Notes

Fritz

Few people know much about the gnome named Fritz. A lot of people know that "Fritz" isn't Fritz's real name, but the background knowledge stops there. He tends to be prudent and cautious, wise and thoughtful... until he's not (and when Fritz makes a decision, he makes everyone quite aware of it). Though less than two feet tall, Fritz always makes his presence known, and - when his personality doesn't work - he always has some other way to make a boom.

Special Actions

Praise

COST: 1 AP reflexively

Fritz may spend 1 action point reflexively to allow a party member to re-roll any resist, as long as they can hear him. He can only do this once per resist.
