

GAMEMASTERY[®]

MAP PACK

The background of the cover features a stone floor with a grid pattern. In the center, a glowing, fiery pentagram is drawn on the floor. At the top vertex of the pentagram is a human skull with a glowing orange flame in its forehead. The other four vertices of the pentagram are also marked with skulls, though they are less prominent. The lines of the pentagram are made of bright orange and yellow flames. On the stone floor around the pentagram, there are several small, glowing red symbols: a 'Y' on the left, a 'C' on the right, and a '6' at the bottom right. The overall atmosphere is dark and ominous.
