

The cover art is a dense, detailed illustration of a dark, cavernous environment. In the center, a large, muscular orc with a bloody mouth and a knife in his hand stands prominently. To his left, a pale, gothic-looking figure with long black hair and a white mask stands next to a large, bubbling cauldron. In the foreground, a green goblin-like creature is being cooked in the cauldron. The background is filled with various other creatures, including a large green dragon-like creature on the right, a red-furred creature at the top right, and a white-haired figure at the top center. The overall tone is dark and menacing, with a focus on the 'Pawns' of the game.
