are enlarged. Two-handed swords were typically carried not in a sheath, but strapped across the back or shoulders. One of their uses was to break an enemy's pike or pole arm before assaulting the wielder.

USAGE NOTE: A flame-bladed sword or flambard is not on fire; rather, it refers to a blade that is wavy or undulating. Historically, they are true two-handed swords.

TOOLS: hay fork, hammer, hoe, machete, pitch fork, rake, scythe, sickle, sledgehammer, trident

POST-1900 GEAR AND WEAPONS

USAGE NOTE: This book avoids the use of brand names. In the case of weapons, however, the listing of brand names allows for a sampling of various weapons. No product endorsement is implied. Readers are advised to observe correct copyright and intellectual property treatment.

BODY ARMOR: ballistic face mask, barrier vest, bomb suit, bullet proof vest, bullet resistant face mask, bullet resistant vest, chicken plates (silicon carbide), dragon skin, Kevlar vest, modular tactical vest, outer tactical vest, PASGT helmet, PASGT vest, quilted nylon vest, ranger body armor

SHIELDS: ballistic, bullet resistant, riot, tactical

FIELD EQUIPMENT: flame thrower, land mine

CHAPTER 7 — WEAPONS

SPECIAL WEAPONS AND TACTICS

SWAT EQUIPMENT: armored vehicle, ballistic shield, bean bag munitions, entry tools, grenade (flash bang, stinger, stun, tear gas), heavy body armor, K9 unit, motion detector, night vision optics, pepper spray, riot control agent

SWAT WEAPONS: assault rifle, carbine (Colt CAR-15, Heckler & Koch G36, HK416, M4), pepperball pistol, semi-automatic pistol (Beretta 92, Glock, H&K, M1911, Sig Sauer), shotgun (Benelli M1, Benelli M4, Mossberg 500, Remington 870), sniper rifle (M14, Remington 700P), submachine gun (Heckler & Koch MP5, Heckler & Koch UMP), taser

HANDGUNS/PISTOLS

USAGE NOTE: The historical definition of a pistol is a gun that can be held in the hand. The category has shifted in modern times and is currently considered a semi-automatic handgun. According to traditional usage, a dueling pistol, two-shot derringer, and a revolver could all correctly be called pistols. The choice of terminology will depend upon the time period of the setting.

DERRINGER: ladies' gun, muff pistol, Philadelphia Deringer, purse gun, stocking gun

USAGE NOTE: Derringers hold one to four bullets depending upon the model. The spelling of Deringer with one "r" is a brand name produced from 1852 to 1868. The spelling derringer is genericized and was adopted by competitors; currently, it refers to small-scale handguns.

PISTOL, SEMIAUTOMATIC: Arcus 98DA, Armalite AR-25, Auto-ordnance 1911A1, Les Baer H.C. 40, Beretta 92FS Type M9A1, Beretta 21 bobcat, Ed Brown Classic custom, Browning Buck Mark Standard URX, Browning Buck Mark Camper, Colt New Agent Series, C 75 Series, EAA Witness Steel, EAA Witness Elite Gold, FN Five-Seven USG, Glock 17, HK Mark 23, KAHR K9, Let-Tec PF9, Kimber Crimson Carry, MRI Desert Eagle Series, Nighthawk Custom 10-8 Dominator, North American Arms Guardian, Olympic Arms Cohort, Para PXT 1911, Remington 1911 R1, Ruger Mark III, Ruger LCP, Shooters Arms Military Pistol, Sig Sauer P250, Smith & Wesson, Springfield 1911A-1, STI Spartan Lawman, Stoeger Cougar 8000, Taurus 738 TCP, Walther P22, Walther PPS, Dan Wesson Bobtail, Wilson Comp, Wilson Professional, Wilson Protector, Wilson Sentinel, Wilson Tactical Elite

PISTOL, SINGLE SHOT: Thompson Center Encore, Thompson Center G2 Contender, Thompson Pro Hunter

REVOLVERS

USAGE NOTE: All revolvers are pistols, but not all pistols are revolvers. A revolver has a rotating cylinder into which bullets are loaded, one at a time. Handguns that use a magazine or in which bullets are breech loaded are not revolvers.

SINGLE ACTION: Beretta Stampede, Charter Arms Dixie Derringer, Cimarron Bisley SAA, Cimarron Lightning, Colt Single Action Army, Colt SAA Frontier Six Shooter, EAA Bounty Hunter, EMF 1873 Great Western Series, EMF 1875 Remington, Freedom Arms Model 83, Heritage Rough Rider Smallbore, Heritage Rough rider Large Bore, MRI BFR, Navy Arms 1873, Ruger New Bearcat, Ruger New Model Blackhawk Bisley, Ruger New Vaquero, STI Texican, Taylor's & CO. 1873, Taylor's & CO. 1873 Cattleman Bird's Head, Uberti Model 1873 Buntline, Uberti Top-Break Schofield, U.S. Fire Arms Bisley, U.S. Fire Arms Gunslinger, U.S. Fire Arms .22 Plinker, U.S. Fire Arms Rodeo, U.S. Fire Arms Double Eagle

WATER TRANSPORTATION

WATER TERMS: anchorage, apparent wind, aquatic, arroyo, bay, bayou, bog, breaker, breakwall, brook, canal, cay, channel, chop, coast, coral reef, cove, creek, current, dock, ebb tide, everglade, fen, fenland, fjord, fog, gulf, harbor, haven, inland waterway, inlet, jet stream, jetty, lock, marina, maritime, marsh, marshland, ocean, oceanic, pier, port, port-of-call, quagmire, quay, reef, rip tide, river, riverbank, riverside, rivulet, sandbar, sea, seashore, seaside, shoal, shore, shoreline, slip, sound, stream, squall, surf, swamp, swell, tide, trade wind, tributary, true wind, undercurrent, watercourse, water spout, waterfront, waterway, wave, way-point, westerly, wetland, wharf, whitecap

WATERCRAFT, HUMAN-POWERED: boat, canoe, craft, dinghy, gondola, inflatable raft, kayak, life boat, life raft, longship, outrigger, paddle boat, punt, raft, rowboat, rubber raft, sailboard, sea kayak, skiff, surfboard

TRANSPORTATION

WATERCRAFT, SMALL: airfoil, bareboat, bathysphere, boat, catamaran, catboat, cigarette, corvette, craft, cutter, dinghy, ferry, fire boat, fishing, glass bottom, houseboat, iceboat, keelboat, ketch, passenger liner, picnic boat, pontoon boat, sailboat, ship, shrimp boat, skiff, speed, swamp boat, tramaran, vessel, water bus, yacht water craft, water taxi, yacht, yawl

WATERCRAFT, LARGE: cargo, carrack, coal boat, clipper, cog, cruise liner, cruise ship, cutter, gambling, galleon, galley, junk, liner, merchantman, ocean liner, paddlewheel, pirate ship, schooner, showboat, slave ship, sloop, tanker

USAGE NOTE: The distinction between small and large watercraft is relative. A ferry, for example, might range from a raft designed to carry a few passengers to a double-deck affair capable of holding dozens of cars. The lists above are sorted based on general conception and common sense. The sizes of individual boats and ships will vary widely.

BOAT/SHIP ANATOMY: anchor, anchor chain, astrolabe, ballast, barometer, belaying pin, bell, bilge, binnacle, block, boathook, boom, bosun's chair, bowsprit, bridge, bucket, bulkhead, bunk, buoy, cable, cabin, capstan, centerboard, chart, chain locker, cleat, cockpit, companionway, compass, course sail, crane, crew, crow's nest, deck, figurehead, flagstaff, float coat, fog horn, forecastle, foremast, foresail, galley, global positioning system, grapnel, GPS, gunwale, halyard, hammock, hatch, head, helm, helmsman, hold, holystone, horn, hull, jib, keel, ladder, life jacket, life line, line, locker, log, knot, mainsail, map, mast, mizzen, mizzen mast, moonraker, mooring, oar, oarlock, personal floatation device, piling, prop, poop deck, pulley, quarterdeck, rail, railing, rig, rigging, rope, royal sail, rudder, sail, sextant, sheet, shroud, skysail, spar, spinnaker, standing rigging, stern castle, tack, tackle, tiller, topgallant, topsail, yard, wardroom, weather gauge, wheel, winch

BOAT/SHIP TERMINOLOGY: abeam, adrift, aft, aground, astern, beam, bearing, bearing away, buoyancy, bow, capsize, cardinal points, careen, casting off, close-hauled, Coast Guard, compass course, course, course-plotting, dead reckoning, deviation, downwind, draft, drifting, drop anchor, ebb, ebb tide, embark, fathom, floating, fully battened sails, harbor patrol, heavy air, hoist, hoisting sail, in harm's way, jibe, jibing, jury-rig, keelhaul, keeling, latitude, launch, leeward, leeway, longitude, luff, magnetic (east, north, south, west), mooring-under-sail, navigation, no-sail-zone, outgoing tide, overboard, port, port tack, ramming speed, reefing, regatta, sail zone, seasick, seaworthy, starboard, steer, steering, St. Elmo's fire, stern, swamping, tacking, to windward, towing, underway, wake, weigh anchor

SAILING KNOTS: anchor bend, backup knot, bowline, buntline, butterfly, carrack bend, cleat hitch, clove hitch, constrictor, cow hitch, defined, double fisherman's, figure eight, fisherman's bend, girth hitch, granny, half hitch, heaving line, mooring hitch, monkey's fist, monkey's paw, pile hitch, Prusik, reef, rolling hitch, running bowline, sheepshank, sheet bend, slip knot, slipped buntline, stopper knot, square knot, tautline hitch, Turk's head, trucker's hitch, two half hitches, water knot, whistle knot

CHAPTER 10: GEOLOGY, GEOGRAPHY, METEOROLOGY, AND BOTANY

GEOLOGY

CAVE ANATOMY: active cave, anthodite, aragonite, arch, bedrock, blind valley, block, boulder choke, box-work, breccias, calcite, cave coral, cave pearls, cave pool, cave system, chamber, chimney, choke, cleft, clint, cobble, column, crust, crystal, crystal pool, current marking, curtain, dark zone, daylight hole, dead cave, decoration, diagenesis, dike, dip, dome, dormant cave, drapery, dripline, dripstone, duck-under, escarpment, false floor, fault, fault cave, fissure, fissure cave, flattener, flowstone, formation, fossil, foul air, frostwork, glacial cave, gour, grade, gravel, grike, grot-hole, grotto, ground-trog, groundwater, gypsum, gypsum flower, half blind valley, hall, ice cave, inflow cave, joint, karren, keyhole, labyrinth, lava cave, ledge, leg, limestone, limestone cave, live cave, marble, maze, moonmilk, natural arch, natural bridge, outflow cave, overhang, passage, pebble, pendant, percolation, permeable, phosphorescence, phreatic development, pillar, pipe, pisolite, pit, pitch, plunge pool, pothole, rift, rill, rimstone, rimstone dam, rock pile, rock shelter, roof crust, rootsicle, sand, saturated, sea cave, sediment, seepage water, shaft, shawl, shield, silt, sinkhole, siphon, soda straw, solution flute, speleotherm, splash cup, sponge-work, spring, squeeze, stalactite, stalagmite, straw, stream sink, streambed, strike, sump, supersaturated, swirl hole, terrace, through cave, towerkarst, trap, tube, tufa, tunnel, vadose development, walk-through, water sink, weathering, wet cave, window

GEOLOGIC CONCEPTS: law of superposition, principle of original horizontality, principle of lateral continuity, ordering rock strata, volcanism, uniformitarianism, plate tectonic theory, principle of intrusive relationships, principle of cross-cutting relationships, principle of inclusions and components, principle of superposition, principle of faunal succession

GEOLOGIC FIELDS OF STUDY: biogeochemistry, biostratigraphy, chronostratigraphy, dendrochronology, earth science, economic geology, engineering geology, environmental geology, geoarchaeology, geochemistry, geochronology, geodetics, geological modeling, metallurgy, geomicrobiology, geomorphology, geomorphology, geophysics, geotechnical engineering, glaciology, historical geology, hydrogeology, isotope geochemistry, isotope geology, lithostratigraphy, marine geology, metamorphic petrology, micropaleontology, mineralogy, mining geology, paleoclimatology, paleontology, pedology, petro physics, petroleum geology, petrology, planetary geology, plate tectonics, sedimentology, seismology, soil mechanics, soil science, speleology, stratigraphy, structural geology, volcanology

GEOLOGICAL NATURAL HAZARDS: aftershock, avalanche, avulsion, cave-in, cliff, earthquake, falling stalactite, flood, foreshock, geyser eruption, jutting stalactite, landslide, lava, liquefaction, loose rock, mudslide, quicksand, river channel migration, rock fall, sinkhole, slippery rock, tides, tsunami, confusing cave passage, volcanic eruption, waterfall

GEOLOGICAL VOCABULARY: absolute dating, abyssal plain, accretion, aftershock, alkaline, allochthonous, alluvial fan, alluvium, angular unconformity, anticline, aquifer, aragonite sea, archaean eon, archipelago, asphalt, asthenosphere, autochthonous, banded iron formation, basement rock, basin, basin and range province, batholith, bedrock, bioerosion, biostratigraphy, biostratigraphy, bioturbation, boudin, Bowen's reaction series, brackish, buckling, calcareous, calcite sea, caldera, carbon film, carbonate, carbonate hardgrounds, casting, cenozoic era, clast, cleavage, coccolith, coccolithophore, compaction, compression, concretion, conglomerate, continental crust, continental margin, continental shelf, convergent boundary, copal, coprolite, core, craton, cross-bedding, crude oil, crust, daughter product, delta, dendrite, deposition, detachment fault, diagenesis, diapir, dike, dip slope, disconformity, divergent plate boundary, drill core, drumlin, earthquake, eon, epicenter, epoch, erosion, erratic, escarpment, esker, estuary, evaporate, exfoliation, extension, extrusive, fanning, fault, fault zone, felsic, ferromagnesian mineral, fold, fold buckling, foliation, fossil, fracture, freezing, gastrolith, geode, geologic map, glass, Gondwanaland, half-life, hinge, hinge line, hot spring, hydrothermal vent, hypersaline, ichnology, igneous rock, interbedded, intrusion, island arc, isotope, joint, kame, karst, kettle, kink, kink band, klastos, lava, liquefaction, loess, lowland, mafic, magma, mantle, marine terrace, mélange, metamorphic rock, metamorphism, micropaleontology, mid-oceanic ridge, mineral, mineralization, Mohs scale of hardness, molding, moraine, mullion, normal fault, oolitic, orogenesis, Pangea, pelite, plate tectonics, plumose, porphyry, psammite, quaternary, reverse fault, rock, sediment trap, sedimentary rock, shear zone, slickenside, soil liquefaction, stylonite, Tethys ocean, upheaval, urchin, Urganian, Variscan orogeny, vein, verging, vitritine, vug, wiggle trace, x-ray diffraction, x-ray fluorescence, Young's modulus, zeolite

CHAPTER 10 —

GEOLOGICAL FIELD WORK METHODS: biogeochemistry, electrical resistivity tomography, geological mapping, geomicrobiology, glaciology, ground-penetrating radar, groundwater detection, high-resolution stratigraphy, hydrocarbon exploration, paleontology, sample collection, shallow seismic surveys, stratigraphic mapping, structural mapping, surficial mapping, surveying of topographic features

ROCKS AND MINERALS

GEOLOGY, GEOGRAPHY, METEOROLOGY, AND BOTANY

GEOGRAPHY

GENERAL VOCABULARY: absolute humidity, absolute location, accessibility, acid rain, aerosol, air mass, altitude, atmosphere, biological diversity, biosphere, biota, boundary, carrying capacity, cartographer, central business district, climate, climax vegetation, continent, continental climate, continental divide, continentality, contour lines, conurbation, core area, crop-lien system, crust, cryosphere, culture, culture hearth, de facto segregation, de jure segregation, degree, degree day, demography, dry farming, economy of agglomeration, economy of scale, elevation, emergent coastline, enclave, equator, evapotranspiration, extended family, exurb, fall line, fallow, fault, fault, fault zone, fault-block mountain, federation, focality, functional diversity, geomorphology, geosphere, ghetto, glacial till, glaciation, glacier, globe, great circle route, grid, growing season, harmonic tremor, hazardous waste, hearth, heavy industry, hemisphere, hinterland, horizon, hot spot, humus, hydroponics, hydrosphere, ice age, indentured labor, insular, international date line, intervening opportunity, intracoastal waterway, isohyet, jurisdiction, karst, lacustrine plain, latitude, lava, leaching, leeward, legend, life cycle, light industry, lithosphere, longitude, magma, mantle, map, maritime climate, Mediterranean climate, metes and bounds, nodal region, open range, orographic rainfall, outwash, overburden, palisade, panhandle, permafrost, physiographic region, piedmont, platted land, plural society, populated place, post-industrial, prevailing winds, Prime Meridian, rainshadow, region, resource, riparian rights, scale, sea level, sharecropping, sinkhole, site, situation, snowline, spreading ridges, staple product, sustainable yield, tectonic plates, territory, threshold, time distance, topographic map, topography, township and range, transhumance, tree line, Tropic of Cancer, Tropic of Capricorn, tropics, vent, water table, windward, zoning

BOG TYPES: blanket, peat, raised, string

BOGS OF NORTH AMERICA: Strangmoor Bog Michigan, Rhine Center Bog Wisconsin, Burns Bog British Columbia, Spruce Hole Bog New Hampshire, Tannersville Cranberry Bog Pennsylvania, Tom S. Cooperrider-Kent Bog Ohio, Pinhook Bog Indiana, Volo Bog Illinois, Saco Heath Bog Maine, Joseph Pines Bog Virginia, Mer Bleue Bog Ontario, Alfred Bog Ontario, Johnville Bog Quebec

CLIMATIC ZONES: arctic, arid, desert, jungle, Mediterranean, mountain, polar, subarctic, subtropical, temperate, tropical

CLIMATIC ZONES BASED ON KOEPPEN SYSTEM: arid, cool summer, highlands, humid subtropical, ice, marine west coast, Mediterranean, semiarid, subarctic, tropical dry, tropical wet, tundra, uplands, warm summer

USAGE NOTE: Several different systems of classification exist for global climate zones. If accuracy is important, consult several sources and choose the system that works for an individual project.

ECOSYSTEMS: aquatic, badland, coral reef, desert, estuary, forest, glade, grassland, grove, heath, intertidal, jungle, lentic freshwater, lotic freshwater, marine, meadow, moor, mountain, oceanic, prairie, rainforest, salt marsh, savannah, taiga, temperate deciduous, temperate evergreen, tropical deciduous, tropical evergreen, tundra, veldt, wasteland, wetland, woods

GEOGRAPHICAL ZONES (BASED ON LATITUDE): north frigid zone, north temperate zone, torrid zone, south temperate zone, south frigid zone

GRADE/SLOPE: decline, gentle, incline, steep, switchback, terraced

FUNGUS

USAGE NOTE: Mushrooms and fungus can be deadly and difficult to identify. Use caution when referencing mushrooms so as not to overlook or conceal a potential danger.

COMMON NAMES: aborted entoloma, agaricus (bleeding, crocodile, spring), alcohol inky cap, American matsutake, angels' wings, aniseed toadstool, anise-scented, apricot jelly mushroom, aspen scaber stalk, bear's head, beechwood sickener, belly-button mushroom, black forest mushroom, black fungus, black kame, black saddle mushroom, blackening waxcap, bleeding milky cap, blewit, blue milky cap, blusher, blushing bracket, bolete (admirable, barrow, bay, butter, king, regal, two-colored, Zellers), bracelet cortinarius, brown hay cap, brown kame, butter mushroom, button mushroom, candle-snuff fungus, candy cap, cauliflower fungus, cauliflower mushroom, chanterelle (black, cinnabar-red, clustered blue, golden, smooth, trumpet, white), charcoal burner, chicken of the woods, click beetle, cloud ear mushroom, comb tooth mushroom, commercial mushroom, common store mushroom, coral fungus, coral hericium, crimson waxcap, death cap, delicious milky cap, destroying angel, dotted-stalk suillus, drumstick mushroom, earth balls, edulis, egg mushroom, enoki, fairies' bonnet, fairy club, fairy ring, fairy-ring mushroom, fawn mushroom, field mushroom, fragrant clitocybe, garlic marasmius, golden needle, green-spored parasol, gypsy mushroom, hairy stereum, hedgehog mushroom, hen of the woods, honey fungus bootlace, honey mushroom, hoof fungus, horn of plenty, horse mushroom, inky cap, jelly baby, Judas's ear, lethal webcaps, lawyer's wig, man on horseback, Manzanita scaber stalk, matsutake, meadow mushroom, mica cap, milkcap (saffron, ugly, watery, wooly), monkey head, morel, nameko, oak mushroom, old man of the woods, orange jelly, orange-capped scaber stalk, oyster mushroom, paddy straw mushroom, painted suillus, parasol mushroom, phallus, pig's ear, pine mushroom, poison pie, pom-pom, porcini, puffball, red-tipped coral mushroom, russula (bare-toothed, birch, blackening, shellfish-scented, short-stem, tacky green), russula-like waxy cap, scaber stalk, scarlet hood, shaggy mane, shaggy parasol mushroom, shiitake, short-stalked slippery cap, silver ear mushroom, snow mushroom, snow-bank false morel, sponge, stink horn with face fly, straw mushroom, stump puffball, sweet tooth, sweetbread mushroom, the prince, tree ear, truffle (French black, Italian white, Oregon white, summer, Texas white), trumpet of death, umbrella polypore, velvet foot, white jelly fungus, willow fomes, wine-cap stropharia, winter mushroom, witches butter, wolf's milk, wood ear mushroom, yellow brain fungus

HERBACEOUS PLANTS

USAGE NOTE: Herbaceous plants have stems and leaves that die down to the ground in the fall. They may be annuals (living only one season), perennials (returning each spring for an indefinite number of seasons), or biennials (living for two seasons, in which the plant remains low and leafy in the first season and becomes taller and flowering in the second season).

USAGE NOTE: The distinction between an annual plant and a perennial plant is sometimes a matter of geography; some plants are considered perennials in warm climates but are grown as annuals in cold climates since they are unlikely to survive the winter.

GARDEN ANNUALS: ageratum, alpine wallflower, alyssum, baby blue eyes, bachelor button, balsam, begonia, bells of Ireland, bishop's week, blanket flower, carnation, celosia, cockscomb, coleus, cosmos, dianthus, dusty miller, firecracker plant, forget-me-not, fuchsia, geranium, Gerbera daisy, globe amaranth, heliotrope, hibiscus, impatiens, ivy geranium, Johnny jump-up, lantana, larkspur, leadwort, lobelia, love in a mist, mallow, marigold, Mexican heather, milkweed, million bells, money plant, moonflower, morning glory, moss rose, nasturtium, New Guinea impatiens, nicotiana, nigella, ornamental kale, ornamental Swiss chard, pansy, pentas, petunia, phlox, pincushion flower, pinks, polka dot, purple fountain grass, purslane, sage, salvia, snapdragon, snow on the mountain, spike, statice, strawflower, sunflower, sweet pea, sweet William,

POISONOUS PLANTS: aconite, Adam and Eve, African sumac, akar saga, angel's trumpet, angel wings, asparagus berry, autumn crocus, azalea, bad-man's oatmeal, beaver poison, belladonna, betel nut palm, bitersweet nightshade, black hellebore, black locust, black nightshade, black snakeroot, bleeding heart, blind-your-eye mangrove, blister bush, bloodroot, blue-green algae, blue passion flower, bobbins, bracken, broom, calabar bean, castor oil plant, children's bane, Christmas rose, cocklebur, columbine, common ivy, corn cockle, corn lily, cows and bulls, cowbane, crab's eye, cuckoo-pint, daffodil, daphne, darnel, datura, deadly nightshade, death-of-man, deathcamas, desert-rose, devils and angels, devil's cherry, doll's eyes, dumbcane, Dutchman's breeches, elderberry, elephant ear, european spindle, false parsley, foxglove, frangipani, giant hogweed, giddee giddee, gifblaar, graveyard tree, greater celandine, heart of Jesus, hemlock, henbane, holly, horse chestnut, hyacinth, Indian licorice, jack in the pulpit, Jamestown weed, jequirity, Jerusalem cherry, jimson weed, John Crow bead, jumbie bead, kudu, larkspur, lily of the valley, lords and ladies, Madiera winter cherry, manchineel tree, manchineel, mayapple, meadow saffron, mistletoe, monkshood, moonseed, mother of millions, mountain laurel, oleander, ongaonga, ordeal beans, palma Christi, pinyang, poinsettia, poison ivy, poison oak, poison ryegrass, poison sumac, pokeweed, precatory bean, privet, ragwort, redoul, rhubarb, river poison tree, rosary pea, ruti, sabi star, snakeweed, spotted parsley, starch-root, stinkweed, strychnine tree, suicide tree, thorn apple, tomato, wake robin, water-dropwort, water hemlock, weather plant, white baneberry, white snakeroot, wild arum, wild carrot, wild parsnip, wolfsbane, yellow Jessamine

USAGE NOTE: The plants listed above are considered poisonous for a variety of reasons. Some are poisonous only in part; for example, in some plants, only the bulb, flower, or fruit is dangerous. Some species are dangerous only at certain times in their growth cycle.

A distinction should also be made between plants that are poisonous and those that are toxic. Poisonous plants cause illness or death through ingestion. Toxic plants are those that cause a rash or other reaction through touch. When including any of these plants in a fictional setting, research is required to describe their effects properly.

WEEDS: air potato, American willow herb, Armenian blackberry, Asiatic blue dayflower, Asiatic tear-thumb, Asiatic witchweed, Australian pine, Australian swamp stonecrop, Australian wattles, autumnal crocus, baby rose, bead tree, Bermuda buttercup, Bermuda grass, bindweed, black locust, bramble, Brazilian pepper, Brazilian waterweed, broadleaf plantain, broad-leaved paper bark, bugweed, burdock, camphor laurel, camphor tree, Canadian pondweed, castor oil plant, Ceylon cedar, chinaberry, Chinese privet, Chinese USAGE NOTE: Beauty is in the eye of the beholder. So are weeds. One gardener's weed is another gardener's treasure. A lawn might look pretty in the spring sprinkled with bright yellow dandelions, but to a golf course groundskeeper, a dandelion is an intruder. The list above includes plants that are frequently regarded as weeds—but they might not be weeds to everyone. Even useful plants can be considered weeds in the wrong setting—in the Midwest, for example, war is being waged against garlic mustard, an edible salad green that has become an invasive species and crowds out native plants. Climate also drives the determination of a weed; in cold climates, certain plants are kept in check, but in warmer zones, those same plants might grow uncontrolled. When referencing weeds, consider the climate and placement of these plants.

WILDFLOWERS: Adam and Eve, African daisy, American hogpeanut, aniseroot, arroyo lupine, baby blue eyes, baby's breath, bachelor button, baneberry, beebalm, bird's eyes, bird's foot trefoil, bishop's flower, black-eyed Susan, blanket flower, blue cohosh, blue flax, bluebonnet, blue-eyed grass, bull thistle, butterfly weed, California bluebell, California poppy, calliopsis, candytuft, catchfly, chamomile, chicory, cinnamon fern, clasping coneflower, columbine, corn poppy, cornflower, cosmos, crane's bill, crimson clover, cucumber root, dame's rocket, daylily, dense blazing star, Drummond phlox, Dutchman's breeches, dwarf red plains coreopsis, evening primrose, farewell-to-spring, field clover, fire wheel, five spot, Flanders poppy, flannel plant, fleabane, fluxweed, foxglove, goatsbeard, gold yarrow, goldenseal, ground cedar, hepatica, Iceland poppy, Indian blanket, ironweed, Johnny jump-up, lacy phacelia, lance-leaved coreopsis, leadplant, lemon mint, marsh marigold, Maximilian sunflower, mayapple, mealy blue sage, Mexican hat, Missouri primrose, moss verbena, mouse ears, mullein, nettle, New England aster, northern maidenhair fern, oxeye daisy, partridge pea, perennial lupine, pink ladyslipper, plains coreopsis, prairie aster, purple coneflower, purple horse mint, purple prairie clover, purple tansy, Queen Anne's lace, red corn poppy, rocket larkspur, Rocky Mountain penstemon, rose angel, rose mallow, rue anemone, scarlet flax, scarlet lobelia, scarlet sage, Shasta daisy, Shirley poppy, showy primrose, sleeping plant, smooth horsetail, smooth scouring rush, sneezeweed, speedwell, spurred snapdragon, standing cypress, stiff vervain, succulent lupine, sweet Alyssum, sweet William, Tahoka daisy, Texas bluebonnet, Texas paintbrush, thimbleberry, tickseed, tidy tips, toadflax, tuber vervain, Venus

USAGE NOTE: The term wildflower is rather vague. Wildflowers have been incorporated into gardens, and garden flowers have escaped into the wild. Expect a high level of crossover between garden plants and wildflowers.

SHRUBS: abelia, actinidia, Alexandrian laurel, aloe, angelica tree, angel's trumpet, antelope bush, Apache plume, aralia, arborvitae, artemisia, aucuba, azalea, barberry, bayberry, bearberry, beautyberry, beauty bush, bilberry, bladder senna, bladdernut, blue spiraea, blueberry, bottlebrush, bougainvillea, boxthorn, boxwood, bramble, broom bush, buckthorn, bush clover, bush honeysuckle, butterfly bush, camellia, carpenteria, ceanothus, cherry, chilean firebush, chokeberry, clerodendrum, cliff bush, cliff rose, colletia, corkwood, cotoneaster, cranberry, crape myrtle, cream bush, crinodendron, crowberry, currant, daisy bush, daphne, decaisnea, desfontainea, deutzia, dipelta, doghobble, dogwood, dragon tree, elaeagnus, elder, ephedra, escallonia, eucryphia, fabiana, fatsia, fernbush, firethorn, flannel bush, forsythia, fothergilla, franklinia, fringe tree, fuchsia, glory pea, gorse, grevillea, griselinia, hakea, hardy plumbago, hawthorn, heath, heather, hebe, Hercules' club, hibiscus, holly, honeysuckle, huckleberry, hudsonia, hydrangea, hyssop, indigo, ivy, Japanese quince, jasmine, Jerusalem sage, jojoba, Joshua tree, juniper, kerria, kowhai, lacebark, lantana, lavender, lavender cotton, leadwort, leatherleaf, leatherwood, ledum, leycesteria, lilac, loblolly bay, loquat, magnolia, mahonia, manuka, manzanita, menziesia, mescal bean, Mexican buckeye, Mexican orange blossom, microcachrys, milkwort, mistletoe, mock orange, moonseed, moss heather, mountain avens, mountain mahogany, mountain laurel, myricaria, myrtle, neillia, ninebark, oak, oleander, osmanthus, pachysandra, pagoda bush, paper bush, pearl bush, pea tree, pepperbush, periwinkle, photinia, pieris, pistachio, pittosporum, privet, quassia, quillay, rhododendron, rockrose, rose, rose of Sharon, rosemary, rue, Russian sage, sabia, sage, sagebrush, salal, sea buckthorn, senecio, shrubby cinquefoil, silk tassel, silverbell, skimmia, smilax, smoketree, snowberry, soapberry, sorbaria, Spanish broom, spicebush, spindle, spiraea, staff vine, star anise, stephanandra, styrax, sumac, sweetfern, sweetshrub, sweetspire, tamarix, thyme, trailing arbutus, tree lupin, tree mallow, tree poppy, tree peony, trochodendron, twinflower, verbena, vervain, viburnum, vinca, waratah, weigela, willow, winter hazel, winter's bark, wintersweet, witch hazel, wonder hedge, xanthoceras, xylosma, yellowroot, yew, yucca, zanthoxylum, zauschneria, zenobia, ziziphus

TREES

USAGE NOTE: Many trees are known by multiple names that are dependent upon location and source. The same tree might be known by different names in different regions; research is essential to determine the correct name in a given setting. Likewise, spellings (especially hyphenation) vary by source. Users need to determine the appropriate spelling for their situation and remain consistent.

DECIDUOUS: Allegheny chinkapin, almond willow, almondeaf willow, American basswood, American beech, American elm, American green alder, American hackberry, American hop hornbeam, American hornbeam, American mountain ash, American plum, American sycamore, American walnut, Angelica tree, Arce, Arizona black walnut, Arizona madrone, Arizona madrono, Arizona oak, Arizona walnut, Arizona white oak, ashleaf maple, aspen, balsam poplar, barren oak, basket oak, basswood, bay, bay laurel, bay tree, beak willow, beaked willow, bearberry, beaverwood, Bebb willow, beech, bellota, big drunk bean, big laurel, big leaf maple, bigtooth aspen, bigtree, Biltmore ash, Biltmore white ash, bitter cherry, bitternut, bitternut hickory, black birch, black cherry, black jack oak, black locust, black myrtle, black oak, black tupelo, black walnut, black willow, blackgum, blackjack oak, blue beech, blue oak, blue paloverde, blue poplar, blue gum, blue gum eucalyptus, bluejack oak, Bois D'arc, bottomland post oak, bottomland red oak, box elder, Boynton post oak, broadleaf

CHAPTER II: ASTRONOMY AND CHEMISTRY

ASTRONOMY

GENERAL VOCABULARY: absolute magnitude, absolute zero, albedo, altitude, antimatter, antipodal point, aphelion, apogee, apparent magnitude, asteroid, astronomical unit, atmosphere, aurora, aurora australis, aurora borealis, axis, azimuth, big bang, binary, black hole, blueshift, bolide, celestial equator, celestial poles, celestial sphere, cepheid variable, chaos, chasma, chondrite, chondrule, chromosphere, circumpolar star, circumstellar disk, comet, conjunction, constellation, corona, cosmic ray, cosmogony, cosmology, crater, dark matter, density, disk, Doppler effect, double star, dwarf planet, eccentricity, eclipse, ecliptic, ejecta, electromagnetic radiation, electromagnetic spectrum, ellipse, elliptical galaxy, elongation, equinox, escape velocity, event horizon, extinction, extragalactic, extraterrestrial, eyepiece, faculae, filament, finder, fireball, flare star, galactic halo, galactic nucleus, galaxy, gamma ray, geosynchronous orbit, globular cluster, granulation, gravitational lens, gravity, greenhouse effect, heliopause, heliosphere, hydrogen, Hubble's law, hydrostatic equilibrium, hypergalaxy, ice, inclination, inferior conjunction, inferior planet, international astronomical union, interplanetary magnetic field, interstellar medium, ionosphere, iron meteorite, irregular galaxy, irregular satellite, jansky, jet, Kelvin, Kepler's first law, Kepler's second law, Kepler's third law, kiloparsec, Kirkwood gap, Kuiper belt, Lagrange point, lenticular galaxy, libration, light year, limb, luminosity, lunar eclipse, lunar month, lunation, Magellanic clouds, magnetic field, magnetic pole, magnetosphere, magnitude, main belt, major planet, mare, mass, matter, meridian, metal, meteor, meteor shower, meteorite, meteoroid, millibar, minor planet, molecular cloud, nadir, nebula, neutrino, neutron star, Newton's first law of motion, Newton's second law of motion, Newton's third law of motion, nova, nuclear fusion, obliquity, oblateness, occultation, Oort cloud, open cluster, opposition, orbit, parallax, parsec, patera, penumbra, perigee, perihelion, perturb, phase, photon, photosphere, planet, planetary mass object, planetary nebula, planetesimal, planitia, planum, plasma, precession, prominence, prograde orbit, proper motion, protoplanetary disk, protostar, pulsar, quadrature, quasar, quasi-stellar object, radial velocity, radiant, radiation, radiation belt, red giant, redshift, regular satellite, resonance, retrograde motion, retrograde orbit, right ascension, ring galaxy, Roche limit, rotation, satellite, scarp, Seyfert galaxy, shell star, shepherd satellite, sidereal, sidereal month, sidereal period, singularity, small solar system body, solar cycle, solar eclipse, solar flare, solar nebula, solar wind, solstice, spectrometer, spectroscopy, spectrum, spicules, spiral galaxy, star, star cluster, steady state theory, stellar wind, stone meteorite, sunspot, supergiant, superior conjunction, superior planet, supernova, supernova remnant, synchronous rotation, synodic period, tektite, telescope, terminator, terrestrial, terrestrial planet, tidal force, tidal heating, transit, trans-neptunian object, trojan, ultraviolet, umbra, universal time, Van Allen belts, variable star, visible light, Virgo cluster, visual magnitude, wavelength, white dwarf, X-ray, X-ray astronomy, X-ray star, yellow dwarf, zenith, zodiac, zodiacal light

ASTEROIDS: Aaltje, Aase, Abnoba, Abundantia, Academia, Achilles, Ada, Adalberta, Adelaide, Adele, Adelgunde, Adelheid, Adelinda, Adeona, Admete, Adolfine, Adorea, Adrastea, Adria, Adriana, Aegina, Aegle, Aemilia, Aeolia, Aeria, Aeternitas, Aethra, Agamemnon, Agathe, Aglaja, Agnes, Agnia, Agrippina, Aguntina, Ahrensa, Aida, Aidamina, Alagasta, Alauda, Albert, Alekto, Alemannia, Aletheia, Alexandra, Algunde, Alice, Alinda, Aline, Alkeste, Alkmene, Alleghenia, Alma, Alphonsina, Alsatia, Alstede, Althaea, Altona, Amalasantha, Amalia, Amalthea, Amanda, Ambrosia, Amelia, America, Amherstia, Amicitia, Amneris, Ampella, Amphitrite, Anacostia, Anahita, Anastasia, Andromache, Angelica, Angelina, Ani, Anna, Anneliese, Annika, Antigone, Antikleia, Antiope, Antonia, Apollonia, Appella, Aquitania, Ara, Arabella, Arachne, Aralia, Arduina, Arequipa, Arete, Arethusia, Argentina, Ariadne, Arizona, Armenia, Armida, Armor, Arne, Arsinoe, Artemis, Aschera, Asia, Aslog, Aspasia, Asplinda, Asporina, Astarte, Asteria, Asterope, Astraea, Atala, Atalante, Ate, Athalia, Athamantis, Athanasia, Athene, Athor, Atossa, Atropos, Augusta, Auravictrix, Aurelia, Aurora, Ausonia, Austria

ASTEROIDS WITH UNUSUAL NAMES: Annefrank, Asimov, Benfranklin, Bilbo, Bradbury, Bratfest, Conandoyle, Dahl, Elvis, Gershwin, Hitchcock, Isaac Newton, James Bond, Jabberwock, Jack London, Mistroggers, Mr. Spock, Pink Floyd, Pocahontas, Roddenberry, Tolkien

CHAPTER 11 —

USAGE NOTE: Official names of all celestial bodies are approved and maintained by the International Astronomical Union (IAU). It administers several naming systems for various astronomical objects.

USAGE NOTE: More than 9,000 asteroids have been named. Asteroids receive a sequential designation number and are then eligible for an assigned name. The alphabetical list of asteroid names above is a short sample of typical names. Naming rules are fairly broad and thus result in whimsical or honorary names such as those seen in the preceding list (a sample from approximately 1,000 asteroids named for individuals). Names from mythology dominate the overall list.

COMETS: Arend, Arend-Roland, Biela, Bennett, Borrelly, Brorsen, Bus, Caesar's, Comas Sola, d'Arrest, Daniel, Donati's, Encke, Faye, Finlay, Forbes, Gale, Gunn, Hale-Bopp, Halley, Holmes, Hyakutake, Ikeya-Seki, Kojime, Kopff, Lovejoy, McNaught, Olbers, Oterma, Perron-Mrkos, Pons-Brooks, Pons-Winnecke, Seki-Lines, Shoemaker-Levy, Skjellerup-Maristany, Spitaler, Taylor, Tempel, Tuttle, West, Westfall, Whipple, Wild, Wirtanen, Wolf

USAGE NOTE: More than 4,100 comets are currently known. This list is a sample of some better-known comets.

CONSTELLATIONS: Andromeda, Antlia, Aquarius, Aquila, Apus, Ara, Aries, Auriga, Bootes, Camelopardalis, Caelum, Chamealeon, Cancer, Canes Venatici, Canis Major, Canis Minor, Capricornus, Carina, Cassiopeia, Centaurus, Cepheus, Cetus, Circinus, Columbia, Coma Berenices, Corona Australis, Corona Borealis, Corvus, Crater, Crux, Cygnus, Delphinus, Dorado, Draco, Eridanus, Equuleus, Fornax, Gemini, Grus, Hercules, Horologium, Hydra, Hydrus, Indus, Lacerta, Leo, Leo Minor, Lepus, Libra, Lupus, Lynx, Lyra, Mensa, Microscopium, Monoceros, Musca, Norma, Octans, Ophiuchus, Orion, Pavo, Pegasus, Perseus, Phoenix, Pictor, Pisces, Pisces Austrinus, Puppis, Pyxis, Reticulum, Sagitta, Sagittarius, Scorpius, Sculptor, Scutum, Serpens, Sextans, Taurus, Telescopium, Triangulum, Triangulum Australe, Tucana, Ursa Major, Ursa Minor, Vela, Virgo, Volans, Vulpecula

HYPOTHETICAL SOLAR SYSTEM BODIES: Chiron (moon of Saturn), additional Earth moons, fifth planet, Mercury moon, Neith, Nemesis, Planet V, Planet X, S/2000 J 11, Theia, Themis, Tyche, Vulcan, Vulcanoids

PLANETARY SYSTEMS: accretion disc, brown dwarf, Earth's solar system, exoplanetary, extrasolar, main sequence, multiplanetary, multi-star, pulsar, red dwarf, transiting

RELATED: habitable zone

STAR SYSTEMS: binary, galaxy, multiple, quadruple, quintuple, septuple, sextuple, star cluster, triple

RELATED: common envelope, contact binary

USAGE NOTE: A planetary system is a group of astronomical objects that orbit a star. A star system (also called stellar system) is a pair or group of stars that orbit each other and are bound by gravity.

STAR NAMES

USAGE NOTE: The spelling of star names can be inconsistent due to the variety of languages in which they were originally named and the translations of those names. In addition, stars sometimes have more than one popular name. For purposes of this list, simpler and more easily spelled options were selected.

Popular	Scientific	Popular	Scientific
Acamar	Theta Eridani	Izar	Epsilon Boötis
Achernar	Alpha Eridani	Kaus Australis	Epsilon Sagittarii
Acrab	Beta Scorpii	Kitalpha	Alpha Equulei

Girtab	Theta Scorpii	Zaurak	Gamma Eridani
Gomeisa	Beta Canis Minoris	Zavijava	Beta Virginis
Graffias	Beta Scorpii	Zosma	Delta Leonis
Hadar	Beta Centauri	Zubenelgenubi	Alpha Librae
Hamal	Alpha Arietis	Zubeneschamali	Beta Librae
Homam	Zeta Pegasi

PLANETS AND MOONS

MERCURY: no moons

VENUS: Neith (discredited)

USAGE NOTE: Neith was observed as a moon of Venus in 1672. Debate about its presence ensued until 1887, when it was declared nonexistent and attributed to optical illusions.

EARTH: Moon

MARS: Deimos, Phobos

CERES (DWARF PLANET IN ASTEROID BELT): no moons

JUPITER: Adrastea, Aitne, Amalthea, Ananke, Aoede, Arche, Autonoe, Callirrhoe, Callisto, Carne, Carpo, Chaldene, Cyllene, Elara, Erinome, Euanthe, Eukelade, Euporie, Europa, Eurydome, Ganymede, Harpalyke, Helike, Hegemone, Hermippe, Herse, Himalia, Isonoe, Kale, Kalichore, Kalyke, Kore, Leda, Lysithea, Io, Iocaste, Megaclite, Mneme, Metis, Orthosie, Pasiphae, Pasithee, Praxidike, Sinope, Sponde, Taygete, Thebe, Thelxinoe, Themisto, Thyone

SATURN: Aegaeon, Aegir, Albiorix, Anthe, Atlas, Bebhionn, Bergelmir, Bestia, Calypso, Daphnis, Dione, Enceladus, Epimetheus, Erriapus, Farbauti, Fenrir, Fornjot, Greip, Hati, Helene, Hyperion, Hyrrokkin, Iapetus, Ijiraq, Janus, Jarnsaxa, Kari, Kiviuk, Loge, Methone, Mimas, Mundilfari, Narvi, Paaliaq, Pan, Pandora, Pellene, Phoebe, Polydeuces, Prometheus, Rhea, Siarnaq, Skathi, Skoll, Surtur, Suttung, Tarqeq, Tarvos, Telesto, Tethys, Thrymr, Titan, Ymir

URANUS: Ariel, Belinda, Bianca, Caliban, Cordel, Cressida, Cupid, Desdemona, Ferdinand, Francisco, Juliet, Mab, Margaret, Miranda, Oberon, Ophelia, Perdita, Portia, Prospero, Puck, Rosalind, Setebos, Stephano, Sycorax, Titania, Trinculo, Umbriel

NEPTUNE: Despina, Galatea, Halimede, Larissa, Laomedea, Naiad, Nereid, Neso, Proteus, Psamathe, Sao, Thalassa, Triton

PLUTO: Charon, Nix, P4, Hydra

USAGE NOTE: Pluto is listed here as a planet even though it was demoted to a dwarf planet in 2006. Usage will depend upon the time frame and whether a scientific or mystical classification is desired.

MAKEMAKE (DWARF PLANET, PLUTOID): no moons

HAUMEA (DWARF PLANET, PLUTOID): Namaka, Hi'iaka

ERIS (DWARF PLANET, PLUTOID): Dysnomia

ELEMENTS

Actinium, Aluminum, Americium, Antimony, Argon, Arsenic, Astatine, Barium, Berkelium, Beryllium, Bismuth, Bohrium, Boron, Bromine, Cadmium, Calcium, Californium, Carbon, Cerium, Cesium, Chlorine, Chromium, Cobalt, Copernicium, Copper, Curium, Darmstadtium, Dubnium, Dysprosium, Einsteinium, Erbium, Europium, Fermium, Fluorine, Francium, Gadolinium, Gallium, Germanium, Gold, Hafnium, Hassium, Helium, Holmium, Hydrogen, Indium, Iodine, Iridium, Iron, Krypton, Lanthanum, Lawrencium, Lead, Lithium, Lutetium, Magnesium, Manganese, Meitnerium, Mendelevium, Mercury, Molybdenum, Neodymium, Neon, Neptunium, Nickel, Niobium, Nitrogen, Nobelium, Osmium, Oxygen, Palladium, Phosphorus, Platinum, Plutonium, Polonium, Potassium, Praseodymium, Promethium, Protactinium, Radium, Radon, Rhenium, Rhodium, Roentgenium, Rubidium, Ruthenium, Rutherfordium, Samarium, Scandium, Seaborgium, Selenium, Silicon, Silver, Sodium, Strontium, Sulfur, Tantalum, Technetium, Tellurium, Terbium, Thallium, Thorium, Thulium, Tin, Titanium, Tungsten, Ununnilium, Uranium, Vanadium, Xenon, Ytterbium, Yttrium, Zinc, Zirconium

POISONS

USAGE NOTE AND DISCLAIMER: The list that follows includes chemical substances with dangerous, possibly deadly, potential. All household and industrial chemicals should be handled, stored, and disposed of properly. All medications should be taken only under the advice of a licensed physician and should be taken according to directions. These items should be bought, sold, transported, and used only according to state and federal laws. The nature and degree of danger of these chemicals varies. Many of the pharmaceuticals in this list are safe in proper quantities but become unsafe at higher doses. Authors should incorporate these substances into their works only after thorough research and with appropriate cautions. Authors are advised to avoid any descriptions that might advise or enable readers to try dangerous experimentation at home.

DANGEROUS CHEMICALS: acetone cyanohydrin, acetone thiosemicarbazide, acrolein, acrylamide, acrylonitrile, acryloyl chloride, adiponitrile, aldicarb, aldrin, allyl alcohol, allylamine, aluminum phosphide, aminopterin, amiton, amiton oxalate, ammonia, amphetamine, aniline, aniline, antimony pentafluoride, antimony, arsenic, arsenous oxide, arsenous trichloride, arsine, azinphos-ethyl, azinphos-methyl, benzanamine, benzenearsonic acid, benzimidazole, benzotrithion, benzyl chloride, benzyl cyanide, bitoscanate, boron trichloride, boron trifluoride, boron trifluoride compound with methyl ether, bromadiolone, bromine, cadmium oxide, cadmium stearate, calcium arsenate, camphchlor, cantharidin, carbachol chloride, carbamic acid, carbofuran, carbon disulfide, carbofenothion, chlordane, chlorfenvinfos, chlorine, chlormephos, chlormequat chloride, chloroacetic acid, chloroform, chloromethyl ether, chloromethyl methyl ether, chlorophacinone, chloroxuron, chlorthiophos, chromic chloride, cobalt carbonyl, cobalt, colchicine, coumaphos, cresol, crimidine, crotonaldehyde, crotonaldehyde, cyanogen bromide, cyanogen iodide, cyanophos, cyanuric fluoride, cycloheximide, cyclohexylamine, decaborane, demeton, demeton-s-methyl, dialifor, diborane, dichloroethyl, ether, dichlorvos, dicrotophos, diepoxybutane, diethyl chlorophosphate, digitoxin, diglycidyl ether, digoxin, dimefox, dimethoate, dimethyl phosphorochloridithioate, dimethyl-p-phenylenediamine, dimethyldichlorosilane, dimethylhydrazine, dimetilan, dinitroresol, dinoseb, dinoterb, dioxathion, diphacinone, disulfoton, dithiazanine iodide, dithiobiuret, endosulfan, endothon, endrin, epichlorohydrin, ergocalciferol, ergotamine tartrate, ethanesulfonyl chloride, ethanol, ethion, ethoprophos, ethylene fluorohydrin, ethylene oxide, ethylenediamine, ethyleneimine, ethylthiocyanate, fenamiphos, fenitrothion, fensulfthion, flufenil, fluorine, fluoroacetamide, fluoroacetic acid, fluoroacetyl chloride, fluorouracil, fonofos, formaldehyde, formaldehyde cyanohydrin, formetanate hydrochloride, formothion, formparanate, fosthietan, fuberidazole, furan, gallium trichloride, hexamethylenediamine, hydrazine, hydrocyanic acid, hydrogen chloride, hydrogen fluoride, hydrogen peroxide, hydrogen selenide, hydrogen sulfide, hydroquinone, iron, pentacarbonyl, isobenzan, isocyanic acid, isodrin, isophorone diisocyanate, isopropylmethylpyrazolyl dimethylcarbamate, lactonitrile, leptophos, lewisite, lindane, lithium hydride, malononitrile, manganese, tricarbonyl methylcyclopentadienyl, mechloroethamine, mercuric acetate, mercuric chloride, mercuric oxide, methacrolein diacetate, methacrylic anhydride, methacrylonitrile, methacryloyl chloride, methacryloyloxyethyl isocyanate, methamidophos, methanesulfonyl fluoride, methidathion, methiocarb, methomyl, methyl bromide, methyl chloroformate, methyl hydrazine, methyl isocyanate, methyl isothiocyanate, methyl phenkapton, methyl phosphonic dichloride, methyl thiocyanate, methyl vinyl ketone, methylmercuric dicyanamide, metolcarb, mevinphos, mexacbate, mitomycin c, monocrotophos, muscimol, mustard gas, nickel carbonyl, nicotine, nicotine sulfate, nitric oxide, nitrobenzene, nitrocyclohexane, nitrogen dioxide, nitrosodimethylamine, norbormide, organorhodium complex, ouabain, oxamyl, oxetane, oxydisulfoton, paraquat, paraquat methosulfate, parathion, parathion-methyl, Paris green, pentaborane, pentadecylamine, peracetic acid, phenol, phenoxarsine, phenyl dichloroarsine, phenylhydrazine hydrochloride, phenylmercury acetate, phenylsilatrane, phenylthiourea, phosacetim, phosfolan, phosgene, phosmet, phosphamidon, phosphine, phosphonothioic acid, methyl, phosphoric acid, phosphorothioic acid, phosphorus, phosphorus oxychloride, phosphorus pentachloride, phosphorus pentoxide, phosphorus trichloride, physostigmine, picrotoxin, piperidine, pirimifos-ethyl, plutonium, polonium-210, potassium arsenite, potassium cyanide, potassium silver cyanide, promecarb, propargyl bromide, propionitrile, propionitrile, propiophenone, propyleneimine, prothoate, pyridine, pyriminil, ricin, salcomine, sarin, selenious acid, semicarbazide hydrochloride, silane, sodium arsenate, sodium azide, sodium cacodylate, sodium cyanide, sodium fluoroacetate, sodium pentachlorophenate, sodium selenate, sodium selenite, stannane, strychnine, strychnine sulfate, sulfotep, sulfoxide, sulfur dioxide, sulfur tetrafluoride, sulfur trioxide, sulfuric acid, tabun, tellurium, tellurium hexafluoride, TEPP, terbufos, tetraethyllead, tetraethyltin, tetranitromethane, thallium sulfate, thallous carbonate, thallous chloride, thallous malonate, thallous sulfate, thiocarbazine, thiofanox, thionazin, thiophenol, thiosemicarbazide, thiourea, thiourea, titanium tetrachloride, toluene 2, trans-1, triamiphos, triazofos, trichloroacetyl chloride, trichloroethylsilane, trichloronate, trichlorophenylsilane, triethoxysilane, trimethylchlorosilane, trimethyltin chloride, triphenyltin chloride, valinomycin, vinyl acetate monomer, warfarin, xylylene dichloride, zinc phosphide

POISONOUS CHEMICALS IN PLANTS: abrus precatorius, aconitum, actaea pachypoda, alkaloid tomatine, amygdalin, atropine, cyanide, cyanogenic glycoside, diaminopropionic acid, glycoalkaloid, hydrogen cyanide, linamarase, linamarin, lotaustrolin, lupinine, myristicin, neurotoxic amino acid, oxalic acid, phytohaemagglutinin, sparteine, tropane alkaloids

CHAPTER 12: ANATOMY AND PHYSIOLOGY

ANATOMY

BLOOD: albumin, antibody, antigen, antiserum, bilirubin, bone marrow, coagulation, crenation, cross match, electrolyte, erythrocyte, fibrinogen, glucose, granulocyte, hematocrit, hematologic, hematologist, hemoglobin, hemolysis, hemostasis, leukocyte, lymphocyte, macrocyte, phlebotomy, plasma, platelet, purpura, red cell, Rh factor, Rh negative, Rh positive, sepsis, serum, transfusion, white cell, whole blood

BODY PARTS: abdomen, adam's apple, ankle, arch, arm, armpit, back, bread basket, belly, breast, butt, buttock, calf, cheek, cheekbone, chest, chin, clitoris, ear, earlobe, elbow, eye, eyeball, eyebrow, eyelash, finger, fingernail, fist, foot, forearm, forehead, funny bone, groin, gut, hair, hand, head, heel, hip, instep, jaw, knee, labia, leg, limb, lip, mouth, nape, navel, neck, nose, nostril, offal, palate, palm, pelvis, penis, shoulder, temple, thigh, thorax, throat, thumb, thumbnail, tongue, toe, toenail, tonsil, tooth, torso, uvula, scalp, scrotum, shin, shoulder, sole, spine, testicle, underarm, upper arm, vagina, vulva, waist, wrist

BONES: anvil/incus, atlas, calcaneous, capitate bone, carpal, clavicle, coccyx, cranium, cuboid bone, distal phalange, ethmoid bone, femur, fibula, frontal bone, hamate bone, hammer/malleus, humerus, hyoid bone, inferior nasal conchae, ilium, intermediate cuneiform bone, intermediate phalange, ischium, kneecap (patella), lacrimal bone, lateral cuneiform bone, lunata bone, mandible, manubrium, maxilla, medial cuneiform bone, metacarpal, metatarsal, nasal bone, navicular bone, occipital bone, os coxae, parietal bone, patella, pelvic girdle, palatine bone, phalange, pisiform bone, proximal phalange, pubis, radius, rib, sacrum, scaphoid bone, scapula, sphenoid bone, sternum, stirrup/stapes, talus, tarsal, temporal bone, tibia, trapezium, trap-ezoid bone, triquetrum bone, ulna, vertebra, vomer, zygomatic bone, xiphoid process

EXCREMENT: bowel movement, crap, defecation, diarrhea, doo-doo, droppings, dung, excreta, fecal matter, feces, manure, meconium, poo, poop, scat, sewage, stool, turd, urine, waste

ORGANS/MAJOR STRUCTURES: adenoid, adrenal gland, amygdala, anterior thalamic nuclei, anus, aorta, appendix, artery, ascending colon, basal ganglia, bladder, brain, brain stem, bronchus, capillary, cecum, cerebellum, cerebral cortex, descending colon, diaphragm, duodenum, esophagus, eye, fallopian tube, fornix, gall bladder, heart, hippocampus, hypothalamus, ileum, jejunum, kidney, large intestine, larynx, ligament, limbic cortex, liver, lung, mammary gland, medulla, midbrain, nerves, ovary, pancreas, parathyroid gland, penis, pharynx, pineal gland, pituitary gland, pleura, pons, prostate, rectum, salivary gland, seminal vesicle, septum, skin, small intestine, spinal cord, spleen, stomach, tendon, testicle, thalamus, thymus gland, thyroid gland, tonsil, trachea, transverse colon, ureter, urethra, uterus, vagina, vas deferens, vein

BODY SYSTEMS: circulatory, digestive, endocannabinoid, endocrine, immune, integumentary, limbic, lymphatic, musculoskeletal, nervous, reproductive, respiratory, urinary, vestibular

TEETH: baby, bicuspid, canine, central incisor, cuspid, first molar, incisor, lateral incisor, milk, molar, permanent, precanine, premolar, second molar, third molar, wisdom

AILMENTS

ALLERGIES: animals, apple, artificial color, cat, chicken, cut grass, dander, dog, dust, egg, fish, food, fur, gluten, grass pollen, latex, medication, melon, milk, mold, peanut, pollen, preservatives, ragweed, seeds, shellfish, soy, spice (specific variety), tree, tree nut, wheat

BLOOD-RELATED AILMENTS: anemia, aneurysm, bacteremia, clot, deep venous thrombosis, disseminated intravascular coagulation, hematoma, hemochromatosis, hemophilia, hemorrhage, leukemia, lymphoma, malaria, multiple myeloma, myocardial infarction, polycythemia, sickle cell disease

DISEASES: African sleeping sickness, AIDS, anthrax, athlete's foot, bocavirus, body lice, Bolivian hemorrhagic fever, botulism, cancer, cat-scratch disease, cellulitis, Chagas disease, chicken pox, chlamydia, cholera, Colorado tick fever, common cold, consumption, crab lice, dengue fever, diabetes, diphtheria, ebola hemor-

ANATOMY AND PHYSIOLOGY

rhagic fever, enterovirus infection, epidemic typhus, fatal familial insomnia, food poisoning, gangrene, gonorrhea, hand foot and mouth disease, hantavirus pulmonary syndrome, head lice, hepatitis, herpes simplex, histoplasmosis, hookworm, human papillomavirus (HPV), influenza, jock itch, Kawasaki disease, keratitis, kuru, lassa fever, Legionnaires' disease, leprosy, listeriosis, Lyme disease, malaria, measles, meningitis, mononucleosis, mumps, pelvic inflammatory disease (PID), plague, pneumococcal infection, pneumonia, polio, pubic lice, rabies, ringworm, Rocky mountain spotted fever, rotavirus, rubella, SARS, scabies, schistosomiasis, sepsis, shingles, smallpox, streptococcal infection, syphilis, tetanus, toxic shock syndrome, toxoplasmosis, trichinellosis, tuberculosis, vapors, West Nile fever, whooping cough (pertussis)

USAGE NOTE: Thousands of diseases exist around the world. This list contains some of the more common, well known, or interesting diseases, and they are listed by common names. When referencing diseases, research is essential to understand symptoms, onset, degree of contagion, and cures.

HANGOVER: black dog, crapulence, morning fog, one-day flu

INJURIES/MEDICAL EMERGENCIES: allergic reaction, anaphylactic shock, aneurysm, animal bite, bedsores, bee sting, black eye, bleeding, blood clot, blood sugar drop, blow to the head, boil, broken bone, broken nose, bruise, bump, burns, car accident, chest pain, choking on object, compound fracture, concussion, contusion, cut requiring stitches, deep or multiple cuts, dehydration, drowning, ear/eye injury, embedded object, fainting, fall from height, fat lip, fingers slammed in car door, food poisoning, fracture (compound, greenstick, simple), frostbite, heart attack, heat exhaustion/stroke, hyperthermia, hypothermia, impaled object, insect bites, motion sickness, muscle cramps, muscle pull, nosebleed, not breathing, poisoning, radiation burns, scrape, shiner, shock, slip and fall, splinter/splinter, snake bite, sprain, stinger, stroke, struck by falling object, sunburn, sunstroke, ticks, traveler's diarrhea, twisted ankle, upset stomach, upset stomach, windburn

FICTIONAL DISEASES: chalk-dust flu, cooties, lycanthropy, walking dead

CHAPTER 13: THE ARTS

DANCE

BALLET TERMS: à la Seconde, à Terre, Adagio, Agrippina Vaganova, Allégo, Arabesque, Assemblé, Attitude, Balancé, ballerina, ballet, ballet master, ballet mistress, Balletomane, Ballon, Ballotté, Barre, Battement, Battement dégaqué, Battement fondu développé, Battement frappé, Battement tendu, Battu, Bras, Bras bas, Brisé, Brisé volé, Cabriole, Cavalier, Cecchetti method, Centre practice, Chainés, Changement, Chassé, choreographer, choreography, Cinq, cinq positions des Pieds, Cinquième, Classical ballet, Coda, Corps, Corps de ballet, Cou-de-pied position, Coupé jeté en tournant, Couru, Croisé/croisée, Danse, Danse de caractère, de Côté, Demi-plié, Derrière, Dessous, Dessus, Deux, Deuxième, Devant, Développé, Divertissement, double, double Cabriole, Écarté, Échappé, Échappé sur les pointes, Effacé/effacée, Élévation, en Arrière, en Avant, en Cloche, en Croix, en Dedans, en Dehors, en Diagonale, en Face, en l'Air, en Tournant, Enrico Cecchetti, Entrechat, Entrechat six, Épaulement, Exercices à la barre, extension, fish dive, five positions of the feet, Fondu/fondu, Fouetté, Fouetté en tournant, Fouetté rond de jambe en tournant, French School, Gateway, Glissade, grand Assemblé en tournant, grand Battement, grand Battement en cloche, grand in attitude Jeté, grand Jeté, grand Pas de deux, grand Sissonne ouverte, Grand/grande, grande Pirouette à la second, Italian School, Jambé, Jeté, Jeté battu, Jeté entrelacé, Jeté entrelacé, Labanotation, Leçon, Ligne, Manèges, Mazurka/mazurek, methods, mime, Neuf, notation, Ouvert/ouverte, Pas, pas Ballonné, Pas de bourrée, Pas de bourrée couru, Pas de chat, Pas de deux, Pas de quatre, Pas de trois, Pas de valse, Pas marché, Penché/penchée, petit Battement sur le cou-de-pied, petit Jeté, Petit/petite, Piqué, pirouette, pirouette piquée, plié, pointe shoes, Poisson, polonaise, Port de bras, Porté/portée, positions des Bras, Premier/première, Quatre, Quatrième, Relevé, Retiré, rise, rolling, romantic ballet, Rond de jambe, Rond de jambe à terre, Rond de jambe en l'air, Royale, Russian School, Saut de basque, Sauté/sautée, Sept, Sickling, Sissonne, Sissonne fermée, Six, supporting leg, sur les Demi-pointes, sur les Pointes, Temps lié sur les pointes, Tour de force, tour de Promenade, Tour en l'air, Tour jeté, Trois, Troisième, turn-out, tutu, variation, virtuoso, working leg

DANCE CLOTHING: booty short, bustle tutu, camisole leotard, cargo pants, chiffon skirt, circle skirt, costume, fishnet tights, flamenco skirt, fringe skirt, halter leotard, jazz pants, leggings, leg warmers, leotard, long sleeve leotard, rehearsal skirt, Russian tutu, tank leotard, tank top, tights, tulip skirt, tutu, unitard, wrap skirt

DANCE EQUIPMENT: barre, dance mat, garment bag, gym mat, mirror, rosin box, sprung floor

DANCE SHOES: ballet slipper, ballroom shoes, clogging shoes, dance sneaker, folklorical, hiphop, Irish stepdance, jazz, lyrical, pointe, split sole jazz, tap, toe

SHOE ACCESSORIES: bunion pad, elastic, fitting kit, glue, heel gripper, lambs wool, pillow, pointe shoe cover, ribbon, stitch kit, tape, toe pad, toe spacer, toe wrap

DANCE MOVES: arabesque, attitude, balloon, battement, batterie, bourrée, brisé, capriole, chasse, ciscaux, corps de ballet, coryphée, divertissement, écarté, élévation, entrechat, fish dive, fouetté, glissade, jeté, pas de deux, pas de seul, pirouette, plié, pointe, régisseur, répétiteur, splits, stulchak

DANCE STYLES: bachata, ballet, belly, big apple, black bottom, bolero, Bollywood, boogie-woogie, breakdance, bunny hop, cakewalk, calypso, cha cha cha, Charleston, contemporary, disco, electric boogaloo, flamenco, flash mob, folk, foxtrot, grinding, hand jive, hiphop, jazz, jazz ballet, jitterbug, jive, jump up, krumping, lindy hop, line dancing, lyrical, mambo, maxixe, merengue, modern, one-step, paso doble, pogo, popping, robot, rumba, salsa, samba, shag, skanking, soca, soft shoe, stepping, swing, tango, tap, two-step, vogue, waltz

ETHNIC/FOLK DANCES: allemande (Germany), attan (Afghanistan), bhangra (Punjab), bolero (Spain), bourrée (France), cajun (United States), chaconne (Spain), clog (England), Cossack (Ukraine), courante (France), dragon (China), English country (England), fandango (Galicia), flamenco (Spain), German dance, habanera (Cuba), havanase (Cuba), hora (Israel), hornpipe (England), hula (United States), Irish (Ireland), jota (Spain), kalinka (Russia), landler (Austria), lion (China), long sword (England), loure (France), malagueña (Spain), maypole (England), mazurka (Polish), minuet (France), morris (Britain), polonaise (Polish), rigaudon (France), saltarello (Italian), schuhplattler (Austria, Germany), seguidilla (Spain), square dance (United States), tarantella (Italy), zydeco (United States)

HISTORICAL DANCES: farandole, five-step waltz, galliard, galop, gigue, jig, minuet, pavan, polka, quadrille, reel, sarabande, schottische, trotto, two-step, waltz

MUSIC

GENERAL MUSIC VOCABULARY: a cappella, acciaccatura, accidental, accompaniment, ad lib, ad libitum, appoggiatura, atonal, beat, cadence, cadenza, canon, cantabile, cantata, cappella, chord, chromatic, chromatic scale, coloratura, continuo, counterpoint, da capo, descant, diatonic scale, dissonance, flat, fundamental, grace note, ground bass, harmony, improvisation, instrumentation, interval, intonation, leitmotif, lied, ligature, melisma, metamorphosis, mezzo, mode, motif, movement, orchestration, natural, obbligato, octave, opus, ostinato, pantomime, part, pentatonic, performance practice, phrase, pitch, più, poco, polacca, portamento, quarter-tone, register, reprise, rhythm, ritornello, scale, sempre, senza, serialism, sharp, sostenuto, sotto voce, stretto, subject, temperament, ternary form, theme, time, tone, transcription, transposition, trill, turca, tutti, twelve-note composition, unison, variation, verismo, vibrato

VOICES: alto (first, second), baritone, bass, bass-baritone, contralto, countertenor, falsetto, heldentenor, mezzosoprano, tenor (first, second), treble, soprano (first, second)

GROUPS: chamber orchestra, chapel, choir, chorus, concertino, consort, ensemble, orchestra, philharmonia, philharmonic, piano quartet, piano quintet, piano trio, quartet, quintet, septet, sextet, trio

MUSICAL PERIOD: baroque (early, middle, late), classical, modern, romantic

COMPOSITION TYPES: air, anthem, aria, aubade, badinerie, bagatelle, ballad, barcarolle, berceuse, canticle, caprice, cassation, chanson, chant, chorale, chorale prelude, concerto, cycle, divertimento, duet, duo, elegy, entr'acte, etude, exposition, fanfare, fantasy, la follia, fugue, Gregorian chant, harmoniemusik, hornpipe, humoresque, hymn, impromptu, interlude, intermezzo, lament, lamentations, madrigal, magnificat, mass (also missa), mélodie, monody, monophony, motet, nachtmusik, nocturne, nonet, octet, oratorio, overture, partita, passion, pastorale, plainchant, polyphony, programme music, postlude, prelude, psalm, quodlibet, recitative, requiem mass, rhapsody, rondo, scherzo, semi-opera, serenade, siciliana, sinfonia, sinfonia concertante, sinfonietta, singspiel, sonata, sonata-form, sonatina, study, suite, symphonic poem, symphony, tafelmusik, te deum, toccata, tombeau, tone poem, trio sonata, vespers, vocalise, voluntary

Wealth without work

Pleasure without conscience

Knowledge without character

Commerce without morality

Science without humanity

Worship without sacrifice

Politics without principle

RELIGION

ANGELS, COMMON TERMS: angel of death, angel of leadership, archangel, bene elohim, cherub, cherubim, dominion, grigori, guardian angel, hamalat al-arsh, host, messenger, messenger of God, potentate, power, principality, seraph, seraphim, shining one, spirit of motion, throne, virtue, warrior angel

USAGE NOTE: Very few angels are actually named in the Bible. Some versions list only Gabriel, Michael, and Lucifer (a fallen angel who was cast out of heaven).

Angels of Good: Adriel, Ambriel, Amesha Spenta, Arariel, Ariel, Azrael, Barachiel, Cassiel, Darda'il, Dumah, Eremiel, Gabriel, Gagiel, Hadraniel, Haniel, Harut, Hesediel, Israfel, Jegudiel, Jehoel, Jequn, Jerahmeel, Jophiel, Kasdeja, Kiraman Katibin, Kushiel, Leliel, Maalik, Malik, Marut, Metatron, Michael, Munkar, Muriel, Mu'aqqibat, Nakir, Nuriel, Ophan, Orifiel, Pahaliah, Penemue, Puriel, Qaphsiel, Raguel, Raphael, Raqib, Raziel, Remiel, Ridwan, Sachiel, Sandalphon, Sariel, Selaphiel, Seraphiel, Simiel, Tennin, Tzaphqiel, Uriel, Uzziel, Zabaniyah, Zachariel, Zadkiel, Zephon, Zophiel

PHILOSOPHY AND RELIGION

FALLEN ANGELS: Abbadon, Ahriman, Azazel, Camael, Gadreel, Mephistopheles, Samael, Satan, Shamsiel

USAGE NOTE: Lore surrounding angels varies widely and is often contradictory. Because many angels derive from many different religions and are written in many languages, spellings also vary widely. Sometimes a single letter distinguishes one angel from another, and sometimes a variant spelling can create confusion between a good angel and a fallen angel. Careful research from reputable sources is needed to identify angels correctly.

FOLLOWERS: congregation, faithful, flock, follower, member, parishioner, souk, sycophant, worshiper

GROUPINGS: archdiocese, cluster, diocese, parish, synod

CATHOLIC HOLY DAYS OF OBLIGATION: Ascension, All Saints, Assumption, Christmas, Epiphany, Holy Body and Blood of Christ, Immaculate Conception, Mary—Mother of God

USAGE NOTE: This list applies to the United States. The list varies in different countries around the world. Some of these are celebrated on the Sunday nearest to their actual date.

CHRISTIAN RELICS: Ark of the Covenant, Staff of Moses, Tablets of the Ten Commandments

RELICS OF JESUS: Bridle of Constantine, burial shroud, Chalice of the Last Supper, Church of the Holy Sepulchre, Column of the Flagellation, crown of thorns, crucifixion nails, Gifts of the Magi, Holy Coat, Holy Lance/Spear of Destiny/Spear of Longinus, Holy Sponge, Image of Edessa, Iron Crown of Lombardy, Mandylion, manger, Mount Calvary, Shroud of Turin, Sudarium of Oviedo, swaddling clothes, Veil of Veronica, wood of the True Cross

RITUALS: abstinence, Advent candles, Advent wreath, anoint, ashes, blessing, bread, bread and wine, breaking bread, candle, chant, Easter candle, Eucharistic adoration, fasting, genuflect, grace, holy water, immersion, incense, kiss, kneel, laying on of hands, litany, meal prayer, petition, prayer, praying hands, meditation, menorah, offering, offertory, palms, poverty, procession, rosary, shroud, sign of the Cross, silence, singing, Stations of the Cross, tithe, veneration of the Cross, vespers, visitation, water, wine

SACRAMENTS: Anointing of the Sick, Baptism, Christening, Confession, Confirmation, First Communion, First Eucharist, First Holy Communion, Holy Orders, Last Rites, Marriage, Penance, Reconciliation

USAGE NOTE: Sacraments differ by religion. Terminology has changed throughout history; research the time period to select the appropriate term.

TEN PLAGUES ON EGYPT: blood, boils, darkness, death of firstborn, flies or animals, frogs, fleas or gnats or lice, hail, locusts, pestilence

USAGE NOTE: The ambiguity of fleas or gnats or lice and flies or animals is a result of variations in translation.

TWELVE APOSTLES: Andrew, Bartholomew, James the Greater, James the Lesser, John, Judas, Jude, Matthew, Matthias, Peter, Philip, Simon, Thomas

USAGE NOTE: After Judas betrayed Jesus and hanged himself, the remaining apostles selected Matthias as his successor.

RATTLESNAKE: Arizona black, Aruba, Chihuahuan ridge-nosed, Coronado Island, Durango rock, dusky pigmy, eastern diamondback, Grand Canyon, Great Basin, Hopi, lance-headed, long-tailed, Mas-sasauga, Mexican green, Mexican west coast, midget faded, Mojave, northern black-tailed, Oaxacan small-headed, rattler, red diamond, Southern Pacific, southwestern speckled, Tancitaran dusky, tiger, timber, tropical, twin-spotted, Uracoan, western diamondback

SEA: anomalous, beaked, bighead, Grey's, Hediger's, horned, Jerdon's, mangrove, mudsnake, olive, Port Darwin, Shaw's, spine-bellied, spiny-headed, Stokes's, turtlehead, yellow bellied

VIPER: asp, bamboo, blunt-nosed, Brazilian mud, burrowing, bush, carpet, crossed, Cyclades blunt-nosed, eyelash, Fea's, fifty pacer, Gaboon, hog-nosed, horned desert, horned, jumping, Kaznakov's, leaf-nosed, leaf, levant, long-nosed, McMahon's, mole, nose-horned, Palestinian, Pallas', palm, pit, Portuguese, rhinoceros, river jack, Russell's, sand, saw-scaled, Schlegel's, sedge, sharp-nosed, snorkel, temple, tree, Ursini's, western hog-nosed

WORLD'S TEN MOST VENOMOUS: inland taipan, eastern brown, coastal taipan, many-banded krait, peninsula tiger, saw-scaled viper, black mamba, western tiger, eastern coral, Philippine cobra

CHAPTER 16: MONSTERS

The monsters listed in this chapter are collected from myths, stories, and legends from all around the world. Every effort has been made to include only creatures that are public domain and to avoid monsters from copyrighted sources.

MONSTER CATEGORIES/TERMS: aberration, alien, brute, colossus, creature, enchanted, extra-terrestrial, feral, fiend, horror, hybrid, creature of legend, mutant, paranormal, reptile, sea creature, space invader, swarm; See also category names that follow

USAGE NOTE: Animals frequently serve as monsters in fiction and games. Mundane animals are listed in the chapter Animals and Creatures and are available to be used as monsters depending upon the desires of the author. Any animal could potentially become a monster, especially in giant form, depending upon the situation.

ANIMATED: Refer to clothing, furniture, tools, and weapons; almost any object might be magically animated for any number of reasons and for any purpose.

AQUATIC: aboleth, bahamut, bunyip, ceffyl dwr, encantado, hippocampus, kappa, kelpie, kraken, merfolk, Leviathan, merman/mermaid, naiad, nixie, ogopogo, selkie, swamp monster

BEAST: achaierai, achool, ankheg, arrowhawk, axebeak, bai ze, bakeneko, barghest, basilisk, behir, bulette, Camazotz, catoblepas, centaur, Cerberus, Ceryneian hind, chimera, Chiron, cockatrice, crocotta, cu sith, dark naga, dark-mantle, dragonne, dryad, ettercap, fenrir, fleshcrawler, frost worm, gilled antelope, goldhorn, gorgon, griffin, grim reaper, guardian naga, hellhound, hippocamp, hippogriff, hydra, jaculus, kelpie, kirin, lamassu, lamia, manticores, minotaur, naga, nightmare, nuckelavee, owlbear, pegasus, phase spider, pooka, purple worm, pyro-hydra, quasit, remorhaz, roper, sahuagin, sphinx, sphinx-andro, sphinx-crio, sphinx-gyno, sphinx-hiera, spirit naga, stirge, unicorn, vampire bat, vulkodlak, wendigo, white antelope, white stag, will-o'-wisp, winter wolf, worg, wyvern, yuan-ti

CONSTRUCT: automaton, bronze bull, caberian horses, celedones, clay guardian, galatea, golden maidens, golem (clay, flesh, glass, iron, stone), metallic dog, robot, Talos, ushabti

FAE CREATURES

GENERAL FAE: banshee, bean-nighe, boggart, bogie, bogles, brownie, buttery spirit, coblynau, dwarf, duergar, fachan, faerie, fir darrig, goblin, grig, hag, kelpie, knocker, kobold, leprechaun, nixie, nymph, pixie, phooka, redcap, satyr, spriggen, trow, wee folk, wichtlein, will o' the wisp

FAE RELATED: daoine sidhe, faerie islands, faerie glamour, faerie ring, faun, midsummer's eve, satyr, seelie court, theena shee, unseelie court, Tuatha-de-danann

WATER FAERIE: asrai, glastig, lorelei, mermaid, merrow, naiad, nixie, selkie, undine, Welsh water faerie

DEMON: aatxe, abatwa, ahpuch, aini, akvan, aldinach, ammit, asag, asura, azi-dahaka, babi, bali, bdud, bolla, bori, bunyip, changing bear maiden, cherufe, daevas, dasyus, demon of the lotus cave, djinn, dodo, domovoi, drug, duergar, eloko, fair lady, fox fairy, fujin, galla, gandarewa, gandharva, ganesha, ghoul, gong gong, guta, gwyllion, herensugue, hiranyakashipu, ho'ok, huwawa, ifrit, imdugud, incubus, isitwalangcengce, iya, jata, kaia, kalevanpojat, kappa, karina, kayeri, ke'lets, kelpie, dewanambo, khabhanda, kiliakai, kingu, kishi, kitchen fairies, kitsune, kitsune-tsuki, koschei, kulshedra, kumbhakarna, kuru-pira, lamia, leyak, liderc, lioumere, madame white, mahisha-asura, mahr, mamu, manuane, mara, mare, maruta, mbulu, merrow, mimi, mountain fairy, namarrgon, ngarara, night witch, ninimini, nisse, nixie, nuckelavee, oni, ox-demon, palis, patupaireche, pazuzu, pey, pishacha, ponaturi, psejpolnica, puck, rahu, rakshasa, ravana, red child, sebettu, shetan, skoggra, strigae, succubus, surem, tawiskaron, tengu, tiamat, tommy-knockers, udu, vodyanoi, vucub-caquix, white monkey, windigo, wood wives, yakirai, yaksas, yamantaka, yezerha-ra, yunwi-djunsti

DEVIL: abaddon, abigor, abraxas, adramelech, agares, ahriman, al, alastor, anarazel, asmodeus, astaroth, azazel,

CHAPTER 16 —

baal, balam, beelzebub, belial, bune, croucher, devalpa, div, dybbuk, flauros, forneus, gamygn, gerasene, huldre-folk, iblis, kosk, leshii, Lilith, Lucifer, malphas, mammon, marchocias, rusalka, samael, satanchia, shaitan, shedim

USAGE NOTE: The names, legends, and spellings of demons and devils vary widely depending upon the source. Research is required to understand the body of material about any particular demon or devil.

DRAGON: amber, ancient, Argonautica fleece guardian, Bibliotheca (classical Greek), black, blue, brass, bronze, copper, egg, emerald, emerald serpent, Euflamm, Fafnir Hreidmarsson, gold, gray, green, hatchling, hydra, jabberwock, Lydian, Melusine, miniature, pseudodragon, purple, red, reluctant dragon, ring dragon, ruby, sapphire, shadow, silver, skeleton, Theban, Tiamat, undead, violet, Völsunga Saga, white, young, zombie

USAGE NOTE: “Jabberwocky” is the name of the poem that appears in Louis Carroll’s book Through the Looking-Glass and What Alice Found There. The creature that is the subject of that poem is the Jabberwock, which has dragonlike characteristics.

ELEMENTAL: air, belker, earth, fire, lava, mud, salamander, steam, stone, water

EXTRAPLANAR: barghest, couatl, devourer, djinni, genie, night hag, imp, ghost naga, nightmare, salamander, shadow mastiff, tavis wyrn

GIANTS

USAGE NOTES: Virtually any creature can be designed in giant form, from an amoeba to a great blue whale. A plausible rationale for their existence is not always needed; nature is capable of some impressive extremes.

GIANT CREATURES: ant, eagle, frog, leech, lizard, lynx, octopus, otter, rat, spider, squid, tick, toad

GIANTS OF LEGEND: Aloadae, Antaeus, Argus Panoptes, Cacus, Echidnades, elder cyclopes, Gege-nees, Geryon, Hekatonkheires, Laestrygonians, Orion, Typhon

GIANT HUMANOIDS: cloud, fire, ettin, frost, hill, hundred-handed-ones, minotaur, mountain, ogre, ogre mage, roc, stone, storm, titan, troll

FLYING CREATURES: alkonost, bennu, berunda, birds of Ares, caladrius, Caucasian eagle, cetan, cham-rosh, cinnamon bird, devil bird, Ethiopian pegasoi, feng huang, gamayun, griffin, harpy, hippalektryon, Odin’s raven, owlman, phoenix, roc, Stymphalian birds, tengu, thunderbird, vermilion bird, Zeus’s eagle

HUMANOID: bugbear, gargoyle, genie, goblin, gorgon, green hag, hag, harpy, kobold, lizardman, lizard folk, locathah, Medusa, orc, rakshasa, troglodyte, troll, wolfman

USAGE NOTE: In Greek mythology, Medusa was the name of the female creature with snakes for hair who was capable of turning victims to stone. The term gorgon describes her race.

INSECTOID: Anansi, Arachne, Khepri, myrmecoleon, myrmidon, scorpion man

LYCANTHROPE: loup garou, werebear, wereboar, werepanther, werepython, wererat, wereraven, weretiger, werewolf

104 THE STORYTELLER’S THESAURUS

MONSTERS

USAGE NOTE: Lycanthropy is generally considered to be a fictitious disease transmitted through the bite of an infected individual. The victim suffers an unwilling transformation into an animal form, usually triggered by the full moon. The most common forms of lycanthropy in fiction and movies are canines and felines, but other creatures have also been adapted to lycanthropy, including pigs, pythons, rats, and ravens. The nature of lycanthropy varies widely in literature; in some cases, transformation can occur on demand, and in some lore, the individual retains memory and thought processes while transformed.

MYTHICAL CREATURES AND MONSTERS: abominable snowman, amphisbaena snake, Beast of Bray Road, Bigfoot, Cadmus snake, Calydonian boar, Charybdis, Chiron centaur, crommyonian sow, el chupacabra, Frankenstein monster, Gamera, gill-man, Godzilla, jackalope, Jersey Devil, kraken, Loch Ness monster, Mothra, mummy, Nagraj King of Snakes, Nessie, Questing Beast, Sasquatch, satyr, Scylla, siren, sphinx, ogopogo, Telchines, yeti

USAGE NOTE: The study of creatures that have not yet been proven to exist is cryptozoology.

FROM THE TWELVE LABORS OF HERCULES: Cereberus hound, Ceryneian hind, Cretan bull, Erymanthian boar, Geryon, Hesperides, Lernaean hydra, Mares of Diomedes, Nemean lion, Stympalian birds

PLANT: assassin vine, shambling mound, strangling vine, treant, Venus fly trap

OOZE: acidic ooze, blob, cave pudding, jelly, slime

SHAPECHANGER: changeling, doppelganger, lamia, nagual, shen, skinwalker, spriggan, tanuki, tengu

UNDEAD: apparition, banshee, bodak, ghast, ghost, ghou, lich, mummy, phantasm, phasma, phantom, shade, shadow, skeleton, specter, spirit, vampire, wight, wraith, zombie

MONSTER LAIRS AND LOCATIONS

USAGE NOTE: The list that follows offers suggested encounter locations or habitats for a variety of creatures and antagonists. Many of these suggestions are appropriate for numerous creatures. A “mix and match” approach is advised to custom tailor an appropriate setting; for example, an abandoned mine is listed for devil, but dozens of other creatures might inhabit an abandoned mine. Likewise, a devil could dwell almost anywhere. This list is not intended to limit, but to serve as an idea generator for habitat or encounter design.

AIR ELEMENTAL: cliff top, cloud castle, cumulus tower, sky hut, summoning circle

ANKYLOSAURIA: grassland, moor, oil bog, scrubland, swamp

BANSHEE: blighted forest, cliff spire, deserted mansion, orchard, ruined coach

BLACK DRAGON: cavern network, mountain cleft, overlook, swamp, valley

CENTAUR: badlands, farm field, hidden valley, oasis, thicket

DEITY, DEMIGOD: afterlife bridge, death's door, glitter caves, heaven, hell, lovers' leap, mirror lake, valley of doom, waterfall

DEVIL: abandoned mine, deserted island, fjord, glacier, volcano

DEMON: bog, dunes, summoning pentagram, ruin, stronghold

DWARF: citadel, crag, inn, shrine, smithy

ELF: bazaar, bower, forest, glen, hollow

CHAPTER 16 —

EARTH ELEMENTAL: burial mound, coal mine, monolith, summoning circle, wizard's tower
FEY: castle garden, glade, grotto, mountaintop, ring
FIRE ELEMENTAL: lava stream, magma pool, temple of flame, volcanic vent, wizard's keep GHOST: cursed locket, dungeon dead end, hero's grave, mystic mirror, necromancer's lab
GREEN DRAGON: creek, flooded caves, forest hatchery, hidden vale, oasis
GOBLIN: armor smithy, catacombs, combat practice field, hidden cove, mountain rift
GHOUL: cave network, crypt, sewers, swamp, tunnels
GNOME: fort, jewel mines, laboratory, labyrinth, temple
GOLD DRAGON: caravan route, cloud maze, diamond mine, fortification, mountain peak
HAG: bayou shanty, ice cave, jungle, maze complex, ruins
HALFLING: bakery, corn crib, farm field, hamlet, inn
HALF-ELF: caravan route, garden, glade, library, tower
HALF-ORC: arroyo, blockade, ravine, sepulcher, tor
KOBOLD: inlet, knob, timberland, rain forest, warren
LICH: crypt, enchanted portal, gulch, mortuary, ruined mosque
LIZARDMAN: bayou, coliseum, gully, market, tarn
MASTIFF: dales, hills, hunting grounds, moors, wasteland
NIGHT HAG: bayou, bog, boondocks, marsh, slum
OGRE: boggy glen, dark forest, quagmire, ruined villa, shaman hut
ORC: forge, moor, temple, tower, warren
PALADIN: castle, encampment, hunting party, temple, war room
PEGASUS: atoll, flying fortress, meadow, paddock, vale
RANGER: barn, bower, camp, tangle, waterway
RED DRAGON: bloodstone excavation, magma fountain, molten lair, mountain reach, volcano
SHADOW: alley, cavern, cell, haunt, rift
SHAMAN: den, hut, grotto, tree house, yurt
SILVER DRAGON: canyon, cloister, glacier, great salt marsh, waterfall
SKELETON: bayou, cove, drawbridge, steeple, shrine
SORCERER: gazebo, hillock, island, keep, mansion
STIRGE: crevasse, haunted hollow, ocean grotto, redwood nest, temple belfry
TITAN: badlands, hot springs, jungle, mountain peak, veldt
TREANT: brook, brushland, grove, raspberry patch, mountain valley
TROLL: abandoned barn, gulch, mountain pass, ruined bridge, watch tower
TROLL LORD: burial crypt, royal labyrinth, ruined castle, treasure vault, warren
TYRANOSAURUS REX: fen, isle, peninsula, plains, swamp
UNICORN: glade, grassland, orchard, stream, waterfall
VAMPIRE: bell tower, crypt, necropolis, plantation, sarcophagus
VELOCIRAPTOR: briar patch, jungle, lakeshore, nesting grounds, pyramid of the raptor
WATER ELEMENTAL: emerald pool, enchanted fountain, lake of the sword, tide pool, village well
WEREWOLF: abandoned farm, cliff cave, hidden glade, oak grove, warlock's lair
WITCH: abyss, cliff, gorge, hut, maze
WIZARD: dungeon, fortress, haven, portal, vineyard
ZOMBIE: barracks, churchyard, loft, shed, throne room

CHAPTER 17: MAGIC

For general supplies, see Wizards's Good in the chapter Equipment and Tools.

MAGIC VOCABULARY

EFFECTS, TYPES, AND SYNONYMS: absorb, absorbed, allure, alluring, amaze, amazing, amazement, arcane, artifice, apparition, astonishing, astounding, awe, awed, awestruck, bizarre, baffle, baffling, bamboozle, beckon, beckoning, befuddle, beguile, bemuse, bespell, bewilder, bewildering, bewilderment, bizarre, blight, brainteaser, captivate, captivated, clairvoyance, clairvoyant, charm, charmed, charming, chimera, clandestine, command, confound, confuse, conjure, control, controlling, conundrum, covert, craft, creepy, cryptic, curse, daydream, delusion, divine, disenchant, disenchanted, disillusion, dominate, dream, dreaming, eerie, enigmatic, enamored, enamored, enchant, enchanted, enchantment, engross, engrossed, enigma, enmesh, enrapture, enraptured, ensnare, enthrall, enthralled, entrance, entice, enticing, entranced, entrap, entrapped, envisioning, esoteric, extrasensory, fabulous, fancy, fantasize, fantasizing, fantastic, fantasy, farsighted, fascinate, foresight, foreboding, glamour, grip, gripped, hallucination, held, hex, hidden, hiding, hoax, hypnotize, illusion, illusionary, incredible, inducement, inexplicable, influence, immerse, impenetrable, inscrutable, invoke, lure, magic, magical, manipulate, mesmerize, mesmerized, mindreading, miracle, miracles, miraculous, mirage, mysteries, mysterious, mystery, mystic, mystical, myth, mythic, mythical, necromancy, numinous, obscure, obscurity, odd, oppress, paranormal, perceptive, persuasion, phantasm, poser, prediction, prophecy, psychic, puzzle, puzzlement, puzzling, rapt, rivet, riveted, riddle, riddling, ruse, sacred, second-sighted, secret, seize, sequester, shadow, spell, spellbound, sphinxlike, spiritual, stupefy, summon, supernatural, surreptitious, tangle, telepathic, telekinetic, tempt, temptation, trance, trick, trickery, uncanny, unexplained, unfathomable, unknowable, unknown, unnatural, unusual, unworldly, veiled, veiling, vision, weird, whimsy, wild, wish, wonder, wonderful

MAGICAL TRANSPORTATION

CREATURES: dragon, giant creatures (select a creature from the chapters Animals and Creatures or Monsters), griffin, hippogriff, mammoth, pegasus, roc, sphinx, unicorn, wyvern

DEVICES: bubble, broom, enchanted boots/shoes, enchanted cloud, flying boat, flying carpet, magical gate, magical hole, magical map, mirror, pocket ship, portal, waxed wings, wings

EFFECTS: astral travel, dancing, dimensional travel, fast movement, giant steps, flight, levitation, mist, planar travel, smoke, teleportation, tornado

USAGE NOTE: Almost any object might be imbued with the ability to provide magical transportation, from a feather or ring to a cloak or footwear. Such objects should be designed with the resources available to the creator in mind. Similarly, creatures or characters might possess an innate or magical ability such as teleportation, flight, or the ability to change into smoke. Elemental travel is the ability to travel great distances via clouds, earth, fire, lava, trees, or water (or similar objects) by stepping into a substance, such as a campfire or pool of water, and exiting via another source of fire or water.

MAGICAL OBJECTS AND SPELLS

Many genres of fiction incorporate enchanted objects. Tailoring a magical object to a specific setting requires some time and thought. Choose an object that makes sense in the setting and for the purposes of the creator. Then determine an enchantment for the object. Effects might be broad, such as repelling flying insects, or they might be specific, such as causing a tingling when a specific enemy is near. Carefully consider the intentions, capabilities, and resources of the creator when designing a magical item. A magnificent jeweled steel sword is not likely to be created by a primitive jungle tribe.

Spontaneous magical items are also possible. These might occur when an object is struck by lightning, held by a dying king, or passed down through many generations. The effects might manifest instantaneously or might develop gradually and strengthen over time.

CHAPTER 17 —

In addition to helpful or beneficial effects, magical objects might also be imbued with curses. When designing magical objects, remember that these items might carry beneficial as well as harmful (cursed) effects, and might even carry both.

CLASSIC MAGICAL OBJECTS

TYPICAL MAGICAL OBJECTS: amulet, armor, bracer, crystal ball, book, bowl, brazier, candle, cloak, dancing weapon, doll, drum, figurine, flying broom, flying carpet, genie bottle, grimoire, intelligent item, jewelry, musical instrument, pentacle, pentagram, phylactery, potion, ring, rod, scroll, singing item, staff, talking item, tome, vorpal blade, wand, weapon; See also the chapters Equipment and Tools; Combat, Armor, and Weapons; Clothing; and Legendary, Mysterious, and Mythical Items and Locations

ANIMATED ITEMS: These objects have the power to act on their own and can be designed to attack, defend, guard, spy, dance, sing, entrap, communicate, or perform any other specific purpose. They tend to be extremely rare and are sometimes imbued with intelligence. Select an appropriate item and define the specific parameters of its animation, including when and how the item is activated or deactivated.

DESIGNING MAGICAL OBJECTS

Select a weapon, item of clothing, piece of jewelry, or other object from the lists elsewhere in this book. Relate the magical effect to the object; for example, to create an item intended to confer enhanced speed, consider boots, shoes, a ring, a pin, or another small item that can be worn constantly and activated upon demand. A cloak, helmet, or shield is not a logical choice, but an argument can be made in the case of an insane wizard who created the object. As long as a plausible explanation can be made for the character designing the item, anything is possible.

DESIGNING SPELLS

Spell design is similar to object design. In theory, any spellcaster is capable of inventing a new spell. The power of the spell should relate to the ability of the caster. An apprentice wizard might be able to invent a spell to blow leaves away or repel mosquitoes, but likely isn't skilled enough to generate a tornado or block a raging dragon. Similarly, a wizard might work to build a new spell from one she already knows; a spellcaster who can repel mosquitoes might try to invent a new spell to repel bees, birds, rats, or eventually, a stampede of bison or antelope.

Spellcasters often learn spells from other casters, such as a mentor, or from a spellbook or scroll. The individual fantasy world will determine the parameters for learning and using spells; in some worlds, magic is scarce and hard-won, while in others, spellcasting is a common talent. When designing a new fantasy setting, authors must decide how prevalent and powerful magic will be.

Another idea to keep in mind is that accidents happen. A wizard who is at work designing a spell to create fireballs that rain down like hailstones is likely to have some mishaps, and should take precautions not to burn down his tower or corner of the forest. Likewise, many fictional characters have started trouble by attempting a spell beyond their power or reading from a spellbook without understanding the text. The possible plot devices are endless.

Magic doesn't have to make sense scientifically. If a wizard summons a griffin for a ride, most readers aren't worried about where the griffin comes from. Magic does need to be plausible within the confines of the setting. In a high fantasy setting, a wizard won't be able to summon a racecar. Similarly, magic needs to be balanced. Magic becomes boring if a character can perform any action with a snap of the fingers. When designing magic, limits upon the frequency and power of magic use are essential.

108 THE STORYTELLER'S THESAURUS

LIST OF POSSIBLE MAGICAL EFFECTS

A long list of possible magical effects is provided here for consideration in spells or magical items.

abjure	imbue symbol
absorb energy	imbue with power
adapt to climate	immunity to acid
adapt to surroundings	immunity to cold
agility	immunity to disease
aid companion	immunity to electricity
alarm	immunity to heat or fire
animate dead	immunity to magic

WITCHCRAFT

USAGE NOTE: The concept of whether witchcraft is real has been debated down through the centuries. The topic of witchcraft, however, provides a broad, deep, and rich source of plot devices, behaviors, groups, and activities. The reality of whether witchcraft is real is not debated in this book; in any given story or setting, it can be as real as an author wishes to make it. The task is then to make it plausible for the situation.

SECRET/MYSTICAL ORGANIZATIONS

USAGE NOTE: Hundreds of secret organizations have existed throughout history. Many began as secret societies but later became public knowledge. Some are open to the public and some by invitation only. Some are religious and some are purely secular.

The definition of religious in association with secret societies varies widely, and is dependent upon the goals of the organization itself. A Christian, Satanic, or druidic group might consider itself religious, but outside observers might not.

When referencing a secret society, extreme care is advised. Research is needed to understand the origins, goals, and workings of a society. The history of a society is also important, as well as an understanding of any progression from secret to public, especially when using a secret society in historical context.

CHAPTER 19 — SYMBOLOGY & SYMBOLIC OBJECTS AND PLACES

CLASSIC HERALDRY

USAGE NOTE: The main part of the design is the escutcheon or shield.

CADENCY MARK: label, crescent, molet, martlet, annulet, fleur-de-lis, rose, cross moline, octofoil/double quatrefoil

USAGE NOTE: Cadency marks identify the birth order of the bearer; in this list, the marks are in order from the first to the ninth son.

CHARGES: beast, bird, cross, crown, chaplet, chapeaux, fish, helmet, human, insect, military item, monster, nautical, ordinary, plant, reptile, roundel, tree, weapon

USAGE NOTE: Any animal is possible as a heraldic charge, but some are historically popular and thus more “authentic.” When using heraldry, consider the time period and level of historical accuracy desired.

COLORS/TINCTURES: argent (silver), azure (blue), gules (red), or (gold), purpure (purple), sable (black), vert (green)

ELEMENTS: compartment, crest, crown, ground, helm, insignia, mantle, motto, shield, supporter, torse

CHAPTER 19 —

Monday's Child Rhyme

Monday's child is fair of face,
Tuesday's child is full of grace,
Wednesday's child is full of woe,
Thursday's child has far to go,
Friday's child is loving and giving,
Saturday's child works hard for a living,
And the child born on the Sabbath day
Is fair and wise and good and gay.

VILLAIN: antagonist, assassin, bad guy, black hat, brute, captor, contract killer, criminal, cruel person, demolisher, destroyer, enemy, eradicator, evil doer, executioner, fiend, gangster, goon, hood, hooligan, killer, lout, mobster, murderer, Nazi, persecutor, predator, punk, ruffian, slaughterer, slayer, subjugator, thug, torturer, wicked person, witch, wrongdoer

HERO OR VILLAIN, DEPENDING UPON CIRCUMSTANCE: adversary, collaborator, competitor, conqueror, defector, deserter, double agent, hired gun, king, mole, opponent, person of interest, rival, spy, traitor, turncoat, undercover agent, unknown subject

JOURNEY: adventure, circuit, crossing, cruise, day trip, detour, excursion, expedition, exploration, flight, getaway, hike, honeymoon, jaunt, long weekend, march, mission, outing, passage, ramble, spree, stroll, tour, tramp, trek, trip, trudge, vacation, voyage, walkabout, wander

VERBS

AGREE: accept, allow, approve, authorize, bear witness, consent, endorse, okay, permit, sanction, satisfy, say aye, say yes, support, testify, tolerate

BUY: accept, achieve, acquire, add, approve, augment, attain, bargain, barter, bid, catch, collect, compensate, develop, enhance, enlarge, escalate, expand, find, fuel, gain, get, grasp, hire, improve, increase, nurture, obtain, pay, procure, purchase, raise, realize, reap, receive, remuneration, secure, seize, snatch, successfully negotiate, swell, take, take in, upgrade, win

CLEAN: bathe, brush, buff, cleanse, clear, comb, dab, declutter, decontaminate, disinfect, dry clean, dry mop, dust, filter, fluff, freshen, fumigate, iron, launder, make germ-free, make hygienic, mop, neaten, neutralize, pick up, polish, purify, organize, rake, rinse, rinse out, rub, sanitize, scour, scrub, shine, sort, spring clean, sterilize, swab, sweep, tidy, vacuum, wash, wax, weed, wipe

CLOSE/HOLD: appropriate, bar, barricade, block, bolt, bring under control, capture, chain, close up, clutch, confine, confiscate, curb, curtail, daunt, dead bolt, detain, deter, encumber, engulf, fasten, grab, grasp, hinder, hold in custody, impede, impound, imprison, incarcerate, inhibit, inter, keep, limit, lock, lock up, obstruct, overwhelm, put up the shutters, restrain, seal, secure, seize, sequester, shut, slam, snatch, stop, thwart, trap

COMMANDS: climb, come, drive, enter, exit, giddyup, go, halt, hurry, leave, move, park, stop, turn, wait, whoa

COOK: bake, blister, boil, braise, broast, brown, bubble, burn, caramelize, char, deep fry, fizz, flambé, flame, froth, fry, grill, griddle fry, gut, hard boil, harden, heat, microwave, oven roast, overheat, poach, reheat, roast, sauté, scald, scorch, simmer, singe, smolder, soft boil, steam, stew, stir fry, sweat, toast, warm up

COOKING TECHNIQUES: add, beat, blend, butcher, carve, chill, chop, combine, cool, cover, crack, cut, dice, dip, divide, drizzle, drop, dry, fold, frost, grate, ice, julienne, lace, layer, measure, mince, moisten, pack, pound, press, put through sieve, roll, salt, score, season, shape, sift, slice, spread, sprinkle, stir, strain, stuff, tie, wrap, whip

CREATE: build, coin, conceive, conjure up, construct, craft, design, devise, envisage, envision, establish, fashion, form, formulate, generate, initiate, invent, make, originate, picture, produce

EXPLORATION: See the chapter Transportation

CHAPTER 20 —

FIX: arrange, assemble, attach, bond, build, compile, connect, construct, craft, develop, erect, fabricate, fasten, fiddle, fit, form, glue, handle, hook up, install, join, link up, make, manipulate, manufacture, mend, nail, orchestrate, organize, patch up, place, plan, position, put in, put right, put in order, raise, renovate, repair, resolve, rig, screw, secure, set up, sew, shape, staple, stick, straighten, structure, tape, tie

HARM: abuse, ache, assault, batter, beat, become rancid, blemish, blight, block, bruise, bully, bump, burn, corrode, damage, dent, destroy, deteriorate, devastate, drown, endanger, explode, hit, hurt, impair, implode, injure, kidnap, maltreat, mar, mistreat, molest, mutilate, neglect, oxidize, pillage, pinch, poison, poke, punch, rape, risk, rot, ruin, scratch, sore, spoil, starve, sting, strangle, suffocate, taint, tarnish, torture, weaken, wear, whip, withhold care, worsen, wound

KILL: abolish, annihilate, assassinate, bloodbath, bump off, butcher, contract killing, decimate, defeat, demolish, destroy, eliminate, eradicate, execute, exterminate, lay waste, mass execution, massacre, murder, obliterate, purge, put to death, ravage, raze, serial killing, slay, slaughter, snuff, stamp out, take life, waste, wipe out

LEARN: absorb, analyze, ascertain, be taught, categorize, classify, delve, detect, determine, develop, discern, discover, distinguish, experiment, expand, explore, expose, find out, gain knowledge, grow, hear, identify, investigate, perceive, pinpoint, practice, prepare, progress, realize, research, reveal, search, sense, study, uncover, understand

LOCOMOTION: See the chapter Transportation

LOVE: adore, attracted to, care for, commit, craze, dedicated, delight, desire, devoted, enjoy, fancy, faithful, feel affection, fervor, fidelity, find irresistible, fondness for, friend, infatuate, keen, kiss, like, loyal, lust, obsess, passionate, want, worship, zeal

OPEN/RELEASE: ajar, blow a hole in, boundless, breach, break down, come undone, detach, discharge, disengage, disentangle, emancipate, emit, extrude, facilitate, free, gaping, let go, let loose, liberate, open wide, pick, release, rip open, unbolt, unbound, unbutton, unchain, uncouple, undo, unfasten, unfetter, unknot, unleash, unlock, unravel, unscrew, unstitch, untangle, untie, unwrap, unyoke, work out

SOLVE: analyze, appraise, ascertain, assess, bargain, bring to light, calculate, carry out, clarify, come around, commiserate, compromise, compute, conceive, conclude, consider, decipher, decode, deduce, determine, disentangle, disprove, elucidate, estimate, evaluate, examine, experiment, explain, figure, formulate, gauge, guesstimate, hypothesize, interpret, investigate, judge, lightbulb goes on, mull over, negotiate, prove, question, reckon, reconnoiter, rendezvous, resolve, reveal, scrutinize, strategize, study, synchronize, test, theorize, think, translate, try

SPEAK: allege, answer, argue, ask, bark, bawl, bellyache, bleat, blubber, buzz, call, complain, counter, cry, declare, defy, drone, exclaim, gossip, gripe, growl, holler, howl, hum, moan, order, query, quip, reply, respond, retort, roar, shriek, screech, scream, shout, snarl, snap, snivel, sob, squeak, squeal, state, taunt, wail, weep, whimper, whisper, whine, yap, yell, yelp, yowl

USAGE NOTE: When replacing the word “said” in dialogue tags, caution is advised not to overuse alternate verbs. This can lead to slow, cluttered prose.

USAGE NOTE: In dialogue tags, care should be taken not to use verbs that do not refer to speech, such as jumped, swung, turned, or danced. Only verbs that are synonyms for speaking are appropriate in dialogue tags.

INCORRECT: “I can’t wait to go to the party!” Mary danced.

CORRECT: “I can’t wait to go to the party!” Mary exclaimed.

SWIMMING STROKES: See the chapter Transportation

TEACH: advance, aid, alert, assist, coach, drill, edify, educate, explain, help, instruct, lecture, mentor, school, stimulate, test, train, tutor

132 THE STORYTELLER’S THESAURUS

CHAPTER 21—STORY ELEMENTS AND TREASURE

COMMON CHARACTER ARCHETYPES: absent-minded professor, abused servant, abusive spouse, adopted child, adoptive parent, angry mob, archenemy, babysitter, blackmailed victim, blackmailer, boy next door, boy who cried wolf, bully, bumbling law enforcement, cannon fodder, caveman/woman, charlatan, child raised by wolves, child with disability, child with supernatural power, child with undiscovered magic talent, child with undiscovered skill, cleric/priest, competitor, con artist, contender, creepy child, creepy neighbor, crone, damsel in distress, dark knight, dark lady, dark lord, delicate girl with fighting prowess, divine intervention, donor, dowager, dumb athlete, dumb blond, elderly master of a craft or skill, epic hero, everyman, evil advisor, evil child, evil clown, evil law enforcement, evil robot, evil twin, fairy godmother, false hero, falsely accused person, farmer's daughter, femme fatale, folk hero, fool, forbidden friend/lover, fortuneteller, genius, gentleman thief, girl next door, grande dame, greedy person, gunfighter, hag, handsome prince, harlequin, headmaster, headmistress, healer, helpful celebrity, henchman, hermit, hero, heroine, hobo/tramp, hotshot/showoff, housebound relative, imposter, ingenue, jealous lover, jock, jungle girl/boy, kidnapped person, kind woman with lowly profession, king, knight, lady in waiting, lazy spouse/child, loner, lost soldier, lovable rogue, lovers, madman/woman, mad scientist, magical friend, masked villain, mentor, miser, mistress, monster, mysterious benefactor, nerd/geek, nice guy, noble savage, object of affection, oldest/youngest son/daughter, orphan, overbearing parent, overconfident competitor, performer, pickpocket, pirate, primitive hero, prince, princess, princess and dragon/beast, prophet, puppet, queen, religious fanatic, reluctant hero, rescuer, rogue law enforcement, romantic interest, savior, scoundrel, shaman, sidekick, slave, snake oil salesman, soldier, squire, stable boy, stepparent, stepsister/brother, stowaway, superhero, super villain, washbuckler, toady, town drunk, tragic hero, traveling salesman, trickster, unpleasant/mean celebrity, victim, village idiot, villain, wanderer, wealthy snob, widow/widower, wise old man/woman, witch, wizard, yokel

PARANORMAL THEMES AND CONCEPTS

PARANORMAL ABILITIES: astral travel, confusion, cryokinesis, death field, de-evolution, density control, detection, domination, dual mentality, empathy, force field, genius, healing, heightened intelligence, illusion, intuition, invisibility, levitation, life leech, magnetic control, mass mind, mental blast, mental control, mental shield, mental mapping, mind blast, mind wipe, molecular disruption, out of body experience, pain transmission, phasing, photographic memory, planar travel, precognition, pyrokinesis, reflection, repulsion, telekinesis, telekinetic arm, telepathy, teleportation, temporal fugue, time manipulation, weather manipulation, will force

PARANORMAL ACTIVITY: analysis, examination, explore, exploration, ferret, haunt, haunting, hound, hunt, inquest, inquisition, inquiry, inspection, investigation, poltergeist, probe, pursuit, quest, research, scrutinize, scrutiny, séance, search, seek, stalk, study, survey, track

PARANORMAL OCCUPATIONS: ghost buster, ghost hunter, medium, paranormal researcher, psychic researcher, sensitive

PARANORMAL OCCURRENCES: apparition, bang, breeze, candles flicker, cold spot, contact, disembodied voice, door opens/closes, figure, footstep, groan, knock, levitation, missing item, moan, moving object, presence, mumble, pull, push, rattle, reflection, shadow, speck of light, spirit orb, spooked animal, tap, threat, touch, vapor, vision visit, whisper, window opens/closes

WESTERN THEMES

WESTERN PLOT DEVICES: aging gunfighter's last shootout, aliens take over western town, bad guy is secret agent, bank robbery, barbed wire blocks travel, barn dance results in fight/jealousy/marriage, barren land discovered to be valuable, bigot learns empathy for ethnic group, bison herd, cattle drive, cavalry post, Civil War begins, Civil War divides family, Civil War ends, confederate raiders attack town, crooked mayor/sheriff, dance hall girl tempts preacher, dance hall girl turns respectable, defiled Indian burial ground initiates curse, drunk becomes hero, evil railroad tries to steal land, evildoers turn good after hellish nightmare, family ranch taken by carpetbaggers, gambler cheats at cards, gold discovery, gold rush, gold/silver boom town, gun fight at the O.K. corral, gunslinger hired for task, hanging of innocent cowboy, hired gunslinger challenges duel to the death, horse race yields big loss, horse race yields big win, huge wild dog adopts family, impoverished family receives windfall, Indian princess has romance with white man, Indian raid, Indian saves life of white man, Indians hide gold deposits, kidnapped child, marriage proposal, new gun dazzles villain, newspaper man discovers secret and fights to survive, old man becomes hero, preacher tries to convert dance hall girl, preacher turns to drink, revenge, rich land baron is villain, spoiled son commits murder and escapes consequences, stage coach robbery, starving village refused aid by rich family, stranger/angel aids desperate family, stranger/angel teaches a lesson, town is overrun by bandits/Indians/soldiers, town needs a new sheriff, train coming with goods/treasure, train coming with prisoner, train robbery, traveling preacher fakes miracles, Union and Confederate soldiers go home, white man trained by Indians, white settlers attacked by Indians, white settlers saved by Indians, wildfire, zombies rise from Boot Hill

STORY ELEMENTS AND TREASURE

WESTERN CLOTHING/DRESS: apron, badges, bandana, bandolier, blue jeans, bolo tie, boots, bowler hat, buckskin jacket, bustle, cape, chaps, chemise, corset, cowboy boots, cowboy hat, dance hall dress, deerskin breeches, duster, fan, floor-length skirt, fringed leather jacket, garter belt, gingham/calico dress, granny boots, great coat, gun belt, holster, homespun fabric, knee socks, knickers, large belt buckle, leather apron, neckerchief, nightshirt, ornate ladies' hat, ostrich plumes, parasol, plaid shirt, scarf, shawl, sheriff's badge, sleeve garters, sombrero, spurs, string tie, sun bonnet, Sunday dress, ten gallon hat, union suit, vest, Western shirt, white shirt with stiff collar, wool stockings

FAMOUS WESTERN LOCATIONS: Abilene, Alamo, Arizona territory, Boot Hill Graveyard, California, Carson City, Comstock Lode, Deadwood, Dodge City, Ellsworth, Fort Laramie, ghost town, Hole in the Wall, Little Bighorn, Mexican border, Oregon Trail, Rio Grande River, Salt Lake, Santa Fe Trail, Sierra Madre Mountains, Silver City, Tombstone, Virginia City

WESTERN PARAPHERNALIA/PEOPLE: Annie Oakley, bale of hay, bandit, barbed wire, Bat Masterson, Battle of the Little Bighorn, bison, Black Bart, blood brothers, boom town, bronco riding, buffalo, Buffalo Bill Cody, Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show, California Gold Rush, cattle drive, cattle herd, cattle ranch, cattlemen, Chief Crazy Horse, chuck wagon, Clanton brothers, clipper ship, Confederate States, counting coup, coup stick, covered wagon, cowboy, deputy, Doc Holliday, fort, gambler, general store, George Armstrong Custer, gold (claim, dust, mine, miner, pan, rush), gunslinger, hold-up, Hole in the Wall Gang, homestead, horse, Indian chief, Indian scout, Indian shaman, land rush, lynch mob, lynching, marshal, maverick, O.K. Corral, one-room schoolhouse, paddle wheeler, Pinkerton detective, poker, Pony Express, preacher, quick draw, range war, rifle sheath, river boat, river boat captain, rodeo, saddle, saddle blanket, saloon, saloon brawl, school marm, sharpshooter, sheep ranchers, showdown, Sitting Bull, stage coach, staking a claim, telegraph, tenderfoot, Texas Jack, tobacco, transcontinental railroad, twenty dollar gold piece, vigilante, wagon train, Wells Fargo, whisky, Wild Bill Hickok, Wyatt Earp

WESTERN WEAPONS: bow and arrow, buffalo rifle, cap and ball pistol/rifle, cavalry saber, coach gun, Colt lightning carbine, Colt peacemaker, Colt 45, derringer, French rifled cannon, Gatling gun, howitzer, knife (Bowie, clasp, flint, throwing), lance, lasso, Sharps 50 caliber rifle, shot gun, Smith & Wesson revolver, spear, tomahawk, Winchester rifle

TREASURE

COINS AND CURRENCY: clay, crown, bars, bronze, bronze shell, bullion, copper, dime, dollar, doubloon, electrum, Euro, folding money, gold, gold Doric, gold eagle, gold maple leaf, half-cent, half-dollar, iron, Krugerrand, nickel, quarter, palladium, paper money, penny, pieces of eight, platinum, silver, siglos, sovereign, steel, two bits, two-cent, twenty-cent, twenty-dollar gold piece, wooden, zinc

USAGE NOTE: Coins vary widely in size, shape, and material based upon an individual culture. Currency can be designed using materials that are available or considered valuable depending on the setting. In addition to metals, currency might consist of beads, cloth, hides, iron, jade, paper, shells, silk, spices, salt, tea, wood, or other material; some of these have a historical foundation.

CHAPTER 21 —

PRECIOUS METALS: brass, bronze, copper, gold, gold leaf, gold plate, platinum, rose gold, silver, silver plate, sterling silver, titanium, white gold, yellow gold; other metals or alloys unique to a setting

GEMS AND JEWELRY

USAGE NOTE: The value of gems depends upon size, clarity, color, cut, inclusions, and rarity.

STANDARD GEMS: agate, agate geode, alexandrite, almandine garnet, amazonite, amber, amethyst, ametrine, ammolite, andalusite, andesine labradorite, apatite, aquamarine, aventurine, axinite, azotic topaz, beryl, bloodstone, boulder opal, calcite, carnelian, cassiterite, chalcedony, charoite, chocolate opal, chrome diopside, chrome tourmaline, chrysoberyl, chrysocolla, chrysoprase, citrine, clinohumite, color-change diaspore, color-change garnet, color-change sapphire, coral, danburite, demantoid garnet, dendritic agate, diamond, dumortierite quartz, emerald, epidote, fire agate, fire opal, fluorite, garnet, goshenite, grossularite garnet, hambergite, hematite, hemimorphite, hessonite garnet, howlite, idocrase, iolite, jadeite, jasper, kunzite, kyanite, labradorite, lapis lazuli, larimar, lepidolite, malachite, Mali garnet, maw-sit-sit, moonstone, morganite, mystic quartz, mystic topaz, obsidian, opal, opal doublet, orthoclase, pearl, peridot, pietersite, prehnite, pyrope garnet, quartz, quartz cat's eye, rainbow moonstone, rhodochrosite, rhodolite garnet, rose quartz, rubellite tourmaline, ruby, ruby-zoisite, rutile quartz, rutile topaz, sapphire, scapolite, seraphinite, serpentine, sillimanite cat's eye, smithsonite, smoky quartz, snowflake obsidian, sodalite, spessartite garnet, sphalerite, sphene, spinel, spodumene, strawberry quartz, sugilite, sunstone, tanzanite, tiger's eye, tiger's eye matrix, topaz, tourmaline, tsavorite garnet, turquoise, variscite, zircon

CAT'S EYE GEMS: aquamarine, andalusite, chrysoberyl, cordierite, corundum, cymophane, emerald, feldspar, fibrolite, iolite, kornepurine, quartz, rhodonite, rutile, scapolite, sillimanite, spinel, tanzanite, tourmaline, zircon

USAGE NOTE: The classic cat's eye gem is the golden brown chrysoberyl. The cat's eye effect, known as chatoyancy, is caused by parallel inclusions in the stone. Chatoyancy is possible in a number of gemstones, some of which are exceedingly rare.

STAR GEMS: aquamarine, chrysoberyl, diopside, garnet, moonstone, quartz, rose quartz, ruby, sapphire (dark blue, dark purple, gray, red), sillimanite, spinel (pink, purple), sunstone

USAGE NOTE: Star gems result from a condition that is similar to that found in cat's eye gems. Aligned needlelike inclusions create the star effect, called asterism. Value depends upon color and rarity.

GEM CUTS: baguette, bead, buff top, cabochon, cross, cross vault, cushion, emerald, French, marquise, navette, octagon, opposed bar, oval, pear, princess, radiant, round, square, step, trapeze, triangle, trilliant, trillion

JEWELRY: accessory, adornment, anklet, armlet, badge, band, bangle, bauble, bead, bell, belt, bracelet, bracer, brooch, buckle, button, cameo, catch, chain of office, charm, chatelaine, choker, circle, cirlet, clasp, clip, coat of arms, collar, collar pin, comb, corona, coronet, crest, crown, cylinder seals, cuff link, curio, decoration, device, diadem, disk, dog tags, earring, ear cuff, emblem, embroidered, great seal, keepsake, key, knickknack, knot, feather, fastener, girdle, grill, hair comb, hairpin, halo, headband, headdress, heraldic sign, honor, hook, hoop, icon, insignia, leash, locket, loop, mask, medal, medallion, memento, necklace, nimbus, nose (chain, jewel, ring, stud), orb, ornament, pendant, perfume pendant, pin, popper, ring, shell, slide, souvenir, sphere, strap, stud, symbol, talisman, tiara, tie, tie bar, tie pin, toe ring, torque, trinket, vase pin, waist chain, wreath, wristlet; See also Jewelry in the chapter Clothing

CHAPTER 22 — SCIENCE FICTION

The purpose of this chapter is not to be comprehensive, but to present a variety of concepts as reference and idea generators. Every effort has been made to present general concepts and not copyrighted material. In science fiction writing, care must be taken not to borrow proprietary terms from existing fiction, movies, or television without permission.

LITERARY CLASSIFICATIONS

SCIENCE FICTION GENRES: adventure, alternate future, alternate history, alternate universe, doomsday, erotica, graphic novel, gothic, historical, horror, humor, mystery, nanotechnology, new wave, occult, romance, science fantasy, slipstream, space opera, space supernatural, space western, superhero, weird, western

PLOT DEVICES: abnormal rate of growth, alien, alien experimentation, alien kidnapping, alien first contact, alien invasion, alternate life forms (android, cyborg, hive mind, mentally advanced/physically weak, pure mentality, replicant), anarchy, android takeover, animal control, animal swarm, animal takeover, apocalypse, artificial intelligence, bio-implants, biomedical engineering, caste system, celestial object on course for Earth, center of the earth, cloning, colonization, cross-breeding, creation of the universe, cryonics, cybernetics, dark future, discovery of God, dystopia, end of the world, eugenics, false gods, far future, futuristic weapons, galactic empire, generation ship, giant creatures/humans/insects, grandparent paradox, habitat (alien zoo, domed city, floating city, space station, underwater colony), hidden race on Earth, historical cycles repeating, horror, hostages, immortality, insect takeover, hyperspace, insatiable hunger, last person on Earth, megalomaniac, military takeover, military technology, mind interfacing, mutants, mystery, nanotechnology, natural disaster, out-of-control experiment, parallel universe, psi powers (clairvoyance, mental control, telepathy, telekinesis), predictions of the future, ransom, religion, robots, time loops, time travel, secret organizations, sex, shrinking humans, slavery, sonic weapon, space exploration, space opera, space pirates, stranded space traveler, sun burning out, terraforming, UFO, underground civilization, utopia, war monger, wormhole

GENERAL CONCEPTS

COMMON DANGERS: alien invasion, android rebellion, asteroid hitting Earth, collision, extinct bacteria/animal resurfaces, extreme cold, extreme heat, genetically altered animals turn violent, life support failure, plants take over people, radiation, robot rebellion, viral outbreak

ENERGY SOURCES/TYPES: animal powered, atomic, beta-particle, biomass, chemical, combustion, cosmic, cryogenic, electrolaser, electricity, electromagnetic, fission, fossil fuel, fusion, gamma radiation, geothermal, gravity, human powered, hydroelectric, hydrogen, ionizing, kinetic, mechanical, methane, natural gas, neutron, photon-intermediate, plasma, propane, radiation, reflected, solar, steam, tectonic, thermal, thermodynamic, ultraviolet radiation, wind

INSTALLATIONS: domed colony, floating city, Earth colony, lunar station, mining station, observation station, satellite station, solar energy collection satellite, stellar transport portal, sun station, underground city, underwater domed city, monorail mass transit

MONSTERS AND CREATURES: angel, animal with implanted weapons, android, atomic creature/human, berserk killer robot, brain-eating creatures, crazed artificial intelligence, chemically altered animal, cross-bred mad animal, demon, dimension-crossing creature, electromagnetic beast, giant human, giant bugs, intelligent animals, gelatinous animal, gene-spliced predator, giant amoeba, intelligent bacteria, intelligent slime, mind controlling creature, missing link, mutant, nano-beasts, parasites, phase creature, plasma creature, prehistoric animal, prehistoric human, radioactive creature, reptilian humanoid, robotic guardian, sentient plant, thermal creature, time traveler, wizard-like maniac, worm, zombie

OCCUPATIONS: administrator, A.I. programmer, android designer, astronaut, battle group commander, cook, drive engineer, empaths, explorer, first officer, interrogator, medic, paranormal investigator, pilot, pirate, planet regulator, quantum chemist, robot technician, scientist, space station coordinator, space outpost architect, star colony planner, starship captain, starship marine, starship trooper, telepath, theorist, warp drive pilot/engineer

CHAPTER 22 —

PHYSICAL MUTATIONS: acid secretion, ambidexterity, antennae, aromatic power, carapace, chameleon change, density control, double brain, dual organ, electrical generation, energy reflection, flight, fungicide, gas generation, gills, heat generation, heat resistance, heightened sense (agility, balance, dexterity, hearing, smell, strength, taste, touch, vision), immunity, improved metabolism, increased height, increased size, infravision, light generation, lightning rod, multiple body parts, oversized body parts, physical reflection, poison flesh, poison glands, quills, regeneration, repulsive odor, secretion, shapechanging, shortened height, sonar, sonic abilities, speech, swift movement, temperature resistance, ultravision, vampirism, webbed fingers, webbed toes, wings, X-ray vision

TRAVEL TYPES: astral, dimensional, gate, ground transportation, ley, light speed, magical, phase, portal, ship, space, spirit, stasis, teleportation, time, underwater, warp

GEAR AND VEHICLES

CLOTHING/UNIFORMS: battle armor, coveralls, diaphanous gowns, gravity boots, hazmat suit, life support suit, military dress, powered armor, radiation-proof suit, silver space suit, sun protection, space combat armor, space suit, space transport armor

DEVICES: air scrubber, artificial intelligence, artificial limb, automated medical, bioengineered medication, breathing apparatus, cloaking device, communication device, conveyor belt sidewalk/road, decoder, diagnostic medical scanner, disintegration beam, force field generator, gene repair system, holographic generator, interface, invisibility generator, regeneration technology, shrink ray, stasis pod, teleportation device, tractor beam, time travel device

ROBOTS: alien mechanical, android, animal mimic, automaton, battlebot, cleaning, clockwork mechanical, constructionbot, engineering, horticultural, humanlike, humanoid, insectoid, interpreter, maintenance, medical, nanobot, repair, security, self-reconfiguring, service, spacebot, swarmbot, telerobot, transportation, unmanned combat, warbot

VEHICLES: air board, anti-gravity sled, anti-inertia sled, asteroid miner, bathysphere, deep sea explorer, dimensional slider, fusion sleigh, hover craft, jet pack, lunar lander, lunar rover, portal scout, speeder, unmanned submarine, unmanned surface destroyer

WEAPONS: bomb (antimatter, black hole, dark matter, fusion, gamma, gauss, graviton, neutron, plasma), cannon (atomic, death ray, ion, plasma), dagger/sword (electro, energy, molecule edged, vibro), grenade (electro pulse, flash, paralysis, plasma, smart, sonic, sticky, stun), missile (antimatter, atomic, concussion, cryo, dark matter, fission, fusion, gravity, neutron, nova, planet buster, plasma, ship-killer, sun-killer, thermal), pistol or rifle (black ray, blaster, crystal, death ray, disintegration, fission, fusion, gauss, incendiary, laser, missile, needler, particle beam, plasma, protein disruptor, pulse, radiation, rail gun, slug thrower, sonic, tangier), unique (confining, cryonic, darkness generating, energy bolo, force field generator, paralyzing, stunning, torture device, vaporizing)

SPACESHIPS

SPACESHIP DRIVE SYSTEMS: antimatter, atomic, dark matter, faster-than-light, fission, fusion, gravity, hyperatomic, ion, ley, magnetic pulse, nuclear pulse propulsion, photon, plasma, psionic, quark, ramjet, reaction, rocket, solar wind, steampunk, thermal hydrogen, time, total conversion, trash conversion, uranium fueled, warp, water, wave motion

SPACESHIP SHAPES: animal, bat, bird, boat, capsule, cigar, cube, insect, irregular, oval, platform, pyramid, rocket, saucer, sphere, triangle

SPACESHIP TYPES: cargo, colony, cruise ship, deep space probe, escape pod, evacuation, explorer, generation, military (battle cruiser, battleship, carrier, cloaked scout, cruiser, destroyer, dreadnought, frigate, gunship, light cruiser, scout, shuttle, supply tender, tender, unmanned, warship), miner, private yacht, probe, space bus, spaceliner, starship, solar sail clipper, stratocruiser

CHAPTER 23: HORROR

This chapter presents a multitude of horror concepts and idea starters. Horror literature is a genre that frequently recycles common concepts and gives them a new twist; dozens of books and movies have been produced using vampires, zombies, Frankenstein's monster, aliens, deranged slashers, and so on. When writing in these genres, authors need to ask themselves what makes their material original or unique, and what new challenges face the protagonists or what clever solutions the protagonists can apply to entertain the audience.

Moments of fright can be incorporated into almost any fiction without turning the story into a horror product. Frightful moments help keep a reader's interest, build suspense, and add variety when used appropriately. Many memorable scenes have been written about the solitary damsel who hears a noise that's only the wind or a small animal, or about the concealed heroes who fear they have been discovered but a passerby fails to notice them. Often, moments of fright can provide comic relief.

True horror is different from fright. True horror challenges an audience's concept of reality or normalcy. In the real world, serial killers, monster aliens, zombies, and vampires are not supposed to exist. (We know that serial killers do exist, although they oppose our concepts of sanity and civilized society. And the jury is still out regarding the monster aliens.) To create true horror, an author must conceive a situation that challenges reality. A group of kids exploring an abandoned house can be suspenseful and frightening, but in order to achieve horror (if that's the author's intent), something bigger and deeper must be involved: the gateway to hell, a witches' coven, a mad scientist, a cannibal, and so on. Understanding the difference between fright and horror will help an author craft a plot and build appropriate scenes. An author must also have a sense of the story's purpose—whether a light, spooky, suspenseful adventure for pre-teens, or a bloodcurdling tale of a psychotic torturer for cast-iron adults.

An important horror device deserves discussion: isolation. Many books and movies use isolation to build horror. When the heroes are on a spaceship and can't expect help to arrive for several weeks, or the family is holed up in a snowbound hotel, or the explorers are on an island and the ferry won't be back until morning, the audience feels the isolation and knows that the heroes must fend for themselves. This immediately instills a degree of suspense and danger, and many authors use isolation to great advantage.

All authors hear the advice show, don't tell. It means that we don't merely describe an old house as spooky—we depict it as a house so ancient and sinister that it seemed to stare back at passersby. As an element of showing, good authors remember to make use of the five senses, and this is especially important in horror writing. Spooky or horrific sights are a good start, but what really brings a scene to life are the dripping or rustling sounds, the smells of rot or a stale tomb, the brush of a spider web or tremor of a footstep, or more rarely, the taste of bile or bitter air.

Finally, note that horror crosses paths with many other genres, including fantasy, romance, and science fiction. Horror doesn't have to be a slasher film or the genius serial killer cannibal—it can be a subtle moment to give the reader a chill, serve as a distraction, or deepen a developing mystery.

LITERARY CLASSIFICATIONS

HORROR GENRES: alien meddling, alternate Earth, alternate future, alternate history, alternate universe, ancient creature/civilization brought back to life, animal/insect swarm, demons, disaster traps people in office building/cruise ship, discovery of unknown creature/civilization, doomsday, dystopian society, erotica, escaped criminal/lunatic, exorcism, ghosts/spirits/haunting, giant creatures, gothic, graphic novel, historical, human sacrifice, humor, large scale disaster, man-made disaster, medical epidemic, medical experimentation, mystery, natural disaster, object/doll brought to life, occult, paranormal events, possession, religious prophecy comes true, romance, romantic horror, science fantasy, science fiction, serial killer, shipwreck, slasher, steampunk, teenagers trapped and stalked, undead/zombie uprising, vampires, Victorian horror, war crimes/atrocities, western, witchcraft

HORROR PLOT DEVICES: aliens, aliens regard human race as food source, ancient curse, ancient gods threaten humanity, ancient monster released during mining operation, ancient society drinks blood of virgins to remain young, ancient spell, ancient/alien technology activates and threatens destruction, android turns on creator, androids, asteroid on collision course with Earth, bad weather isolates campers/travelers/residents, beautiful

APPENDIX A: COMMONLY CONFUSED WORDS

Dozens of words in the English language are frequently confused with words that have similar spelling and sound, or similar purpose and function. What follows is a guide to those easily confused words to aid in proper word choice. This list focuses on words that might trouble the fantasy, horror, science fiction, or historical author.

BREACH/BREECH

A breach is a gap, hole, or break; it can also be a violation of law or social norms.

A breach in the castle wall allowed invaders to pour into the courtyard.

Addressing the queen by her first name is a serious breach of etiquette.

In childbirth, a breech birth means the baby is born buttocks first (rather than head first).

The baby was so large that he never turned head-down, so the breech birth was difficult.

Breeches are pants or knickers.

He tore his breeches while climbing over the fence.

CALLUS/CALLOUS

A callus is a thickening of the skin due to continuous rubbing or friction.

The farmer had many calluses on his hands from working hard every day.

Callous is an adjective that means hard-hearted, emotionless, or hardened.

Only a callous individual would not stop to help a crying child.

HARDY/HEARTY

Hardy refers to a degree of bravery or constitution.

Hardy plants can survive the winter to grow in the spring.

The soldiers were hardy enough to survive a ten-mile walk in the snow.

Hearty means exuberant or full of heart.

His hearty laugh filled the tavern.

HOARD/HORDE

Hoard is a verb that means to collect in great quantity, and a noun that means a large quantity of stored goods.

If you want to hoard toilet paper, you need a place to store it.

Her hoard of toilet paper was ruined when the basement flooded.

A horde is a nomadic tribe, or a large number of soldiers or raiders.

The horde of barbarians caused quite a ruckus during their annual Easter Egg hunt.

KNOCK/NOCK

A knock is a rap that causes a sound.

Give the secret knock and the door will be opened.

To nock is to set an arrow onto a bowstring to prepare for firing.

He can nock an arrow faster than anyone in his squad.

APPENDIX A

LECTERN/PODIUM

A lectern is a speaker's stand with a shelf for written materials that one stands behind when addressing an audience.

The speaker leaned against the lectern when she felt faint.

A podium is a platform one stands upon, often when receiving an award, such as the podium at the Olympic games for the Gold, Silver, and Bronze Medal winners.

The crowd cheered as the athletes stepped upon the podium.

PARLAY/PARLEY

Parlay refers to the use of a resource (sometimes gambling winnings) to attempt further gain.

He took a risk, but the parlay of his winnings doubled his money.

Parley means negotiation.

A parley between the two children resulted in a satisfactory division of the candy.

Note that in a popular pirate movie, the word parlay is spoken when the word parley is intended.

PENULTIMATE/ULTIMATE

Penultimate means next to last. It does not mean above or beyond ultimate.

The penultimate letter in the alphabet is Y.

Ultimate means superb, final, or something that cannot be surpassed. It can also mean fundamental.

After many detours and delays, we reached our ultimate destination, where we were treated to the ultimate luxury experience.

THERE/THEIR/THEY'RE

Use there when referring to a place

"Over there"

Also use there with the verb BE (is, am, are, was, were) to indicate the existence of something, or to mention something for the first time.

Use their to indicate possession. It is a possessive adjective and indicates that a particular noun belongs to them.

They're is a contraction of the words they and are.

TO/TOO/TWO

To is a preposition that indicates a destination or direction: We're going to the mall.

Too means "in addition" or "excessive": My sister will come, too. She is too young to drive.

Two is a number: I will buy two horses.

YOUR/YOU'RE

Your is the possessive form of you. This tends to refer to something a person has or belongs to them.

You're is the contraction of the words you and are.

APPENDIX B: PROVERBS

Proverbs can offer numerous possibilities in fiction writing. In addition to providing characters with quotes or pearls of wisdom, they can serve as inspiration for a character's motivation, core concept, source of drive, or defining motto. The message of a proverb can also serve as a plot twist, theme, or literary device. Proverbs also make effective riddles, clues, dying words, and code elements.

A chain is only as strong as its weakest link.

PROVERBS

- Don't upset the apple-cart.
Don't wash your dirty linen in public.
Doubt is the beginning, not the end, of wisdom.
Early to bed and early to rise makes a man healthy, wealthy, and wise.
East or west, home's the best.
Easy come, easy go.
Enough is as good as a feast.
Every cloud has a silver lining.
Every dog has its day.
Every Jack has his Jill.
Every man has his price.
Every picture tells a story.
Every stick has two ends.
Everyone wants to go to heaven but nobody wants to die.
Failing to plan is planning to fail.
Faith will move mountains.
Familiarity breeds contempt.
Feed a cold and starve a fever.
Fight fire with fire.
First impressions are the most lasting.
First things first.
Fish and house guests smell after three days.
Fools rush in where angels fear to tread.
Forewarned is forearmed.
Forgive and forget.
Fortune favors the brave.
Give a person enough rope and he will hang himself.
God helps those who help themselves.
Good fences make good neighbors.
Good things come to those who wait.
Great minds think alike.
Half a loaf is better than no bread.
Haste makes waste.
He who fights and runs away, lives to fight another day.
He who hesitates is lost.
He who lives by the sword shall die by the sword.
The road to hell is paved with good intentions.
The shoemaker's son always goes barefoot.
The squeaky wheel gets the grease.
The third time's the charm.
The truth will win out.
The way to a man's heart is through his stomach.
There are none so blind as those who will not see.
There are two sides to every question.
There will always be more fish in the sea.
There, but for the grace of God, go I.
There's a time and place for everything.
There's an exception to every rule.
There's honor among thieves.
There's more than one way to skin a cat.
There's no place like home.
There's no point in crying over spilled milk.
There's no point in locking the stable door after the horse has bolted.
There's no time like the present.
There's safety in numbers.
They that sow the wind, shall reap the whirlwind.
Those who do not learn from history are doomed to repeat it.
Three times a bridesmaid, never a bride.
Time and tide wait for no man.
Time flies.
Time is a great healer.
Time is money.
Time will tell.
To err is human, to forgive divine.
To everything there is a season.
To the victor go the spoils.
Tomorrow is another day.
Tomorrow never comes.
Too many cooks spoil the broth.
Truth is stranger than fiction.
Two heads are better than one.
Two wrongs don't make a right.

APPENDIX B —

Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned.
Hindsight is always perfect.
Home is where the heart is.
Honesty is the best policy.
If anything can go wrong, it will.
If at first you don't succeed, try and try again.
If it isn't broken, don't fix it.
If it walks like a duck and quacks like a duck, then it's a duck.
If the mountain won't come to Mohammed, then Mohammed must go to the mountain.
If the shoe fits, wear it.
If you can't be good, be careful.
If you can't beat them, join them.
If you can't stand the heat, get out of the kitchen.
If you lie down with dogs, you will get up with fleas.
If you pay the piper, you call the tune.
If you want a thing done well, do it yourself.
Ignorance is bliss.
Imitation is the sincerest form of flattery.
In for a penny, in for a pound.
Into every life a little rain must fall.
It is better to give than to receive.
It is easy to be wise after the mistake.
It takes a thief to catch a thief.
It takes all kinds to make the world go around.
It takes one to know one.
It takes two to tango.
It's better to have loved and lost than never to have loved at all.
Jack of all trades, master of none.
Judge not, that you be not judged.
Keep your chin up.
Variety is the spice of life.
Virtue is its own reward.
Walls have ears.
Waste not, want not.
What can't be cured must be endured.
What goes up must come down.
What the eye doesn't see, the heart doesn't grieve over.
When in Rome, do as the Romans do.
When life gives you lemons, make lemonade.
When the cat's away, the mice will play.
When the going gets tough, the tough get going.
Where there's a will, there's a way.
Where there's smoke, there's fire.
While there's life, there's hope.
Wonders will never cease.
Work expands so as to fill the time allotted.
You are never too old to learn.
You are what you eat.
You can have too much of a good thing.
You can lead a horse to water, but you can't make it drink.
You can't have your cake and eat it, too.
You can't judge a book by its cover.
You can't make a silk purse from a sow's ear.
You can't make an omelette without breaking some eggs.
You can't squeeze blood from a stone.
You can't teach an old dog new tricks.
You can't turn the wind so turn the sail.
You can't win them all.
You'll catch more flies with honey than with vinegar.
Youth is wasted on the young.

Writers, game designers, teachers, and students ~this is the book you've been waiting for! Written by storytellers for storytellers, this volume offers an entirely new approach to word finding. Browse the pages within to see what makes this book different:

- ~ Entries arranged in chapters by topic. Find everything you need to design a character, scene, or setting all in one place—no need to hunt through pages of alphabetical listings!
- ~ Words that are crucial in fantasy, history, and horror. No other thesaurus names weapons, armor, magical items, mystical creatures, symbols, treasures, and descriptive terms essential for any genre.
- ~ Usage notes and writing tips to clarify and expand. The authors draw from decades of work to target areas of concern for beginning writers as well as experienced authors.

Let this book inspire new characters and develop original settings and locales. You'll be amazed at how quickly new ideas form as you browse. The Storyteller's Thesaurus just might be the cure for writer's block, dull prose, and stale ideas ~ pick up this book and let your world expand!

There is nothing more frustrating to a writer than looking for that perfect word, that word that captures the moment, that word that rivets the reader to the tale. The Storyteller's Thesaurus is an indispensable tool for the writer, the designer, or anyone who embarks on the story's journey.
