WFRP2 stats for Gotrek & Felix

These are unofficial WFRP2 rules/stats for two iconic Warhammer characters: Gotrek & Felix. Their epic journeys have lasted for decades. Adventures of a Dwarfen Slayer named Gotrek Gurnisson and his human Rememberer companion Felix Jaeger. Rules give their stats from various stages of their journey and give one idea of their advancement.

Following text taken from Doomstones: Death Rock (WFRP1 campaign sourcebook).

Gotrek Gurnisson is a Slayer: Proud, belligerent, loyal to his friends, and an implacable enemy. Death means nothing to him. He seeks it out, welcoming the chance to die, providing he goes down fighting against impossible odds. Death is the only thing left for him, an atonement for his secret crime. The only problem is, that Gotrek is just too tough, too lucky or too plain mean to die. He Meets threats head on, and armed with his trusty axe, overcomes them all.

In quieter moments, Gotrek is a sad character, given to fits of depression and prodigious drinking bouts. He hides a surprisingly educated mind behind his harsh exterior - he has an excellent grasp of Dwarven history and a high regard for skilled workmanship, no matter what the source. Every once in a while, he lets slip some fact that shows he knows much of Dwarven engineering. But he is bitterly lonely. His only real friend is Felix Jaeger, a human poet. Family and clan are lost to him - a terrible thing for any Dwarf. As a result he is closed-mouthed about the crime that brought him to his current state.

In noisier moments - and that means in the middle of a fight - Gotrek is one of the deadliest close-quarter fighter in the Old World. Nothing seems to be able to stand in his way. His insane disregard for personal safety, combines with a degree of skill that few can match, makes him a devastating opponent. Even without his axe, he gives far better than he gets... And, of course, like all Slayers he lacks subtlety; "tactical finesse" means "Charge!"

Gotrek, like most Slayers, is nasty, brutish and stocky. His body is covered in tattoos and a great crest of orange hair rises from his head. He is a fearsome sight. After the event described in Trollslayer, Gotrek will be missing an eye and has a patch instead.

Felix Jaeger is a man who knows he's going to die. It's only a matter of time. His friendship with Gotrek Gurnisson makes it inevitable. Felix has followed the Dwarf across every stretch of wilderness in the Old World and even beyond, waiting for the inevitable. So far, so good...

Felix was once a articulate, well-educated student studying classic literature at Altdorf University. Then one day, he found himself in a duel with the bullying Wolfgang Krassner. Felix despatched Krassner, although he certainly didn't intend to do so, and was expelled.

Felix's father disinherited him and the young poet took to politics. As a leader of the now infamous Window Tax march, Felix was at the head of the crowd when the peaceful demonstration degenerated into a riot and the Imperial Cavalry intervened to quell the bloodbath.

Felix's life was save when he was pulled from under the hooves of the cavalry by a drunken trollslayer, who then cut them a path to freedom.

After walking from an epic pub-brawl, Felix was horrified to discover that while drunk he had sworn to accompany the Dwarf and record his death in an epic poem. It was only when sobriety returned that Felix realized that witnessing the Troll Slayer's death might be the last thing he ever did. Since he was sought for the murder of Krassner, Felix had no choice but to follow Gotrek, the Dwarf, when he left the city. Of course, Felix has regreted his oath on many occasions. Since then his life has been exciting, to say the least... Although every once in a while, he gets quite nostalgic about being a student and poet in Altdorf - or even a Wool merchant like his father and brother.

Felix Jaeger is an amicable young man about six foot in height with blonde hair and a duelling scar on his cheek. He has a perpetual, twitchy, worried expression on his handsome face, as benefits one who is both infamous and an associate of Gotrek Gurnisson.

Weapons

Both Gotrek and Felix wield legendary runic weapons.

Gotrek's Axe (Runemaster's Axe / Axe of Valek)

Gotrek's Axe is a large Gromril (Star Metal) battle axe. Runemaster's Axe or Axe of Valek. Originally very old sister weapon to Hammer of Fate. Axe was wielded by the runemaster of lost dwarven realm of Karag Dum. Last runemaster of Karag Dum, Valek, lost his life fighting with the axe against Khorne Bloodthirster. With his death prophesy was given that one day the axe would return. Finally axe was given to King Thangrim Firebeards son Morakai. Morakai lost his life in the Chaos Wastes, from where many years later it was found by Dwarf Gotrek Gurnisson. Legend also tells that this weapon might have belonged to Grimnir himself...

- ❖ Treat the axe similar weapon as the best craftsmanship hand-and-a-half Claymore Sword (Special Weapon, Old World Armoury).
- ❖ Enc 135 (double in the hands of non-dwarf); +5 to WS; SB+1 (SB+1 comes from Gromril); Slow (one-handed) or Impact, Slow (two-handed).
- ❖ Axe has permanent runes of Rune of Bane (Chaos), Rune of Fury and Rune of Might. Rune of Bane (Chaos) glows in the close presence of Chaos or powerful Dark Magic (Dhar).
- ❖ Gromril weapon is unbreakable and increases the indicated damage by +1 (counted above).
- ❖ Holy Rune Item (Divine Blessing)* - Blessed by Grimnir: It seems that Dwarf attuned to this weapon will age slower (including close by companions), gains Regeneration ability (similar to Trolls), and becomes physically bigger and tougher. Weapon radiates immense power (make Magic Sense test to notice this).
  - Brawn: +10 Strength
  - Aura of Immortality: Causes invisible aura that affects the user (and possibly any close companions, that remain close for long periods of time). The user ages four times slower. It also reduces scarring (or they just seem to heal). User also seems to be very resistant to all disease rarely catching anything. GM may give bonuses to any tests against of mundane diseases (see below). If user loses the weapon, then he/she starts to age again fast, gaining the "slow" years in a faster pace.
    - Gain a +20 bonus to all tests against diseases.
  - Regeneration: Regenerate damage, even if at the point of death. Light Wounds heal one wound point per hour, heavy one wound point per day, up to maximum. Any critical/severe wounds heal twice as fast. This also means bones, which heal completely, without any sign of having ever been broken. All these abilities cease to function if the user dies.
- ❖ Mighty Rune Artifact*: During the ancient days, when Dwarfs were still experimenting Rune magic, they forged items, that broke the rune rules. This caused many major failures and even deadlier effects, before the rules for rune magic were born. But, there were also few successfully created mighty artifacts, which hold more runes, than it is anymore possible (unless you willingly break the rules and manage to do that without failure). Experimental rune magic used to create this artifact breaks the rules of rune magic, which were created to shield the items and their creators from the hazards of using the Winds of Magic (mostly the Wind of Chamon).
  - Master Rune of Unbinding: There is a hidden and lost rune hidden in the Gotrek's Axe. This is Master Rune of Unbinding. Its powers cannot be used, nor its presence seen, until right chant is said to activate the rune. This rune remains lost, as it is said, that only person to know the activation of this rune was the last runemaster of Karag Dum, Valek.

Gotrek's Axe and Mighty Rune Artifact rule

Gotrek's Axe is truly a mighty rune artifact hiding a Master Rune besides three normal runes! This is something that cannot be done these days by the runesmiths and which was very difficult (if not almost impossible) in the ancient days too. First the Master Rune of Unbinding was created and hidden in the axe. Then three normal runes were added, so nobody would even think that there is one more rune hidden. And if this doesn't make the axe powerful enough, it is also blessed weapon (by Grimnir), which gives even more bonuses to its wielder.

Karaghul ("Wyrmslayer")

Karaghul is a rune sword. Dragon hilted blade was originally wielded by Raphael, Templar of the Order of the Fiery Heart. He accompanied Dwarf Faragrim in searching the depths of Karag Eight Peaks. Sword was then lost. Later sword was sought by Templar Aldred "Fellblade" Keppler. He tried to retrieve sword from Karag Eight Peaks, but during the expedition Aldred was killed and his infamous companion Felix Jaegar retrieved the sword. Felix has wielded Karaghul since. The Order of the Fiery Heart is still searching for their lost sword.

- ❖ Karaghul is best craftsmanship sword.
- ❖ Enc 45; +5 to WS; Defensive.
- ❖ Karaghul has permanent Master Rune of Dragonbane*. Weapon causes sudden rage to it's wielder when Dragons are in 1000ft radius.

* More about these rules, see my Rune Expansion document. You can find rules about runes from the Realms of Sorcery (WFRP2 sourcebook) and rules about some new runes from below.

Master Rune of Dragonbane (WFRP2)

Inscription Number: 35

Empowerment: 12

Description (Permanent): Any weapon bearing this rune protects its wielder from any dragon breath weapon (no damage) and dragon inflicted fear and terror. Also, all allies within 48 yards (24 squares) gain protection against the fear and terror. Weapon bearing Dragonbane rune also ignores dragons armour (scales) and Toughness Bonus characteristic. When this rune gets close to any dragon it faintly glows. This happens about 1000ft range. Rune can also be inscribed on a missile (bolt, stone, arrow...etc.) and even on bullets shot with gunpowder weapons. Optional Rule: Master Rune can be so powerful, that it's hate against certain creature type will cause sudden rage (use Frenzy Trait) to wielder of weapon, when creature is 1000ft radius.

Description (Temporary): As permanent, but once the rune is activated (a free action), the benefit only lasts for 5 minutes and for missiles it only lasts one shot.

Master Rune of Unbinding (WFRP2)

I leave specific details of this rune out of this document - more from my Rune Expansion document. This is a legendary rune and a lost rune. It is in the Gotrek's Axe, but even someone would find this out, it would still need activation, which is also lost knowledge.

Rune of Bane (WFRP2)

Inscription Number: 14

Empowerment: 4

Description (Permanent): Any weapon bearing this rune gains an extra +4 bonus on damage rolls against one type of enemy (check Type of the Enemy -table). When rune gets close to its enemy type it will also faintly glow. This happens about 100ft range. Rune can also be inscribed on a missile (bolt, stone, arrow...etc.) and even on bullets shot with gunpowder weapons.

Description (Temporary): As permanent, but once the rune is activated (a free action), the benefit only lasts for 1 minute, but for missiles it only lasts one shot.

Multiple Runes:

- ❖ Two Runes: Two Runes of Bane causes' +8 bonus on damage rolls (see above). When rune gets close to its enemy type it will also faintly glow. This happens about 500ft range.
- ❖ Three Runes: Three Runes of Bane causes' +12 bonus on damage rolls (see above). When rune gets close to its enemy type it will also faintly glow. This happens about 1000ft range.

- ❖ Gotrek's career-path becomes pretty troublesome at this point. I direct him first into Champion career and then more ranger-type career-path. It suits their travelling lifestyle. From Explorer career Gotrek has taken Characteristic advances and Talents. He has also taken History, Outdoor Survival, Scale Sheer Surfaces, Swim and three Common Knowledge skills.

Lost Eye

Gotrek suffers a permanent -20 BS reduction and takes a -20 penalty on all Skill and Characteristic Tests reliant on sight.

Background:

- ❖ This is Gotrek & Felix after Orcslayer, Manslayer, Elfslayer, Slayer of the Storm God, Shamanslayer and Zombieslayer. It's been one of the most difficult and toughest year in their lives. After those events they have travelled to Karak Kadrin and gone to their separated ways. This is actually them at the beginning of 2524. After this long and hard journey I'll give both Gotrek & Felix 1500XP.
- ❖ Gotrek has now freed Felix from his vows to record his doom (which never seems to happen).
- ❖ Gotrek has just finished up Explorer career. Now, it is starting to become really difficult to decide where he should go - so, if I continue advance him we need to create some new epic (Tier 5) level career, with some new epic level talents. This is Legendary Slayer (see below).

Legendary Slayer (NEW Advanced Career) Warrior

Slayers regularly attempt impossible deeds, pitting their weapons and finely tuned killing skills against creatures that outclass them in terms of power and size by a hundredfold or more. Undaunted by hopeless odds or how many of their own kind fall, Slayers do not stop their attack until they are dead. From out of such fierce tenacity legends have grown - tales of Slayers performing deeds of unbelievable might.

History knows few Legendary Slayers who cannot seem to find the death they crave. They have tried to find their doom for decades facing impossible odds and terrifying monster, and still they are alive. Many call them jinxed, yet also many view their great deeds with silent respect (Dwarfs cannot really openly respect one who has taken the Slayers Oath). Examples for Slayers like this are infamous Gotrek Gurnisson, Snorri Nosebiter and Ungrim Ironfist, the Slayer King of Karak Kadrin.

Legendary Slayers are among the greatest warriors found from the world. They are fearsome and skilled opponents and many have become immune to horrors, because they have witnessed all of them.

Special: You must be Dwarf.

Career Entries: Daemon Slayer

Skills: Common Knowledge (any two), Follow Trail, Outdoor Survival, Scale Sheer Surfaces, Speak Language (any one)

Talents: Bigger They Are..., Deathwish, Final Strike, Strike Mightier Blow, Weaponmaster's Strike (any two melee), Whirlwind of Devastation, Will of Iron

Trappings: Great Weapon

Career Exits: Glorious death (finally)

- Bigger They Are... (Talent)

Description: You gain a +1 damage rolls against great opponents, this meaning those with Toughness 50 or greater.

- Deathwish (Talent)

Description: If you choose this reckless rage type of attack you gain a -20 penalty to Dodge and Parry and a -10 penalty to Weapon Skill for the duration of this battle. But, you gain an extra d10 for all your damage rolls and may pick the highest result. Weapons without Impact quality this means that you may roll two d10 and pick the best result and weapon with Impact quality you may roll THREE d10 and pick the best result. Deathwish rules (bonuses and penalties) remain for the entire battle and they can only be used with melee weaponry.

- Final Strike (Talent)

Description: If you deal more than 10 damage in a single melee hit (and only melee), you inflict a Critical Hit even if the target is not yet at 0 wounds. The severity of the Critical hit is determined by how far above 10 you go, so an 11 is treated as a Critical of 1, 12 is 2, and so on. If you would do a higher critical normally, you take the higher result.

Originally from Knights of the Grail (WFRP2 sourcebook) and uses Virtue of Heroism rules.

- Strike Mightier Blow (Talent)

Description: You know how to target melee attacks so they do extra damage. You gain a +1 damage rolls with melee weapons (you gain a +2 bonus if you already have Strike Mighty Blow talent).

- Weaponmaster's Strike (Talent)

Description: Choose one weapon, melee or missile. This is not weapon type, it should be specific weapon. Example: Longsword, Rapier, Great Sword...etc. You can reroll any failed attack once in your turn, when using this weapon. If you use multiple attacks and more than one of those fail you can reroll only one attack (one per turn). This is unusual in that it is not one talent, but many and each must be acquired individually. Each is a separate proficiency.

- Whirlwind of Devastation (Talent)

Description: When you are outnumbered by 3 to 1 (or worse), you gain +1 Attack for the duration of the battle. Note! This means that every one on your side must be outnumbered by 3 to 1 (or more).

- Will of Iron (Trait)

Description: A creature with this trait is immune to fear and terror, as well as the effects of the Intimidate skill and the Unsettling talent.

Originally from Old World Bestiary (WFRP2 sourcebook)

Gotrek suffers a permanent -20 BS reduction and takes a -20 penalty on all Skill and Characteristic Tests reliant on sight.

Background:

- ❖ This is Gotrek & Felix after the events of Kinslayer and Rememberers short novel, at the beginning of Slayer. For two years they have fought their way through devastated Kislev and the northern Empire towards Altdorf. This has been perilous and dangerous journey as war against Chaos rages on. It's hard to say how much experience they have gained, 2000XP or 1000XP? I decide to give both Gotrek & Felix 1200XP, just to keep the amount reasonable.
- ❖ Gotrek has now entered to Legendary Slayer career (see above). He has taken all the Characteristic advances and most of the Talents.

Background:

- ❖ This is Felix after the events of Dragonslayer and Beastslayer.
- ❖ It's hard to say what career is most suited for Felix at this point, but I think it should be warrior-based. Felix fighting skills are improving. So, I decided that he becomes Mercenary at this point (he has taken WS advance and one more Attack). Mercenary skill set is very suited for their adventuring style.

Felix Jaeger - Vampireslayer (circa 2506)

Career: Mercenary (ex-Vagabond, ex-Student)

- ❖ Felix has finished Mercenary career and entered Veteran career. He has taken Consume Alcohol, Dodge Blow advances and +5 to WS.

Weapons: Karaghul (Sword) (+5WS; 1d10+5*; CV+1; Defensive), Unarmed (1d10+1*; CV+1; AP x2)

Background:

- ❖ This is Felix when they return back to the Empire in Orcslayer. For years (decade or so) they have been adventuring in the world. I'll give both Gotrek & Felix 2800XP for those years.
- ❖ Felix is getting older, even he is just over forty now. But, it seems that divine blessings on the Gotrek's Axe also affect him too. Felix seem to have aged slowly compared to others.
- ❖ As Gotrek has become more ranger-type, so will Felix. I move Felix to Scout career after Veteran (from Vagabond exits). From Scout career he has taken all the missing Characteristic advances and Common Knowledge skills and Language skills (from their journeys in the far east).

Felix Jaeger - Epic Rememberer (circa 2524)

Career: Newssheet Vendor (ex-Scout, ex-Veteran, ex-Mercenary, ex-Vagabond, ex-Student)

Experience: 9100 advances + 800 career changes

Race: Human (The Empire: Reikland)

Weapons: Karaghul (Sword) (+5WS; 1d10+5*; CV+1; Defensive), Unarmed (1d10+1*; CV+1; AP x2)

Background:

- ❖ This is Gotrek & Felix after Orcslayer, Manslayer, Elfslayer, Slayer of the Storm God, Shamanslayer and Zombieslayer. It's been one of the most difficult and toughest year in their lives. After those events they have travelled to Karak Kadrin and gone to their separated ways. This is actually them at the beginning of 2524. After this long and hard journey I'll give both Gotrek & Felix 1500XP.
- ❖ Gotrek has now freed Felix from his vows to record his doom (which never seems to happen).
- ❖ It's time for Felix to use his last experience to his next career move. So, I decide that he skips Scout career and doesn't take following Talents: Rapid Reload, Sure Shot and Specialist Weapon. Instead he moves to become Newssheet Vendor (Spires of Altdorf, Career Compendium). This move takes 200XP as Felix never fully finished up his Student career. Why Newssheet Vendor you may ask? Well, after Felix "retires" to Altdorf he becomes part of the propaganda machine of the Royal House of Luitpold. He writes war-propaganda for the Reiksmarshall himself and this is printed and published all over the Empire (Kinslayer). So, this career seems to be pretty suited for that purpose.
- ❖ Felix has taken Public Speaking and also advances to Performer (Storyteller) and Read/Write.

Felix Jaeger - Hero of the End Times (circa 2527)

Career: Sergeant (ex-Newsheet Vendor, ex-Scout, ex-Veteran, ex-Mercenary, ex-Vagabond, ex-Student)

Experience: 10200 advances + 900 career changes

Race: Human (The Empire: Reikland)

Weapons: Karaghul (Sword) (+5WS; 1d10+5*; CV+1; Defensive), Unarmed (+10WS; 1d10+2*; CV+1; AP x2)

Background:

- ❖ This is Gotrek & Felix after the events of Kinslayer and Rememberers short novel, at the beginning of Slayer. For two years they have fought their way through devastated Kislev and the northern Empire towards Altdorf. This has been perilous and dangerous journey as war against Chaos rages on. It's hard to say how much experience they have gained, 2000XP or 1000XP? I decide to give both Gotrek & Felix 1200XP, just to keep the amount reasonable.
- ❖ Felix is now well respected among the warriors they have gathered along their way. This is partly because his reputation, but also because of his experience. He has also become pretty good leader. So, it is logical to move him to Sergeant career now (from Veteran career exits). From there he can get military oriented skills he needs now. But, this time I first let him finish up Newsheet Vendor career, and then move him to Sergeant career.
- ❖ From Sergeant career Felix has taken: Academic Knowledge (Strategy/Tactics), Command, Intimidate and full advances to Fellowship.
