A SIDEBAR HEADER

Sidebars in the Unknown Armies books have swipe flourishes above and below them but Statosphere community content sidebars are just squares.

A SIDEBAR SUBHEADER

It's a good idea not to make sidebars too big. If they get too big they should probably just be in the body text with a proper section and standard headers.

You can also put examples into sidebars, like this.

Example text is paragraph style with a fill behind it so that it looks like it is in a box but doesn't need a frame of its own

THIS IS AN EXAMPLE OF A PAGE WITH THE A-MARGINALIA MASTER.

It has been designed to allow wide margin notes.

DON'T FORGET: IMAGES SHOULD ALWAYS BE PHOTOGRAPHIC AND NOTE LINE ART. IMAGES SHOULD EXTEND TO THE BLEED OF THE PAGE BUT DO NOT EXTEND PAST THE LINE OVER TO THE RIGHT.

UNLESS THEY ARE FULL PAGE SPLASH IMAGES IN WHICH CASE GO TO ALL EDGES.

The Statosphere is for fan-made releases of Unknown Armies 3rd edition content, published under a special license and released exclusively through OneBookShelf and their community creator programs.

Every Unknown Armies book has its own color. Book One is Blue, Book Two is Red, Book Three is Purple.

Statosphere content is a kind of Rust Orange. The CMYK is 15/50/85/50.

These aren't margin notes, these are lynx notes, or written weird things in the margin.

These look best on the A-Page Master.
