ESCALATION

Deep behind enemy lines, kill teams are often sent on covert missions of intelligence gathering, sabotage, and assassination. Often outnumbered by their foes, the prospect of reinforcements is always gladly received, and this month there are several of them!

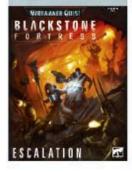

pon a million worlds, the fires of war burn bright and the cries of the damned echo to the heavens. Amidst the madness and the horror, elite bands of killers stalk each other through tangled jungles and echoing ruins, claustrophobic tunnels and blood-splattered trench-lines. These are the kill teams - hand-picked squads charged with completing the most dangerous and difficult missions, often behind enemy lines with little hope of support or reinforcement.

All sounds a bit bleak, doesn't it?

Fortunately, there are some new reinforcements this month to aid your elite band of warriors in their missions and maybe give them a little respite from the horrors of war, if only for a little while. They are the models from Warhammer Quest: Blackstone Fortress - Escalation.

NEW MODELS!

Blackstone Fortress Escalation includes thirteen new Citadel Miniatures (five good guys, eight heretic scum), plus all their associated cards, for use in your games of Warhammer Quest. And now you can us them in Kill Team, too!

ESCALATION

Over the next few pages, you'll find new Kill Team datasheets for the five characters in Blackstone Fortress – Escalation, plus datasheets for the sinister-looking Cultists of the Abyss. The Sanctioned Psyker Aradia Madellan and the Crusader Gotfret de Montbard can be included in Astra Militarum kill teams, while the Tech-Priest Daedalosus and the Servitor X-101 can be recruited for the Adeptus Mechanicus. The Rogue Trader Neyam Shai Murad can fight alongside almost any Imperial faction. Aradia, Daedalosus, and Neyam are also all Commanders, which means you can recruit them at different skill levels.

On the evil side is the Cultist Firebrand (also a Commander) and the Cultists of the Abyss, which would make for an impressive-looking kill team in their own right.

USING YOUR BLACKSTONE FORTRESS – ESCALATION MINIATURES IN KILL TEAM

The rules presented here are intended to allow players to use the miniatures contained within Warhammer Quest: Blackstone Fortress – Escalation in their games of Kill Team. Each of the explorers and X-101 have been presented as a new datasheet, allowing you to take these varied characters as part of your existing kill teams, either as unique specialists or as Commanders. You will also find datasheets for using the Cultists of the Abyss and the deadly Cultist Firebrand.

Beta Rules

The rules presented here are in a beta state. As such, they might change over time or be reprinted elsewhere with modifications. We would like to take this opportunity to allow players to give us feedback on these rules; you can send any comments or suggestions to us at our Kill Team FAQ email address: killteam@gwplc.com.

Whilst these rules have been written for use in all types of Kill Team games – including matched play games – if you intend to use them at organised events, it is ultimately up to the event organiser as to whether these rules will be allowed or not (as is the case with all of our beta rules).
