

Where did you get your Hand Weapon?

Roll	Source
01	It's a family heirloom, handed down from father to son
02-03	It's been hanging over the fireplace since you were young
04-05	You found it gathering dust in an old chest
06	It was lying at the bottom of a stream
07-08	It was given to you by an old veteran, crippled by his wounds
09-10	It was issued to you by the town militia
11-12	You got it when you joined up (you may have left later)
13	You found it inexplicably lying in a field
14	You stole it from a sleeping (or drunk) soldier
15-16	You won it in a game of dice or cards
17-18	It was left in your house after soldiers were billeted there
19-20	You found it in a dead man's hand
21-22	You found it in a dead man's skull
23-24	Your best friend willed it to you upon his death, and that came all too soon
25-26	You bought it from a travelling pedlar who swore it was dwarf-made
27-28	You bought it from a great weaponsmith
29	You had it commissioned at great cost
30-31	It was a Dooming present from your parents
32	A dying man handed it to you with his last breath
33	Your eccentric uncle gave it to you when your parents weren't looking
34-35	It was being used around the house for chores
36-37	You took it from a man you beat in a brawl
38-39	You took it from a man you killed in a battle
40-41	You stole it from the site of a great battle
42	It belonged to your older sibling, but now he or she is dead
43-44	You won it in a local sporting competition
45	A mysterious sage gave it to your parents, saying it was your true birthright
46-48	You were using it for your work
49-50	You borrowed it from your father, and he expects it back in good condition
51-52	You "borrowed" it from your father, and better be far away when he finds out
53	It was the weapon that killed one of your loved ones
54	It was presented to you by your master upon completing your weapons course
55-56	Somebody tried to kill you with it
57	You woke one morning to find it stabbed through your pillow
58	You saved a man's life, and in return he gave you his weapon
59	A poverty-stricken warrior gave it to you in exchange for your kindness
60-62	It's regular issue for everyone in the company
63-64	Your mother bought it for you before you went away, to keep you safe
65-66	After the robberies, you got it for self-defence
67-68	All the other lads had one, so you scrimped and saved for your own
69	You had a mysterious windfall, and figured to spend it on a weapon
70-71	You whined or sulked until your parents, mentor or beau bought you one
72-73	Weapons are the highest fashion this year – you had to have one
74	You saved all your life for a weapon with which to fight evil
75-76	After the misunderstanding, you wanted to make sure you had protection
77-78	You stole it from a grave or tomb
79	It was granted to you as recognition of your station
80	It was gifted to you for a deed of heroism
81-83	You made it yourself
84-85	It was given to you as a bribe
86-87	You won it in a bet
88	You won it in a raffle
89	It was a gift from an admirer (welcome or unwelcome)
90	It was bought as a gift for someone, but they rejected it or never got it
91-93	It was payment in kind for your services, legal or otherwise
94-95	You've owned it all your life, even as a young 'un
96	Somebody passed it to you secretly in a pub, mistaking you for someone else
97	You don't know where it came from, but it seems to call to you
98-99	Someone must have left it in the privy
00	You pulled it out of some old stone in the forest
