Cube - A decker who operates within the confines of the law. The three dimensional evolution of "square".

Gahump - A General Purpose Heavy Machine Gun. Somehow determined to the a pronunciation of the weapon's acronym, although now that I've really looked at it I have no idea how this was ever derived.

Kitty Cat Run - A shadowrun offering very little pay and challenge, usually offered to new shadowrunners so Mr. Johnson can test their abilities, but occasionally assigned when good work is scarce. So named when one Mr. Johnson had a group of runners rescue a kidnapped feline.

Panther Cozy - Any large bag used in a futile attempt to conceal an assault cannot.

Shit Run - see "kitty cat run"

"Something I don't have to stick in my goddamn head." - Common response to the "whadda ya need?" line used by drug dealers.

Underwear - Form fitting armor.
